The Mohaw Tribe of the Indian Guides went to Camp Nissakone in Oscoda, Michigan last week. Enjoying the trip were Steve Brunetti and his father, Jeff Murray and his dad, Dave Washburn and his dad, John Dorset with his father. Ray and Bev Sherpits and sons of Meadowlark are eagerly awaiting the arrival of an exchange student who will live with them for the coming year. Michael Hartmann, age 16, from Duluth-Melroser, Minn., will be attending Farmington Senior High next fall.

KATHY WILLARD, daughter of Ray and Betty Willard of Robinsonville, was one of 42 chosen to be a counselor at the Judson Collins Camp at the Irish Hills. Kathy will spend the whole month of August at camp.

Gary Smith and his cousin, Carl Boyd, with Carl's sister and husband, enjoyed a camping trip last weekend.

Ellen Justice and Noralee Stock gave a farewell party for Cindy Lamb who is moving to California. Also enjoying the music and good food at the pajama party were Carol Reed and Marsha Petersen.

Stan and Roz Karvoski and youngsters of Laroski were hosts to Father Ken La Van, who was visiting for a few days to rest and play that wonderful game of golf with his friends.

LYNN STOCK completed her first year's studies at Eastern College at Ypsilanti, came home for a few days visit with her family and then traveled on to Mackinac Island, where she has taken a job for the summer.

Janet and Bill Strong of Robinsonville were hosts to a group of friends last Saturday night, which included old friends from Texas.

Cake and Candle Time—One great big candle decorated the cake of year old Peter Hassett. Cindy Blatz had six shining candles on her birthday cake.

Susan Naylor will celebrate her fifth birthday. Barbara Walker turned twelve, and Kathy Willard celebrated her sixteenth birthday with a winter toast to which her church group were the happy birthday singing guests. Chris Washburn had a belated 11th birthday outing with friends at Kensington Park.

Elmer and Barbara Blatz, with youngsters Terry, Cindy and Kathy, have just returned from a two-week visit with their families in St. Louis, Missouri.

Michigan's No. 1 crop in value is corn with production at 1.1 billion bushels in some years. Second to this comes hay and pasture, and from these crops stem livestock and livestock products that make up 54 percent of Michigan's agricultural income.

Truck drivers are trained to drive safely, courteously, and to offer a helping hand when needed. Most fleet drivers know first aid as they know the routes they travel... know how to use the safety device and first aid equipment in most trucks.

The Michigan Trucking Association maintains a full-time Safety Director with the responsibility of promoting safety courses, which the drivers take on their own time. So, when you need help on the highway... flip a truck driver. He's trained... and glad to assist you.

Scout Troop 110 Has Busy May

Troop 110 had quite an active month in May. They attended the Ottawa District Camporee held May 1, 2 and 3 at the Group Camp site near Milford.

It was necessary for the Troop to hike the last half mile into camp, with all equipment. They set up their tents and had the flag raising Friday night. Saturday morning a camp Patrol cooked its own breakfast with the supplies allotted. Then competitive events were held.

which Troop 110 had one Patrol Leader who excelled. James E. Buegel won six out of seven events in which he participated. Saturday night a Camporee was held around the camp fire. Sunday morning, a field Mass was held after which camp was broken.

The Pontiac Trail Work Beat was held May 16 and 17. It was a clean-up project for the Trail, and all Troops in the Ottawa District. The Trail is twenty-five miles long. Only a portion of the job was completed.

Twelve of eleven Troops of the Ottawa District met May 22, 23 and 24 at Camp Agawam, for an outdoor training weekend. Thomas Mahoney and the Scoutmaster of Troop 110 attended.

The Troop marched in the Memorial Day parade.

For June the plans call for a Camporee on the Huron River and a Pilgrimage of Catholic Scouts to the University of Notre Dame. The Pilgrimage will be June 27, 28 and 29.

GAS YARD LIGHT Special Offer

SAVE $20.00

ON INSTALLATION FOR LIMITED TIME

An added "golden glow" is given to family fun when you provide the enjoyment of a pool, garden or patio with a gas yard light. Outdoor gaslighting has so many advantages. It makes it possible to entertain outdoors after dark. Gives just the right light for petting and dining. With a soft, yellow glow, gaslighting serves as a safety feature too. It illuminates steps and walking aisles while it dresses up a flower garden, accentuates a well-shaped tree, a path or a rock garden. The gas yard light is gaining widespread popularity among homeowners because it lends a pleasant note of grace and charm to even the most informal occasions.

SEVERAL TYPES TO CHOOSE FROM. Styles range from Old Colonial to ultra-modern. Choose the style that is best suited to the style of your home.
