Kendallarks Stage Concert

The Kendallarks' first open concert last Saturday was a huge success. The Farmington residents and friends filled the auditorium to its capacity for the concert, which was held on a certain date, greeting the Kendallarks with a most enthusiastic applause.

The chorus, under the direction of Mr. C. Asseman, opened their concert with a "Melodic Caravan" which included: "I Feel a Song Coming On," "I'm in the Mood for Love," "It's a Most Unusual Day," "Don't Blame Me" and "Cuban Love Song."

THEY CONTINUED to sing their way through many more delightful songs which included: "Prayerful Hour" by Chopin and closed with their traditional song, "Climb Every Mountain," which the audience enjoyed very much by the sound of their applause.

Singing in this year's concert were Marlowe Belanger, Helen Bower, Alberta Button, Eleanor Cannonham, Grace Coffman, Conny Hart, Wyn Harlan, Ann Hazen, Margaret Marlowe, Mary Martin, Grace Nye, Betty O'Connor, Shan Rupp, Marion Spencer, Dolly Williams and Fay Williams. Accompanists were Beverly Morski and Carol Jones.

INTERLUDE ACTS were a delight and helped to keep the audience's attention throughout. Soloists were Marlowe Belanger, Grace Coffman, Wyn Harlan, Beverly Morski (soprano), Betty O'Connor and Maureen O'Connor. Other acts included the Flappers, Straw Hat Four, Jazz on Toe and the Kendallarks.

After their concert, the Kendallarks extended an invitation to their audience to attend an "After Glow" which was served by the former members of the Kendallarks. The Kendallarks wish to thank all those who helped make this concert a success and are eagerly looking forward to presenting their talent again in future engagements.

89th Birthday Commemorated

Mr. and Mrs. C. Austin Habermehl of 22857 Frederick had a reception Sunday afternoon, April 28, honoring his mother, Mrs. Henrietta Habermehl of Oakland Avenue on her 89th birthday.

Helping to commemorate the milestone at the family gathering on Frederick Avenue were many friends of the senior Mrs. Habermehl from the Farmington and Livonia area.

THE HONORED LADY wore a dress of grey flowered decoron decorated with a white orchid corsage which was presented to her by her two grandsons, Bruce and Chuck Habermehl. Her lovely hair style was a gift of the Mona Lisa Beauty Salon in Farmington.

The dining arranged tea table was presided over by Christine Gillies of Plymouth. The guests were served by Janet Habermehl and Frances Habermehl, and a great-granddaughter, Cynthia Habermehl.

Many lovely gifts tendered to the birthday celebrant made the occasion a memorable experience indeed for the sweet little lady.

The number of deaths in Michigan topped the 70,000 mark for the second time in history last year, according to provisional figures released today by the Michigan Department of Health.

MR. AND MRS. EARL F. WILSON

Sue Carolyn Wixom Speaks Wedding Vows

Miss Sue Carolyn Wixom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell C. Wixom of 32335 Hull Road in Farmington, exchanged wedding vows Saturday, April 11, with Mr. Earl Farrell Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wilson of Malin, Oregon.

The candlelight ceremony took place in the First Methodist Church of Farmington with the pastor, Rev. Richard Markham, officiating. Decorating the altar for the double ring ceremony were two baskets of white flowers.

THE BRIDE, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of silk organza with lace around the neckline and a semi-full floor length skirt. A pearl crown secured her elbow length veil.

Miss Betty Wixom served as the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Ann Leach and Miss Kathy White of Farmington. Miss Wixom is from Arlington, Virginia.

Serving the bridegroom as his best man was Jim McKnight of Arlington, Va. Serving as usher were Howard White of Novi and Fred Leach of Farmington.

PAMELA LEACH of Farmington was the flower girl. Mike Leach of Farmington was the ring bearer.

The couple left for a honeymoon trip to Florida following the wedding ceremony. The newlyweds plan to make their home in Arlington, Va. The bride is a graduate of Farmington Senior High School and has been employed as a secretary.

PATRICIA MULLEN

Republican Women's Club Luncheon Set

Mrs. Jean Elchoff, Chairman of Arrangements for the Women's Republican Club Luncheon and Fashion Show, reports that her committee has completed plans to make this annual event an outstanding treat.

Alice Podesta and Helen Lang, co-chairmen of ticket sales, are enthusiastic over the response and urge all women to get tickets early while the supply lasts.

Models, under Dorothy Ogley, have been outfitted with the beautiful clothing to be presented by the Alice Rebecca Salon, located on Farmington at the downtown Farmington Center. In addition to costumes and casual clothes, Mrs. Clara Jordan, proprietor of the salon, has selected George Dixon and her own line of hats appropriate for each costume.

Floral decorations are under the direction of Hazel Leland who is preparing a large and varied collection of beautiful offerings. Hospitality will be handled by a host and Frances Kezars.

The luncheon is to be held at Plum Hollow Golf Club on Wednesday, May 12 at 12 noon. Tickets may be secured from any member of the Club or from the above Chairmen. It is urged that tickets be obtained as soon as possible for this all ways popular event.

Mrs. A. Mazur To Represent U-F at Meeting

Mrs. Arthur Mazur of Farmington will represent the United Fund at the annual budget conference of the Michigan United Fund.

MRS. MAZUR will serve as a member of the Admissions and Budget Committee, comprised of more than 250 volunteers throughout Michigan, who have attended the annual budget conference May 5 and May 6 at Kellogg Center in East Lansing.

The volunteers hear the programs and financial needs of the 38 state and national health and welfare agencies included in the Michigan United Fund.

Mrs. J. Arthur Mullen of Grosse Pointe will serve as chairman of the budgeting session, which annually determines the financial needs of the state and national agencies to be included in the United Fund.

Charles McElellan of 2804 Thorne Brae Court, will play the role of a salesman. Tickets for "Pajama Game" are available by calling March of Dimes headquarters at 2703 3. Telegraph Road, Pontiac, or Osmond's Tel-Huron, Pontiac and Warren stores.

The March of Dimes program of care for young patients suffering from arthritis, birth defects and polio will benefit from the show.
