Red Sox Stage Six-Run Rally In Pony League
The Red Sox edged the Senators 7 to 4 primarily on a 6-run rally in the fourth inning. The Senators scored 1 in the first on a walk, an error and an infield out; and 3 in the third when Joe Kim walked, Larry McDonald singled, Larry Wichman reached first on a pitched ball, forcing in a run and Greg Zuchowski singled driving two more home runs. THE RED SOX scored once in the 9th on a triple by Dan Wolfman who then stole home.
The Sox scored 6 in the fourth when Kelly Watkins reached first on an error, Dan Wolfman hit a two-run homer, Jim Penney tripled, Mike McAskin walked, and Ken Victor, Greg Stratton, and Bill Bliss singled.
Kelly Watkins was the winning pitcher, but had help from Greg Stratton who pitched the 5th, 6th and 7th innings.
The Red Sox continued their winning ways, downing the Indians 8 to 4 behind the 4th pitching of Dan Wolfman. He had the game in control except once when he got wild and walked Herb Price, Tom Ransom and Mike Smith. All three were driven home on a double by Dennis Perry.
The Red Sox scored one in the first on a walk and a single by Dan Wolfman; 1 in the fourth on a walk and a single by Jim Burroughs; 3 in the fifth on a walk, a double by Wolfman and a single by Bill Bliss; and a final run in the seventh when Wolfman reached first on an error, advanced to second on a walk, and scored on a wild throw. Herb Price took the loss.

JC Diamondmen Win '64 Opener
Led by a well balanced hitting attack and clutch pitching by Don Kobman, the Farmington Jaycees softball team won their opening game in league play with Hazel Park, 15-12.
Though early inning jitters allowed a few unearned runs to the opposition, our local stars were combining power hitting with brilliant and daring base running to emerge victorious.
Jaycee manager Al Sittler urges all Farmington area residents to stop by the city park on Wednesday evenings to see this year's colorful and exciting team in action. Watch the community calendar for scheduled games.
One of the nation's first cloverleaf traffic interchanges was built in 1961 at Eight Mile and Telegraph Roads in Detroit.

The Orioles Remain Unbeaten To Lead Colt League Baseball
The high flying Orioles swept three games last week to lead the North Farmington-Colt League, with a perfect, undefeated, 6 and 0 record.
A week ago Wednesday, the S.F. Orioles downed the Colts by the score of 12 to 5. Oriole Tom Donoghue pitched a brilliant 3-hit, striking out 6, and walking 1.
Bob Morgan and Jerry Turner pitched for the White Sox with starter Bob Morgan taking the loss.
In the top of the fourth, the White Sox took a one-run lead as Barry Aneda was safe on an error and scored on a fluke bounce single by Bob Morgan.
THE ORIOLES quickly bounced back to tie the score in the bottom of the fourth as Tom Donoghue led off with a single and scampered around to score on the hit-and-run triple by Jean Butters.
In the bottom of the fifth, the Orioles added to their lead as 7 runs scored. Bill Pell walked to lead the inning off. John Foster was safe on an error by the first baseman, Ron Lee doubled to right center, scoring Pell, and Greg Stratton singled, scoring Foster. Tom Donoghue walked, and Jean Butters and Mike Searley singled, and both scored on a sacrifice fly by Wayne Johnston.
Bill Pell, who started the inning off with a walk, walked again and was followed by walks to John Foster and Greg Stratton. Lee collected his second single of the inning, scoring Pell, but on the single a mix-up on the base paths ended the continuing third out.
In the top of the sixth, the White Sox rallied to score 3 runs as Chip Terry led off with a single, Don Wright and Barry Aneda walked to lead the bases. Tim Patrick then lined a single past the third baseman's ear to score Chip Terry and Don Wright. An error caused the remaining 2 base runners to score to make the score 9 to 5.
In the bottom of the sixth, the Orioles scored three home runs darkness set in, as Tom Donoghue walked, Jean Butters singled and Mike Searley homered out his second 4 batter of the season.
TOM DONOGHUE, in winning this game, chalked up his third straight victory.
In the make up game last Friday the Orioles swept to their fifth victory, as they defeated the N.F. Senators 10 to 6.
Wayne Johnston was the winning pitcher in his first start of the year. He allowed only 6 hits, struck out 7 and walked 8.
Simons was the losing pitcher for the Senators as he went the distance.
The Senators scored once in the first on a walk to Simons and a single by Van Hoey.
SIMONS SCORED again in the third as singles by Van Hoey and Edhart drove him home.
In the fourth, an error and singles by Hutchinson and Simons scored two runs.
The remaining two runs by the Senators came about in the sixth on 2 walks, an error and a single by Van Hoey.
The Orioles scored right off the bat as Glen Lindsay singled, Jean Butters doubled, and the two big Mike, Searley and Perry, singled.
In the 9th, a double by Glen Lindsay and a sacrifice by Tom Donoghue scored the fourth run.
In the third, two more runs came across on a double by Mike Perry, a single by Wayne Johnston, and a triple by Bill Pell.
Four insurance runs were added in the sixth as nine men went to bat. A triple by Glen Lindsay, 2 singles by Pell and Perry, a double by Ron Lee and a walk to Mike Thompson produced the scoring.
An added note to this game was a single by "Willie Wright," his first hit of the season (even say, 44" Tom Donoghue, 438; Mike Searley, 381; and Wayne Johnston with a even 300 average).
