

Boy Scout Troop 162 Helps Local Goodfellow Effort

Boy Scout Troop 162 of Farmington, sponsored by the Shawnee School PTA and led by Scoutmaster Tom Bluffert, collected food for nine baskets which was distributed by the Goodfellows to needy families for Christmas. Each of the Scouts donated 25 cents toward the purchase of food for the Goodfellows' Christmas charity program.

On that very cold day, Jack McElroy, Jo Wyss, Mike Wyss, Paul Ruelle, Dave Pruitt, Steve Labanski, Randy Fox, Chuck Kim, Frank Pobien, Craig Unger and Bill Hartwell beat the stoutmaster, who had slippery soles on his shoes around the hiking trail.

The Troop held a Christmas party December 19 and great quantities of cake, pop and ice cream were consumed.

All of the scouts wish to extend a belated Merry Christmas, greeting to the public and best wishes for a Happy New Year. Troop 162 is greatly appreciative of the time support given them this past year by residents in the community which has contributed to their success.

Ice and snow can be found throughout the year under the hands of the Sleeping Bear Dunes, according to the Michigan Tourist Council.

There is dew on a flower, and not in another, because one opens its cup and takes it in, while the other closes itself, and the drops run off.

—Henry Ward Beecher

That to-morrow starts from an open mind is all very well today and is one day beyond in its way, but it ought not to rob the future with hopes, be so open that there is no keeping anything in or out of it.
