Angle and Norman Say have a son, James William born last Wednesday, June 10, at Pontiac Osteopathic Hospital. Angie brought him home Saturday about noon. Norman will start his summer squares next Monday, June 22, on the Northland Terrace. Norm will have a different guest caller each week.
Tuesday Alice Clark was operated on at New Grace Hospital.
Betty Brown's aunt and husband, Mr. and Mrs. John Deamer, of Hithin, Hertfordshire, England, have returned here after their visit to California arriving on June 3. Charlie and Betty have taken them to see Michigan — to Harbor Springs, Macinac Island, etc. They are now enjoying day trips in the Detroit area.
BILL AND SALLY BROWN have had a rather unusual weekend guest — one who declined to enjoy the comforts of their guest room, but who gladly pitched his tent in their back yard. Bill's uncle, Henry Krieg, of Newark, N.J., left there on a nine-week camping trip across the country. On the return trip he was happy to see his nephew and family, but insisting on pitching his tent. Sally, with Billy, flew to Ramsey, N.J. Tuesday for the graduation today of her brother, Ed. He is valedictorian of his class, and has received his appointment to West Point.
Ellen Ambrose had cocktails and dinner Sunday to celebrate the birthday of one of her children. Alice's was the 7th. Dick's will be the 28th. Ellen, with all four children and husband and wife enjoyed a delightful evening.
The Tyghens had weekend guests. Mary's cousin, Frank MacLean of New Waterford, Nova Scotia, brought his wife with him on a business trip to Boston, Mass. and Montreal, Canada. On the way back to Nova Scotia they stopped off in Detroit. Mary's uncle, B. G. MacLean, of Hamilton, Ontario, arrived Tuesday for a visit here.
Carol Budak graduated last Thursday from North Farmington High School with top honors. Saturday Connie had an open house for her which some 50 relatives and friends attended. Carol has not yet decided on the college she will enter.
DAVIS BUSCH got home last Thursday from Northern Michigan U. in Marquette, and Monday he started his summer work as counselor at Boys Republic.
Kent's son, Fred Potvin, graduated from the U. of Detroit last Thursday. Last Sunday afternoon many cars were parked on Village Lane near the Kent home for Fred's sister and an aunt were having a shower for his bride-to-be, Mary Lynne Beras, a Southfield girl. At least 45 came to bring her lovely gifts. Fred and Mary will be married in August. Following their honeymoon they will live in Cleveland, Ohio, where Fred will work for NASA. He also plans to attend night classes at Case U. and work for his master's degree in aeronautical engineering.
