Tom and Gretchen Ford entertained an old friend last weekend from Knoxville, Tenn. Mrs. David Watson. Tom returned Sunday 1:00 a.m. two-week stay at Willowgrove, Penn. with the Naval Reserve. Tom holds the rank of Lieutenant, and is a very "active" reservist.

The Walker household bulged at the seams last week when Irene's brother, Karl Stangeland, wife, Pat, and five young sons, and mother, Karoline Stangeland, drove in from New Jersey. Their two-day stay included a trip to Greenville, S.C., and a day at Lake. Grandma Stangeland and one niece, Jeanne, will remain for a month's visit. The day the others returned to N.J. the Walker-Stangeland group celebrated a joint birthday party, honoring Karl Walker, Nancy, Kathy and Jeanne Stangeland, 12, 11, 10 and 9, respectively.

This week the Bob Lawshe family are entertaining Bob's father and his wife, who are residents of Florida.

NORB AND HELEN JAN-KOWSKI spent a long weekend at Niagara Falls. Marge and Glenn Stock enjoyed a weekend with the R.I.V. Club at the Sahara Motel in Sarnia. They celebrated their anniversary while there. Anniversary greetings to Joanne and John McGee, who were and dined with friends at the "Silent Woman" in Detroit.

Norm and Sue Heverly and their three youngsters returned recently from a "back home" in New York State. They are now busily engaged in preparations for their transfer to South Africa.

Birthday Girl of the week was Debbie Dorsch, daughter of Don and Betty Dorsch of Laurelwood. Helping to celebrate Debbie's birthday, six girls carried paper bags to the party. They were Gayle Jacobs, Julie Poirer, Dianne Lawshe, Karen Bogoske, and Barb Walker. The girls enjoyed their own breakfast of waffles with Fritos.

Subdivision youngsters on the "not so well" list include young Dick Ford who was in St. Mary Hospital in Livonia for surgery last week. Debbie Burns was taken to emergency when she ran a nail through her foot. Kim Steele was treated for blood poisoning in her leg.

The nation's first closed-circuit television traffic control system was installed on a 3.2 mile section of Detroit's John C. Lodge freeway in 1961. Fourteen TV cameras and electronic control signals allow traffic engineers to monitor and regulate traffic on this heavily-traveled freeway from a central location.

Accident-prone seems to be the word for Farmington Oaks these last few weeks. A bicycle collision between the Stormont brothers, Tom and Robbie, resulted in a foot injury for Tom requiring seven stitches. Robbie escaped without injury. Harvey Masow also fell victim to a foot injury last Friday when he accidentally kicked the sharp edge of a metal lampshade.

Little Charlie Cline received painful burns on his right hand when he touched the side of a fire basket in which the fire was still burning. Richard Cline stepped on a nail and had to be given an anti-tetanus shot.

Connie and Pat Valton, daughters of Bill and Ann, left Monday for a two-week motor trip to Florida. John and Diana Molloy and their children, Jack, Mike, and Susan, have returned from their trip to New York City and the World's Fair. They saw everything they could at the Fair and then toured New York City and returned by way of the Pennsylvania Dutch country.

SUNYA PERSIA and a friend, Betty Ringle, gave a baby shower for another friend, Joyce Wagner of Dearborn.

There are two reasons for the big smiles on the faces of Harvey and Kay Masow these days. The first is the successful conclusion to son Jimmie's eye operation, and the second is the visit of Kay's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miller from Orlando, Florida.

Les and Ruth Burns' daughter, Lynette, was married last Saturday to Gary Pabian. The reception was held at the Burns' home.

The Farmington Oaks cook-out will be held this evening, June 25, on the corner of Birchwood and Maplelun. Starting time is 8 p.m.

Birthdays observed during the week were June Seiber's on the 21st, Nancy Jagenberg's on the 23rd, David Abden on the 23rd, and Jimmie Abden on the 25th. Jack and Colleen Bailey celebrated a wedding anniversary on the 21st, Ned and Pat Dusenbury on the 21st, and Harvey and Kay Masow on the 21st.

SOUTH AMERICA BOUND Jill McElroy, 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald McElroy of 23100 Floral Avenue, is pictured above with her mother going over the list of things to be packed for her summer abroad as a foreign exchange student. Jill will be a senior at Farmington High School next fall, will spend the summer months with a family in Rio de Janeiro. She will leave for New York July 1.

South American Pampas Awaits Local AFS Exchange Student

Jill McElroy, 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald McElroy of 23100 Floral Avenue in Farmington, will leave July 1 by airplane from Detroit's Metropolitan Airport on the first leg of a flight which will end in Rio de Janeiro where the Farmington High School senior will spend the summer months as a foreign exchange student.

Jill will be flown by American Airlines, first to New York, and then non-stop to Rio. She is one of 854 high school students from the United States for whom homes have been found abroad this year by the American Field Service.

THE FOREIGN exchange student scholarship on which Jill will make her South American visit is financed jointly by the Farmington Junior Chamber of Commerce, the Farmington Kiwanis Club and the regular monthly meeting of the West Farmington Farm Bureau was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Post of 4500 S. Milford Road, Milford, on Tuesday, June 16. Twenty-one families were represented.

CAP Seeking Area Recruits

The Civil Air Patrol has announced that a new cadet training program for young people between the ages of thirteen and twenty-one and a senior program for men and women twenty-one and over will begin on July 1. The Squadron for this area meets at Birney Jr. High School, corner of 11 Mile and Evergreen roads in Southfield, every Wednesday from 7 to 10 p.m.

The CAP, an auxiliary of the United States Air Force, is a voluntary civilian organization trained for emergency service, search and rescue work, and education. Members of the CAP have the opportunity to earn college scholarships, free trips to foreign countries, a week's stay on an Air Force base, and many other privileges. A cadet entering the Air Force with CAP's Billy Mitchell award is immediately promoted to Airman 3rd class.

The Farmington Squadron was disbanded early this year after the commander, Major Thomas Dickinson, was assigned to Wing Headquarters, Farmington. Dickinson, 1st Sgt. Clifford Burk, Staff Sgt. Gary Meade, C-1c Peter MacDonald, C-1c Christine McKelvey then transferred to the Southfield Squadron. Further information on CAP activities may be obtained by calling GR. 6-2247 after 6 p.m.

Completes 6-Month Cruise in Far East

Thomas W. Hart, Jr., airman apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Hart of 32372 Bantree, Farmington, recently returned to his home in Calif. aboard the 62,000-ton Navy attack aircraft carrier USS Midway after completing a six-month cruise with the U.S. Seventh Fleet.

Midway has been on guard against armed Communist aggression in that area since November of last year.

While on this cruise, the ship visited Hawaii, Hong Kong, Subic Bay in the Philippines and the Japanese cities of Sasebo, Beppu, Iwakuni and Yokosuka.

The ship will remain in Alameda for about a month before resuming operations with the Pacific Fleet off the California coast.
