Big Rummage Sale This Sat. At First Meth.

"Rummage" is the password at the First Methodist Church Grand River at Warner as the Women's Society of Christian Science prepares for the Spring Rummage Sale to be held in the church basement Saturday, April 18, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.
The women are still collecting the usual assortment of cast-off articles and invite everyone in the community to contribute. Clothing (especially children's and youth's), toys and sporting goods, household articles, such as dishes, kitchen utensils, bed spreads, blankets, quilts, sheets, tools, lamps, radios, clocks, records and record players and in fact, almost anything is wanted.
Mrs. G. V. Harrison (GR. 4-5376) and Mrs. Frank Kueck, co-chairman for the event, will arrange to pick up rummage items from homes and bring them to the church. The rummage sale should come to the rear door of the church, by the parking lot, Thursday and Friday, and the hours are 9 to 12 noon, and 1 to 4 each day.
Mrs. Kueck says rummage should be at the church by Friday at 2 p.m. so that sorting and marking can be completed that afternoon.
Mrs. Corwin Overton, as Women's Society Treasurer, is in charge of the "cashiers" who will check out the customers' purchases.
An additional feature is the "Coffee Corner" where coffee and doughnuts will be available for both weary shoppers and workers. Members of the MYV will staff the "Coffee Corner" under the leadership of their president, Miss Diana Sanford.
Proceeds of the Rummage Sale will be used in the missionary program of the Women's Society of Christian Science.
Any articles left over from the sale are sent to a non-sectarian charitable organization, so that absolutely nothing is wasted.
