LADIES STEP FORWARD

FASHION FORECAST

BY JEAN

THE FRILLY, CUFF-LINKED BLOUSE is everywhere, looking downright dramatic when combined with a pin-stripe, slightly manish — rebirth of navy is here, with khaki and black following the leader . . . the touch of white, particularly at the neckline, has returned, with organly in the lead.

BLAZERS are blazing in all mediums — dress suits, sportswear, and evening brocades. The double-breasted closing and buttons of gold buttons are the final touch . . . The Young Elegance Status Coat, double-breasted, is continuing strong for Spring with high, round hoods, or as a robe. Robin Hood chains are lightened in texture and shown with blouses on tops and Chanel-type suits.

Speaking of Color — Brighten your grey hair with a beautiful, Fresh Start.

"FRESH START" . . . Here are the first young grays for today's mature, but vital woman. From almost white to charcoal, every shade is so vibrant, it not only shimmers your hair with natural looking color but also seems to give your complexion a new young radiance. And "Fresh Start" outlasts those many other 30-day rinses by weeks!

Why not ask your operator at Jean's Bel-Aire to select the shade for your "Fresh Start"?

Franklin Knolls Woman's Club Stages Annual Fashion Show

The members of the Franklin Knolls Woman's Club are to be congratulated for the splendid job they did sponsoring this year's Fashion Show Luncheon which was staged before an enthusiastic gathering at Farmington's Glen Oaks Country Club last Thursday. This annual fund-raising activity the Franklin Knolls Woman's Club holds each year to support their fine program of providing funds for Camp Oakland.

It was the feeling of the Club that bringing happiness to some little youngster who will be able to attend summer camp through their generosity provides members with a gratifying reward.

AT THE FASHION show last week, it was the opinion of some members that the most interesting costumes than those that were shown by the models, were the club members' own.

The Master of Ceremonies will be William O'Brien of Clawson. Among those serving on committees are: Margaret Waldron, Birmingham; Margaret Billings, Pontiac; Sue Bailey, Berkeley; Florence Hedges, Ferndale; Katie Rutherford, Ferndale; Gertrude Daly, Westford; Evelyn Hight, Oxford; Rose Robinson, Royal Oak; and Ann Edwards, Madison Heights.

This dinner will be the Seventh Annual Hart Dinner honoring U.S. Senator Philip A. Hart. It will be held at the Hazel Park High School, 23400 Hughes Street in Hazel Park, 6:30 p.m., Saturday, April 4, 1964.

The tickets may be obtained from Aldo Vagnizzi, 21653 Kirkland (GR. 4-3655), Farmington.

Ten Mile PTA Meeting Held

A highly entertaining musical program was performed by the fifth and sixth grades of the Ten Mile School, under the direction of Mrs. Edna Milford, on Monday evening, March 16.

A short business meeting followed the program at which time the PTA elections were held.

Those elected to the 1964-65 board positions were: President, Mrs. Margaret Farrell; first vice president, Mr. John Hultet; mother vice president, Mrs. Joan Farrell; teacher vice president, Mrs. Margaret Farrell; Secretary, Mrs. Margaret Savely; council delegate, Mrs. Day Morris.

Refreshments were served to all performers and parents to climax the evening.

Kendallwood Farms Association to Meet

The Kendallwood Farms Association will meet Wednesday, April 1, at 8 p.m. in the O. E. Dunklee Junior High to hold the election of officers for the coming year and to elect members of the auditing committee.

Tickets to the Kendallwood Farms Association Spring Frolie to be held April 3 will also be available for purchase at the Wednesday night meeting. At that time Mrs. Stephanie Kuester will be selling them at the door.

On Easter Sunday, these members will offer free transportation to church for anyone without a ride. This community service may be obtained by calling the Farmington Moose Lodge, 474-3635.

Moose Lodge Dance Set Saturday Night

The Farmington Moose Lodge 1095 will hold a dance Saturday, March 28, at 9:30 p.m. in the Moose Home, 2738 West Eight Mile Road. All members of the Moose Lodge and their wives are invited to attend. Music will be furnished by the popular band of Johnny Lambert and his boys.

Recently, Farmington Moose members made contributions of clothing, stamper toys, clothing boxes and candy to the children who are patients at Northville State Hospital.

