Diane Joy Rutherford Weds Friedrich Gadde

Miss Diane Joy Rutherford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Rutherford of Farmington was united in marriage to Mr. Friedrich P. Gadde, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Gadde of Farmington on a March 14 wedding ceremony at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Farmington. The Rev. W. F. Rutkowski officiated.

The bride wore a floor length gown of peach tulle with seed pearls and crystals applied on Alcon lace with a chapel train, it had a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves. The bride's dress was a finger tip bouffant veil secured by a three-tiered crown of crystals and pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of Amazon lilies and stephanotis.

MRS. HENRY Evert was the matron of honor, wore a gown of apricot nylon sheer over tulle, and carried a nosegay bouquet of tangerine carnations and zinnia roses. The bridesmaids were Miss Janet Gadde and Miss Linda Gadde. Their gowns and bouquets were the same as the matron of honor.

The flower girl, Miss Kathleen McHale, cousin of the bride, also wore a dress of apricot nylon sheer over tulle and carried a miniature freestyle basket of tangerine carnations and zinnia roses.

THE BRIDEGROOM'S best man was his brother, Charles Gadde. Ushers were Richard Rutherford, Robert Gadde, Henry Evert and Donald Brodick.

For her daughter's wedding the bride's mother chose an avocado green lace dress and matching hat. The bridegroom's mother wore a light blue linen dress and hat with a pink and white flowered hat.

A reception was held at the St. Francis K. of C. hall following the ceremony.

The newlyweds, honeymooned in Wisconsin, and are now making their home in Detroit.

Music teaches us two virtues greatly needed today—discipline in preparation, imagination in performing.

Area Mill Creek Questers Meet

The March meeting of the Farmington Mill Creek Questers was held at the home of the Vice President, Mrs. W. A. DeHaan.

Mrs. DeHaan presented a program on "Antique Painted Furniture" and showed examples of this type of furniture.

Representatives of the chapter attended a Queter luncheon on March 31, at the Dearborn home of Mrs. Oliver Hanna. First Vice-President of the National Queter organization. Plans were discussed for forming a state Queter organization which would include the existing sixteen Michigan chapters with a present membership of over 350. Michigan would be the first state to have a Queter organization at a state level. Mrs. Alvin Lowmsbury of the Dearborn Pontchartrain chapter will serve as President Pro-Tem.

Plans were also discussed regarding the Queter display scheduled for the Detroit Rotary Club Antiques Show, June 4, 5, 6 and 7, at "Fair Lane," former residence of Henry and Clara Ford. Processions of antique show are to support the refurbishing of the Fair Lane home as an outstanding conference center at the University of Michigan Dearborn campus.

Anyone wishing to learn more about antiques and the interesting Queter activities call the M. 11 Creek President, Mrs. Preston Meisel, GR. 4-6099.

Miss Carolyn Maxine Klug Weds Alex Boratynski, Jr.

Miss Carolyn Maxine Klug, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard A. Klug of 1865 West Long Lake Road, Bloomfield Hills, Michigan, exchanged wedding vows with Mr. Alex Boratynski, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Boratynski, Sr. of 22509 Orchard Lake Road in Farmington. The wedding ceremony took place Saturday, February 15, at 7 p.m. in the Lutheran Church of the Shepherd King located at Middlebelt Road and West Maple Road.

The Rev. Karl Boehmer, pastor of the Shepherd King Lutheran Church, officiated at the single ring ceremony. White carnations decorated the altar along with candelabras located at each end of the altar.

THE BRIDE'S wedding gown featured long lace pointed sleeves, scalloped neckline with sequins, layers of lace with sequins and a chapel train. The bride's headpiece was a crown of pearls and sequins securing a bouffant veil. She carried white carnations, red tipped in the center, with streamers for her bridal bouquet.

Nancy Klug, sister-in-law of the bride, was the matron of honor. She wore a red satin sheath dress with a bell skirt attached. Her flowers were white carnations, tipped in red, with white streamers.

Miss Margaret Gavne served as the bridesmaid. She wore a red satin sheath dress with a bell skirt attached and red satin shoes. Her headpiece secured a bouffant veil of red and she carried white carnations tipped in red for her bouquet.

Mr. Robert Costes served the bridegroom as his best man. Mr. Robert Pratel was the best man and Mr. Albert Klug served as the usher.

MRS. MARGE DAMITZ sang, "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by Miss Lorretta Turmiquin.

For the occasion, the bride's mother chose a pink silky sheath dress with long sleeves. Pink satin shoes and purse and completed her ensemble. She wore a corsage of pink variegated carnations.

The bridegroom's mother wore an off-white suit with a pink blouse. Pink shoes, hat, hand, purse were her accessories. She wore a corsage of pink-variegated carnations.

A reception was held in the Farmington American Legion home with 250 guests enjoying a buffet styled dinner.

The bride is a 1959 graduate of Bloomfield Hills High School and has been employed at the St. Vincent and Sarah Fisher Home for Children in Farmington. Mr. Boratynski is a 1962 graduate of Redford High School and is employed as a brick layer with his father.

Following a honeymoon trip to Northern Michigan, the couple plan to make their home at 2335 Union Lake Road in Union Lake, Michigan.
