AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE women Farmington were busy last week completing the work connected with their chapter's exhibit to be on view at the Metropolitan Detroit American Field Service Festival, "Hands Across the Sea," to be staged this Saturday, April 18, from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, 32 Lake Shore Road, Grosse Pointe.

Farmington AFS Chapters To Exhibit World Foods

The Farmington chapters of the American Field Service will present an exhibit of "Foods Around the World" at the Metropolitan Detroit AFS Festival to be held Saturday, April 18, from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, 32 Lake Shore Road, Grosse Pointe.

Included in the Farmington AFS booth will be items of food for sale such as imported bulk cheeses and gourmet foods, baskets, old fashion penny candy and exotic recipes.

Mayor Robert Lindbergh has proclaimed American Field Service Week in Farmington from April 12 through the 18th in honor of the many outstanding contributions of the AFS organization.

HIGHLIGHTING the national observance of "American Field Service Week" will be the Grosse Pointe Festival, "Hands Across the Sea," on Saturday.

The Farmington AFS chapters are taking a prominent role in the Metropolitan Detroit program with local members Mrs. W. P. Bunnell, Mrs. Steele Cox and Mrs. Conrad Lam on the Board of Directors of Farmington.

Tickets to the program Saturday are available from Mrs. C. M. Manasco (626-5079) in North Farmington and from Mrs. Dunckel.

Twenty-four boys and girls from the Vocal Music Department of the O. E. Dunckel School, Farmington, entertained the residents of the Eventide Home Friday evening, April 3, and received excellent applause.

They appeared to be a versatile group for there were four vocal solos and each soloist was accompanied by a different person at the piano.

These included the director, Edy E. Ellegood, and Cindy Ramsey, both of whom sang vocal solos; Joan Logan and Janet Greene. The group songs started with "You and I" and closed with "Let There Be Peace on Earth" by the "Dunckelites," all twenty-four of them.

Hill and Dale Garden Club Holds Meeting

The April meeting of the Hill and Dale Garden Club was held at the Farmington Savings and Loan Hospitality Room last Thursday evening.

Mrs. Richard Geraty presented a most interesting talk about the growing of herbs entitled "Sniff and Snip Garden."

Herbs have been grown since Biblical times for scent and flavor and for medical purposes.

TODAY'S GARDENER will find the growing of these herbs would be handy for use in cooking and so that their delightful fragrance could be enjoyed.

Fund Raising Chairman Mrs. Joseph Pietra reported to the membership of the success of the recent salad luncheon and fashion show held at St. Paul's Social Hall, Piquette.

Benefit the garden therapy classes sponsored by the Hill and Dale Garden Club in the Special Education Course of the Farmington schools.

Hostess Chairman for the evening was Mrs. E. W. Ruhlman and she was assisted by Mrs. Robert Mock, Mrs. Robert Newkirk, Mrs. John Noreen and Mrs. Vernon Olsen.

African Violet Soc. To Meet in Gd. Rapids

The First African Violet Society of Grand Rapids will hold their annual Show of Violets on Thursday, April 23, from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. in the Black and Silver Room of the Civic Auditorium in Grand Rapids.

The Theme of the Show is "Splendor of Violets." All new varieties will be on display.

A BOOKLET entitled "Growing African Violets" compiled by the club, telling how to grow a violet plant from a leaf to a beautiful flowering show plant including what soil and fertilizer to use and how to make the plants bloom well will be on sale at the show.

Flowering plants will be on sale, including supplies such as fertilizers, markers and pots will be sold at the show.

This show is open to the public without admission.

Theatre Party Plans Disclosed

Mrs. Leo Bell, of 23630 Bick-dren Court, Farmington, has been named chairman of the Annual Theatre Party sponsored by the Farmington chapter of the Women of Wayne State University. The appointment was made by Mrs. J. C. Miller, 2374 Warner, Farmington, club chairman.

Slated for Friday, May 1, at the Farmington Playhouse, the annual affair will feature Ball at GR. 4-2225, or Mrs. Miller at 476-0855.

For further information or to order tickets, please call Mrs. Miller at 476-0855.

Proceeds from the play will benefit the club's serving project of providing clothing for needy Farmington school children.

Curis are back. Hairstyles have come full circle, from curls to waves to smooth, straight coiffures, and now back to curls. The trend has started, and we think you'll want to board the bandwagon because curly hair boasts such special virtues. First, it's so undeniably feminine, so universally man-approved. Second, it's so versatile, so readily adaptable to any length and texture of hair.

Of course, a curly hairdo makes its own demands. Cutting and shaping are important, and we particularly like the semicircular cut that makes curls light and graceful. Next, unless your locks curl naturally, a soft permanent is indicated. For some of the more dramatic evening styles, add a curly hairpiece or two for all-out glamour.

THIS WEEK'S HELPFUL HINT: Some curl suggestions—Pigeonhole with three open curls at each side; Sophisticated combination of curls and waves; Short hair with wavy bang, swirling in the back. A flower of pretty ringlets for mid-length hair.

We are now offering an incredible new permanent with a wide, wide wave which is simple, dependable and very satiate. Just call—
