SHAPE UP TO SUMMER
The woman who disciplines herself in the interests of a beauty regime is disciplining herself in the art of life. For beauty is the true way of a woman's life.

If a designer should offer them a style which didn't appeal to them they would refuse it. The current hair style — "The Ruffie" — is the romantic return to curls. Short, close sides, a fitting nap and smooth forehead further enhance the flower-like effect. Wear this coiffure or evening; it's simple enough for tailored clothes; appropriately dressed for more elaborate fashions.

MEMO: Taking care of grooming and appearance is a very important part of remaining mentally alert-alive.

Reynolds-Lee Wedding Vows Spoken in Texas

Miss Carolyn Ann Reynolds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Reynolds of 1454 Casa Verde, Corpus Christi, Texas, exchanged wedding vows with Kenneth R. Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy H. Lee of 28117 Barbados Drive in Farmington, on Friday evening, June 12, at the home of Mrs. Lee.

Officiating at the double ring ceremony, which took place at the Ayres Street Church of Christ in Corpus Christi, was Brother Robert Marshall of the Church of Christ in Houston, Texas.

The maid of honor was Miss Marilyn Reynolds, the bride's sister, of Corpus Christi. Bridesmaids were Miss Nellie Crishaw, a cousin of the bride, from Dallas, Tex. and Miss Sherry Smith of Corpus Christi.

SERVING AS THE BEST MAN was Mr. Guy H. Lee, Jr. of St. Clair Shores, Michigan, the bridegroom's brother. Groomsman were Mr. Larry Underwood of Memphis, Tennessee, and Mr. Joe Bailey of Abilene, Texas. Ushers were Mr. Jerry Brooks of Corpus Christi, Mr. Bill Curry of Corpus Christi, Mr. O. L. Crishaw of San Antonio, Texas and Mr. Sam Daniel of Memphis, Tenn.

Mr. Walter Firlie of Corpus Christi was the vocalist. He sang "Because" and "Through the Years."

A reception was held in the church fellowship hall following the wedding ceremony. Serving as hostess was Miss Elizabeth Davis, Mrs. David Kuper, both of Corpus Christi, Mrs. Sam Daniel of Memphis, Tenn. and Mrs. Joe Bailey of Abilene, Texas. Presiding at the guest register was Miss Sharon Deependehmidt of Corpus Christi.

The bride attended Abilene Christian College. The bridegroom is a graduate of Farmington High School and attends Abilene Christian College. The couple plan to make their home at 12245 Washington Blvd. in Abilene, Texas, after returning from their honeymoon trip to Bandera, Texas. The bride wore a blue two-piece suit with white accessories for traveling.

THE BRIDE CHOSE a formal length gown of white. Chantilly lace formed the fitted bodice styled with a seagull neckline beaded with pearls and iridescent sequins and long tapered sleeves. The bodice and skirt were made of chapel sweep of silk bombazine. Seagulls of lace accented with iridescent sequins edged each tier.

A dainty open crown of iridescent crystals encrusted with rhinestones held her elbow length bouffant veil of English silk illusion.

Her attendants wore formal length gowns of pink orchid peau de soie styled with scooped necklines, long sleeves, and controlled bell shaped skirts. Matching fabric handmaiden roses with petal points held their short pail veils.

The bride carried a colonial type bouquet of frenched white carnations and stephanotis with modified cascade effect of the carnations and stephanotis tied with white satin streamers. The bouquet was centered with a large white cattleya orchid with tracings of purple in the throat.

The bride's going-away corsage was a white cattleya orchid. The attendants carried elegant styled bouquets of gladioli in colors shaded from lavender to purple and into the tones of deep fuchsia.

Each of the mothers wore sashes of white cattleya orchids. The hostesses, grandmothers and other family members wore corsages of white carnations.

At the reception, the bride's table was centered with a tall ornate silver candelabra holding candles at various heights in shades of lavender-purple to deep fuchsia. The candelabra was entwined with garlands of miniature English ivy. Low floral bouquets in the color tones of the candles were placed at the base of the candelabra.

At the church, the background of the sanctuary was outlined in wrought-iron scrollwork all burning tall white

Vivians Club Installation Held June 10

In a beautiful candle-lighting ceremony, the newly elected officers of the Farmington Vivians Club were solemnly installed in office June 10 at the Farmington Elks Temple.

The Installation Ceremony was conducted by five Past Presidents of the Club. They were: Anne Johnson, Ruth Campbell, Betty Houghton, Shirley Abbott and Nedra Naylor. Music was played by Dorothy Oglesby.

IMMEDIATE Past-President Emma Lewis then handed the gavel over to the new President, Marie Curcio. After Mrs. Curcio gave her opening speech, she presented Mrs. Lewis with her Past-President's pin and a gift certificate from the club in appreciation of her year's service.

All the new officers formed a receiving line to accept congratulations from the membership and their guests. In addition to Mrs. Curcio, there were Alpha Brodie, Vice President; Beverly Horst, Recording Secretary; Betty Ockerman, Corresponding Secretary; Barbara Stevens, Treasurer; Irene Angel, Sergeant-at-Arms; Gertrude Chambers, Chaplain; Rose Harris, Dorothy Mathews and Emma Lewis, Executive Committee.

Guests were present from nearby Plymouth, Dearborn and Livonia Elks Lodges. Among the many local Elks present were Exalted Ruler James Ockerman and P.E.R. James Harris.

The new year for the Vivians will commence, after the summer's rest, when they meet at 8 p.m. Wednesday, September 5, at the Farmington Elks Temple.
