Presbyterian Church Names Asst. Minister
Mr. Robert N. Sawyer, Jr. will begin work at the First Presbyterian Church of Farmington as Assistant Minister this week.
Mr. Sawyer was graduated from McCormick Theological Seminary in Chicago May 8 of this year. He is a graduate of Ann Arbor High School, attended the University of Michigan and is a graduate of Alma College, Alma, Michigan.
MR. SAWYER will be ordained to the Gospel Ministry in his home Church, the First Presbyterian Church of Monroe, on Wednesday evening June 17. He will be installed as Assistant Minister of the First Presbyterian Church of Farmington on Sunday morning, June 21, at 9:30 a.m.
Mr. Sawyer has served as Student Assistant at the First Presbyterian Church of Monroe and also Student Assistant at the Emerald Avenue Presbyterian Church of Chicago. He has also done work in the field of newspaper advertising.

THESE SIX YOUNG PEOPLE from St. John Lutheran Church received the assurance and blessings of the rite of confirmation on Pentecost Sunday, May 17. Pictured are (back row, L. to R.): Anita Kahl, Judy Maki, Jim Dobes and Lynn Richardson; (front row, L. to R.): Ken Gorelick, Richard Fox and Pat Lampole. In the Lutheran Church, confirmation represents a rite which marks the climax of a two year period of formal instruction and intensive study for young people of the congregation. Adults are also received into church membership by confirmation. May 10 was class day for the confirmands and at the 11 a.m. service each one presented to the congregation a written paper concerning some aspect of Christian faith. On this day the Luther League also welcomed the group as new members. On May 24, the confirmands were guests of the Church Council members and their wives at an informal reception at the church. Also present were 23 other new members received into St. John Church during the past five months. Refreshments were served and movies were shown of the development and growth of St. John Church.

Install New Officers for '64-65 For Orchard Methodist WSCS

Installation Service was held for the newly elected officers of the Women's Society of Orchard Methodist Church at the 11 a.m. service on Sunday May 31.
Officers for the 1964-1965 year are President Mrs. John Mann; Vice-President Mrs. Victor Palmer; Secretary Mrs. Lester B. Smith and Treasurer Mrs. Wayne Parkinson.
Secretaries of different divisions are Mrs. R. J. Truesdell, Christian Social Relations; Mrs. Wayne Turton, Missionary Education; Mrs. Robert Luse, Spiritual Life; Mrs. Letha Cummings, Supply; Mrs. James Hill, Promotion; Mrs. Richard Smith, Youth; Mrs. Myron Schiller, Children's Work; Mrs. William Fagan, Program Materials; Mrs. Les Hogg, Student Work.
Chairman of Local Church Activities is Mrs. Frank Stevenson and Chairman of the Nominations Committee is Mrs. George Allyn. Mrs. Harry Davidson is Chairman of the Danish Circle and Mrs. Kenneth Kerr is Chairman of the Mary Martha Circle.
Officers will be attending Woman's Society Training Day at Dearborn First Church on Friday June 5.
THE YEAR 1963-1964 was an active and successful one under the presidency of Mrs. James Jones. Husband was guests at the September general meeting to hear Rev. D. Schroeder speak on "Strengthening Christian Partnership." A talk on the United Nations was heard at the October meeting and in November, Mrs. Lewis Redmond of Cass Church spoke on "The Inner City."
In December Mrs. Victoria Johnson interpreted the picture "The Last Supper" and slides were shown in January of work being done in the Congo. In February, a missionary education study program was held in conjunction with the women of Matthew's Church in Livonia.
A Sub-deacon from the Greek Orthodox Church spoke in April and the Dedication and Pledge Service was held in May and on May 23 husbands were again invited and speakers for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sebastian of Riverside and their recent mission-ary tour of Ecuador.
Services and activities of the Orchard Women's Society included helping send children to camps; serving at wedding receptions; saving cancer pads; sewing of robes for Vacation Bible School; sponsorship of Girl Scout Troop; making and sending school kits for missions; gift of money toward the purchase of a washing machine at a Congo mission hospital; packing of Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets at Cass Church and a weekend retreat attended by women of the church.

1st Methodist Church WSCS Luncheon Set

The First Methodist Church Women's Society of Christian Service will conclude their year's regularly scheduled meetings with a Potluck Luncheon on Tuesday, June 9, at 12 noon.
This is a combined General Meeting and Circle Meeting and the early date is chosen because children are still in school.
The June Luncheon is traditionally a Potluck Lunch so that no one need work in the kitchen. Therefore, everyone attending is asked to bring her own dishes as well as a dish to share.
The June meeting is also a time to honor the Senior Citizens of this organization. The program will feature a reading by Mrs. David McGinnis and Mrs. Warren Macken-son will lead the devotional. The nursery will be open as usual for pre-schoolers.
The so-called quiet summer months ahead will not be without activity for this organization, as the women are preparing for a Church Bazaar to be held in the fall.
Mrs. Thomas McCutcheon, Woman's Society President, recently announced that Mrs. James V. Jones and Mrs. Corwin Overton will serve as Co-Chairmen for the Bazaar and they are already organizing small groups of workers and laying plans for this big project.
Anyone wishing to have a share in the making of articles to be sold, or in the decorating of books may contact either of the co-chairmen.

Churches Join Inter-Racial Youth Project

Local church-sponsored youth groups joined with others from the Metropolitan Detroit area Friday, May 22, through May 24 to stage a community improvement project to show that inter-racial groups could work in close cooperation with one another.
FARMINGTON PEOPLE who joined the clean-up efforts, a three-day project to rid the City of Pontiac of an unsightly corner lot, were Susan Young, Nina Sutton, Janet Ward, Phyllis Clements, Alice Johnston, Linda Perry, Nancy Grimsia, Carl Jasper, Lee Perry, Richard Thayer, Sue Irwin, Pam Burley, Barbara Schweitzer and Mike Jasper, all of the Trinity Episcopal Church of Farmington.
These youngsters, seventh through eleventh graders from local schools, were under the guidance and leadership of Trinity Church minister Joseph Pelham and lay leaders, Mrs. and Mr. John Summerlee, Mrs. Thelma Bliss, Mrs. Patricia Romig and Mrs. Marcia Martin.
Youth workers from the Farmington Unitarian - Universalist Church, Mrs. Ingham and Lolly Brown, were contacted by Rev. and Mrs. Robert Eddy.
The Pontiac Urban League, New Bethel Baptist Church and the Newman AME Church, all of Pontiac, sponsored the youth program.

Universalists Slate Speaker

"Literary Echoes of War and Peace," a lecture by Rosina B. Raymond of Livonia, is scheduled for the 10 a.m. service Sunday, June 7, at the Unitarian-Universalist Church of Farmington.
Mrs. Raymond, a member of the church, currently is working on her master's degree in the speech department at Wayne State University.
She said the program would include some of her own writing and a selection by Elizabeth Weideman, a member of the Dearborn Unitarian Church. Also featured will be selections from the writings of Mark Twain, Pearl S. Buck, Wilfred Owen, Thomas Hardy and Robert Lowell.
Mrs. Raymond received her B.A. degree from Wayne State in 1961 after 17 years of studies interspersed with home life and the raising of four children.