On Easter Sunday, these members will offer free transportation to church for anyone without a ride. This community service may be obtained by calling the Farmington Moose Lodge, 474-3635.

Chorus Feted After Cantata Rehearsal

The Chorus members of the 9th Annual Easter Cantata recently enjoyed a social tea, Mary Welch, also singer, a chairman of the social affair, insured the participants a very successful get-together. The social gathering a most enjoyable one with coffee, cake, punch, cookies, and cup cakes. William Feuch, conductor of the Cantata, termed the social gathering a most enjoyable one with coffee, cake, punch, cookies, and cup cakes. William Feuch, conductor of the Cantata, termed the social gathering a most enjoyable one with coffee, cake, punch, cookies, and cup cakes.

Senior Citizens Party, Fashion Show April 8

The Farmington Senior Citizens Society will hold its annual dessert-card party and a fashion show on Wednesday, April 8, starting at 12:30 p.m. in the hospital room at First Avenue Savings and Loan between Orchard Lake Road and Mooney Street.

The fashion show, entitled "Fashioned by Nature," will be presented by Mrs. Hope Nahlstoll with the models wearing fashions which were in style many years ago including long, flowing shoes, bonnets and bustle back dresses. This collection is from the wardrobe of The Farmington Players, Inc.

Many fine prizes will be given at this annual event which is the only fund raising project of the group. The Senior Citizens Club invites to all to see the funds received will be used for expenses and a entertainment costs for the entire year.

For information on tickets call GR. 4-7037 or GR. 4-6534.

Local Woman's Club To Meet on April 1

The Farmington Woman's Club will meet on Wednesday, April 1, at the home of Mrs. Guy R. Marsh, 28600 Haledale Road, for its regular monthly meeting.

Program Chairman of the Day, Mrs. Frederick D. Primrose, is planning an interesting and timely program. William Spence, representing the World Edition Company, will show slides of the New York World's Fair for 1964-65.

The fair opens on April 22 and is scheduled to exhibit the "greatest look into tomorrow."

Members of the Club may respond to Roll Call with a Garden Memory.

MR. FEUCH pointed out the increasing enthusiasm for the Waring arrangement of "God Bless America" and the Holst arrangement of the "148th Psalm," two of the numbers which will be presented on April 10, the performance dates of this year's Cantata. He said the University of Michigan symphony orchestra, which is accompanying the chorus, will rehearse with the chorus on Sunday afternoon, April 5.

Mrs. Feuch will accompany the entire group on the large Allen organ.

Tickets went on sale this week for the Cantata and can be purchased from any chorus member, from Farmington High School, GR. 4-6135, at the door on April 10, and here at The Enterprise office, Jerry Stone, bass, is chairman of adult ticket sales.

Mr. Feuch and the chorus are looking for a full house on April 10. The Cantata will again be recorded for those interested in adding it to their record libraries. The Cantata will be presented at Farmington High School.

Town Club Plans Annual Card Party-Fashion Show

The Farmington Town Club will present their seventeenth annual card party-fashion show at North Farmington High, 13 Mile at Farmington Road, on Thursday, April 2, at 8 p.m.

A beautiful satinet-lined brocade evening jacket with removable buttons, three pockets, collar has been donated by George Dixon, farmer. A similar jacket in beige with autumn haze-mink collar has been donated by Irene MacKinnon of the Deakney Shop as one of the doot prizes.

PRINCIPLE door prizes are those mentioned above, three certificates for furniture from Homestead House, an exquisite table decoration by Lawrence Mayer, and about forty other prizes.

Honoring our newest state, Hawaii, the party has been proclaimed "Nunul Hoolaulae," a very big gathering for fun by President Mrs. Steve Bruce. Every detail, from flowers on the tea table to door and table prizes, will carry out the Hawaiian theme.

Town Club members, taking tickets at a and serving refreshments will wear Hawaiian muumuu. In charge of decorating the high school gym, Mrs. Bill Groff has secured swaying palm trees and even a smoking Diamond Head!

FASHIONS from the R. B. Shops and furs by George Dixon will be modeled to the accompaniment of organ music, and hair styling will be by Ernest & Ise.

Quite a lot of fun and glamour for just a small admission charge. An open invitation is extended to all.
