

Youth Conference Planned

Governor George Romney, Michigan YMCA of Detroit, has recently called an all day conference on Youth to deal with the problems of vulnerable youth and to discuss programs, and how they can be "blue print" of service created by the Michigan Youth Commission.

Attending this April 28 conference will be several representatives of the YMCA, including Rev. Don Bodley, chairman of the State YMCA Youth Committee; Rev. Roger Blood, State YMCA Staff; and Mr. Charles Wise, Program Extension Secretary of the metropolitan.

Farmington Bethel 55, International Order, held their semi-annual school of instruction on April 15 at the Masonic Temple. Miss Denzelle Darrow, capable filled the station of senior custodian in the absence of Nancy Crumb. Refreshments were served by Past Guardian, William S. Senger and her committee. Decorations were made by Marie Gelson.

Plans were announced that the Bethel 55 will perform at St. Clair Shores Bethel 52 on April 24, at a dinner and reception honoring the Grand Bethel Musician, Miss Diane Whitehead, and the Grand Bethel Representative to the state of Iowa.

Bethel 55 was represented throughout the state this past week when acting Honored Queen Joanna Becker attended a reception at Saginaw; Cynthia Line was pro-tem candle holder when Walled Lake Bethel 52 exemplified before the Walled Lake Chapter of Easter Star at their annual Friendship Night; Linda Williamson and Mariette Anne Lars participated in a program of entertainment at the Arnold Home for the Aged in Detroit. Sherry's borrow, accompanied by the Violet Society, says anyone can enter the April 25 show and the Farmington Senior High public is cordially invited to Sherry's Bethel Chapter.

Women Voters Meet April 28

An informative program of the function and structure of the local government was presented recently to the members of the Provisional League of Women Voters.

The council-manager form of government of the City of Farmington, was outlined by John Dinan, city manager. The township that is governed by a supervisor, clerk, treasurer, and four trustees was detailed by Curt Hall, township supervisor.

The question and answer period that followed ran well over schedule and gave indication of a great interest in our local government.

The committee of Public Welfare, Mrs. S. Warren, Mrs. J. Everhart, Mrs. M. Guro, Mrs. J. Alstrom and Mrs. R. Peters will give an opening presentation of the concert to the Farmington VFW, Auxiliary, April 28, meeting at First Farmington Savings & Loan Building on Orchard Lake just east of the Farmington Plaza.

Mark 50th Wedding Anniversary April 19

Mr. and Mrs. Benny Gennette, 21509 Rensseler, Farmington, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary with a family dinner on April 19.

A reception for family and friends followed in the evening. The couple was married in San Francisco, Calif. They have been residents of Farmington for over forty years. They have five children, Tony, Rocco, Williams, Frank, and Mrs. Marge March, eighteen grandchildren; and one great-grandchild.

Also attending the celebration was a member of the original bridal party, Mrs. John Fallone, who was the flower girl.

LADIES STEP FORWARD Fashions

A wide variety in slacks and blouses creates much interest. My favorite - a crinkly silk slack in pure white with a turtle neck shirt to match, pretty, fun, and surprisingly dressy.

Head to toe no longer means that you stalk up and down Main Street, buying a blouse here, a hat there, a shoe up-town and "which handbag shall it be?"

The total look is today the recognized great look - fashion - and not at the un-reachable price of Haute Couture, but part of the living, breathing, pulsating American Look.

Beginning with the hair style:

Soft Allure for Spring and Summer is gay and festive with its sweeping movements. New is the "Chinese Bang" which is an interesting, crescent shaped complement for the crown formation. Rounded shadow waves at the back are enhanced by the clinging nape which curves to the right, continuing its line.

Harvi's in Plaza Celebrating 5th Anniversary; Plan Expansion

Ask Harvey Goldberg about Farmington, and he will say, "it's the greatest!" Ask most any Farmington woman about Harvi's and she will say, "it's the greatest!" ... and that is the story of a love affair that has been going on in Farmington for the past five years with no end in sight.

Harvey Goldberg, known to most as "Mr. Harvi," is the genial owner of one of Farmington's smartest women's shops, Harvi's Suburban Casuals in the Farmington Shopping Plaza.

"Harvi's" are now celebrating their 5th anniversary in Farmington and are taking this occasion to announce expansion plans for their store.

MR. GOLDBERG explained that plans are now under way to add the old Pickland store to Harvi's present location. This will allow enlargement of the existing departments and the addition of Teen and Petite departments. Plans call for the expansion and remodeling to be completed in time to show Back-To-School fashions.

Harvey, or Harvi if you will, is considered by many in the area to be "The Authority" on women's fashions. When asked for the secret of his success, he modestly admits to 30 years "in the business."

He said, "It has been our policy to offer the freshest fashions in the better names of the day."

A Desert Card Party will be held at the Northwest Branch YWCA, 25940 Grand River, on Monday afternoon, May 4, at 7 p.m. Mrs. James Nugent, Co-Chairman of the event has announced.

The afternoon card party is a benefit with proceeds going to the YWCA World Fellowship Fund which helps promote the work of the YWCA in 71 countries throughout the world. The public, as well as YWCA members, are invited to attend the afternoon event.

THE NORTHWEST YWCA which is sponsoring the party is made up of the following members: Mrs. James Nugent, Mrs. Harold Cregar, Mrs. George Montross, Mrs. Alvin Price, Miss Louella Arnold, Mrs. John Yates of Southfield, Mrs. Donald Blair, Mrs. Dwight Weber and Mrs. W. B. McPhail.
