

C'ville Gets OK on Bond Sale For School Building Program

On May 12 the Municipal Commission approved earlier than the high school building program. The application of the school district for the sale of $750,000 in school district bonds.

This approval was acted upon by the Board of Education at its May 14 meeting at which time the attorney and administrators agreed to the establishing of the earliest possible date for advertising for bids for the sale of the bonds. The bids are to be opened June 4.

Present also at the meeting was the architect, Mr. Dolner, with whom the Board discussed a date for the taking of bids on the addition to the Edgewood Elementary School.

Constance L. Braseth Now Mrs. Thomas Bolik

MISS CONSTANCE LOREITA BRASETH, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Braseth of 22171 Wadsworth in Farmington, exchanged wedding vows with Mr. Thomas August Bolik, son of Mr. and Mrs. August Bolik of 2983 W. Outer Drive in Detroit, on Saturday evening, April 4, at the St. Olaf Evangelical Lutheran Church of Detroit.

The Rev. Walter S. Scarvie officiated at the double ring, candle-light ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gown in silk organza over tulle. Her lovely gown, with rounded neckline and long sleeves, featured a beaded bodice with the beading extending into a design on the front of the skirt and a chapel train. She wore a fingertip veil secured by a pearl and crystal crown and carried a cascade bouquet of orchids, baby mums and stephanotis.

MRS. BARBARA BRASETH, sister of the bride, was maid of honor; and the bridesmaid was Miss Joan Osborne of 4810 Middlesex, Dearborn. The two attendants were gown in floor length pink tulle sheaths and carried bouquets of roses and carnations in varied shades of pink. Kimberly Stalo of Detroit, served as flower girl, and Miss Grace Shipman sang "The Cause" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Attending the bridegroom as best man was Clarence H. Watson, 15612 Gaylord, Redford; and ushers were Roger Matlack and William Tomlinson, both of Detroit.

For her daughter's wedding, the bride's mother wore a beige lace gown and the bridegroom's mother wore a gown of pink silk linen. Both chose accessories matching their gowns.

FOLLOWING the ceremony, a reception was held and a buffet supper served at the Pliemorets Club in Detroit.

The bride, a 1960 graduate of Chippewaukee High School and a graduate of Detroit Business Institute, is presently employed at The Detroit Edison Company as a secretary.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Redford High School, attended Detroit Engineering Institute, and is a draftsman-designer.

After having honeymooned in the Pocono Mountains in Pennsylvania, the couple is now at home in Detroit.

Miss Mildred D. Velton Speaks Wedding Vows

Miss Mildred Dorothy Velton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Velton of 32342 Talcott Park, Farmington, exchanged wedding vows on Saturday, May 2, at 10 a.m. with Mr. Philip Lawrence Frederick, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Frederick of Redford. Mr. George F. Duffy of Our Lady of Sorrows Catholic Church of Farmington officiated at the double ring ceremony. Decorating the altar were two beautiful white floral arrangements.

THE BRIDE, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of silk organza, embroidered with white lace. She carried a cascade of white carnations with a heart of red roses.

She was carried to the altar by her father, who was a groom's best man. The bridegroom's best man was Mr. Victor Palmer of Northville. The bride's maid of honor was Mrs. Victor Palmer of Northville. The bride's bridesmaid was Mrs. Victor Palmer of Northville.

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. L. Frederick of Redford.

Orchard Meth. Women to Have Special Guests

The final meeting of the Women's Society of the Orchard Methodist Church will be held Saturday, May 23, at 7 p.m. when a potluck dinner will be served with husbands being invited to attend.

Guests for this evening will be Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Sebastian of Riverside, Illinois. Mrs. Sebastian is the sister of Mrs. Victor Palmer of Northville. Mr. Sebastian is the owner of radio station WTAA of LaGrange, Illinois.

They will show slides and talk on their recent trip by plane as members of the Christian Pilots International. The purpose of their trip was to visit mission fields in South America. Their itinerary included San Jose, Costa Rica; Panama City; Cali, Colombia; Quito, Ecuador; Shell-Mera, and Bogota, Colombia.

The Sebastians will talk especially on Ecuador and the savage Aucas tribe. It was about eight years ago that five young men gave their lives trying to become friends of the Aucas.

The Sebastians met and visited with the sister of one of the men killed, Rachel Saint, and the widow of another, Betty Elliott. They now live with the Aucas and have recorded and translated their language with the help of Dayuma, one of the first women to ever leave the tribe.

Dayuma and Rachel Saint were once subjects of the "This is Your Life" program.

The Sebastians will report on the amazing progress that has been made with this savage tribe in the past six years.

Members of the church are invited to bring guests. For reservations call Gloria Newlin, 628-7236, or Lorraine Hill, 476-4577.
