Democrats Set Reception for Lt. Gov. May 25
Farmington Democrats are planning a reception for Lt. Gov. T. John Lesinski when he addresses the club's first annual banquet, 6:45 p.m., Monday, May 25 at Aldenmeier Dining Room, 2501 Northwestern Highway, between 12 and 13 mile roads.
Tickets for the dinner are still available. Persons interested in attending are asked to contact Harold Shipice at GR. 4-2323. Proceeds from the dinner will be used to finance this Fall's election campaign.
FARMINGTON Democrats were well represented at last week's Oakland County Democratic convention. Local Democrats had nine delegates at the meeting.
The delegates were Margaret McViney, Edna Osceley, Charles Wiesinger, Aldo Vagnozzi, Ted McViney, Gerald Freedman, Harold Shipice, Doris Beck, and Martin Gluckstein.
Ted McViney served as chairman of the convention's resolutions committee. Mrs. Beck also served as a member of that committee. Resolutions adopted by the convention supported President Johnson's war on poverty, his economic growth program and the civil rights bill.
Other resolutions backed federal aid to education and medical care for the aged through social security. Congressman-at-large Neil Staebler was the convention's featured speaker.

Get Glimpse of Life at Wayne
Two Farmington high school students were guests of Wayne State University last Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May 14-16, as part of a new campus tour program.
During their three days at Wayne State, James Jajich and Marsha H. Young entered the daily routine of a university student-attending classes, club meetings and on Friday evening, attended the WSU theater performance of Shaw's "Caesar and Cleopatra." They were assigned rooms in the newly completed Helen Newberry Joy Residence Hall and shared beds with their "campus companions."
Jajich is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Milo Jajich, 30135 Old Bedford, and Marsha Young lives at 30111 Old Bedford. They were among the 12 young men and women from cities outside of Detroit selected for this new program which is aimed at giving high school students of demonstrated college-level abilities an introduction to university life.
Going into the 1964 season Old Kalmes of the Detroit Tigers was tied with Mickey Vazdek of the New York Yankees in lifetime batting at .309.
