St. Gerald's to Break Ground

The Rev. James P. O'Hagan has announced that groundbreaking ceremonies for St. Gerald's Catholic Church will be Sunday, July 26, at 12 noon. The Church and Hall will be erected, with completion expected at Christmas time. The Rectory will also be built at the same time.

The new Church is at Farmington Road and Colfax, just north of Eight Mile Road. Charles D. Hannan is the Architect.

All the children of the new Parish are invited to bring shovels or spoons to help dig.

Four adults, each representing a different area of the Parish, will also dig.

Father O'Hagan will bless the cars and there will be free pop for the children.

In case of rain, the ceremony will be postponed a week.

Mr. Mrs. Wm. Devlin
At Baptist Convention

Mr. and Mrs. William Devlin are among 388 attending the 21st Annual Conference of American Baptists, July 18-25, at the American Baptist Assembly, Green Lake, Wisconsin.

Honorable Harold E. Stassen, returning from the Republican Party national convention in San Francisco and former governor of Minnesota, addressed the men's group on Wednesday. He served during the past year as president of the one and one-half million member American Baptist Convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Devlin are members of North Farmington Baptist Church.

This Is Kimberley

By JUDY BURNS
GR. 4-3112

Kimberley celebrates its fourth birthday this month, having acquired her first resident early in July of 1960. A family named Marshall owns the distinction of being the original occupants, although they have long since moved from the subdivision. John and Li Clark of Middlebelt were second, moving in the day after the Marshalls, so that they are Kimberley's "older" residents. Today the subdivision boasts 31 homes, and has just one lot (on Eleven Mile) remaining for sale. In her four years of existence 25 Kimberley homes acquired, or are currently seeking, a second owner, and four homes a third owner.

The roll of former Kimberley residents, the 25 families who have moved out of the subdivision since 1960, reads as follows: Barber, Garrison, Becker, Edwards, Hanson, Hughes, Kollmeyer, Lang, Marshall, McGilroy, Nelson, Odum, Phillips, Robinson, Sankovich, Sborroed, Stahl, Svatara, Tango, Thomas, Trambauer, Turney, Voight, Welner, Wagner (renters) and Tighe (renters).

In addition, we will soon lose the Elias, Etteberger, Delaney, and Durkin families, all of whom have already sold their homes and will be moving soon. Currently for sale are the homes owned by the Stishis, Sankovichs, and Hectors.

A good portion of the exodus has been within the past few months—a high turnover of residents that Kimberley can expect to continue from now on. A prominent Farmington realtor tells me that the entire north Farmington area is highly transient, having a 20 per cent annual turnover—that is, one in five families in this area.

move each year. OUR LATEST transfer is the Hector family of Pipers Lane, who will move to Los Angeles, California, to join their son, Vice-President of this Family Record Plan, Kimberley residents for 24 years, Tom, Goldie, and Debbie. They are moving to leave here in mid-August and sight-see their way to California.

Tom and Catherine Durkin have been transferred to Des Moines, Iowa, where they are spending three years here. Their Pipers Lane residence model has been sold, and the Durkins are moving sometime next month.

The band of welcome is extended to Arnold and Lee Young, new neighbors in the Kingston, formerly owned by the Trambauers. The Young family, including Janis, 17, and Mark, 8 moved here from Tulsa, Oklahoma. Arnold, a native Michigander, and Lee lived in Lansing for 9 years prior to moving to Tulsa, and therefore feel quite at home here. Arnold is the regional manager for the American Central Corporation.

July is far and away Kimberley's biggest baby month, with new citizens produced last July by the Givens, Gibbons, Williams, Burpess, and Morris families. This July began with Delana Churchill on the first and continued with the arrival of four more babies into the subdivision. Birthdays are bursting with pride at the Lombardis, the Morris family, and the Delaney family. The Delaneys are the parents of an 8 pound 2 1/2 ounce boy born on July 7 at New Grace. Named Steven Joseph, the baby has a big sister, Cindy, 6, and Donna Marie, 2. The children's grandparents are Joe and Louise Lombardi, who make their home with Mark and Rose, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph De Balista of Bedford.

Congratulations too to George and Shirley Pfaffman, delightful parents of their second daughter—a redhead born on July 16 at Providence Hospital. The 8 pound, 6 ounce baby, named as of this writing, is an older sister, Lori Lee. The girl's proud grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Michael Zolotoff, who make their home with the Pfaffmans. George's mother, Mrs. Pfaffman of Detroit.

SORRY TO HEAR THAT Jane Atwell's father is seriously ill in Cleveland, Ohio. Good news is that Alice O'Daniel, someone on July 10 after her month in Harper Hospital recuperating from open heart surgery on June 2.

The art exhibit at the swim club is slated for Sunday, July 26, from 2 until 7 p.m. Approximately 12 exhibitors have entered some 50 paintings, some of which will be offered for sale at nominal prices. Viewers will have an opportunity to vote for their favorite work of art and the winner will be announced about 5 p.m. that day. In the event of rain the exhibit will be postponed until the following Sunday, August 2.

Victims in the subdivision of late include Marie Evans' sister and family, Dot and Tom Burns and their four children from Pittsburg, Pennsylvania. Marie and Dot are two of nine children, all scattered through out the United States!

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Elliott June Reaumes' parents, are currently staying with the Reaumes until the new home they have purchased on Nine Mile Road is ready for occupancy. The Elliotts, who own a motel in Hollywood, Florida will divide their time in the future between Florida and their new house in Farmington.

Cake and candies to Chuck Wilson and his young daughter, Vera, will be on July 22; to Mary Kenny from her thoughtful brother, Alvin, on July 23; to John Allen and Fran Eilers on July 24; to Glen Alter, 7 or 8; to Gary Northern, 4; Mike Kowalski, 16, and Dick Bey, not telling, on July 25. Anniversary roses to Jack and Helen Valenti, 21 years old on July 24.

KIMBERLEYITES are departing for a day in many directions as the spokes of a wheel. Chuck and Lorraine Wilson of Hickory spent a recent week at Houghton Lake, returning home earlier than anticipated when their four children rebelled at the fishy water and demanded Beechview pool. Including the new house on Pipers Lane at the corner of Greyhound belongs to Lorraine's parents, who will move in soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Margaret Hansen of Fiddlers Green headed east to the Fair via Washington, D.C. The Hansen's nine-day trip included a stop at Niagara Falls on the way home.

Fritz and Kay of Killbuck took much the same route, visiting friends in Washington, and former neighbors in New York. The Killbuck's children, Kevin and Claus dia, spent three days at the Fair, where they ran into the Hansen family. After a two-week absence that put 1,700 miles on the Kimberley speedometer, Fritz was involved in a five-car chain reaction accident on the expressway here, the morning after their return. Fritz suffered bad cuts about his hands and head, his seat belt with preventing his being thrown through the windshield.

Gar and Rae McDade and Valla Rae, 15, Zella Ann, 13, and Wanda, 8, headed in the opposite direction, taking the western route to California and returning via the northwest through the Black Hills. Highlights of their three-week vacation included three days at the Disneyland Hotel, and visiting Columbia Studios to watch the high making a movie entitled "Ship of Fools."

Jim and Betty Kaler and son Jamie are home from an extensive auto trip into the Upper Peninsula, Wisconsin, Minnesota, across International Falls and 170 miles into Canada where they stayed at Fortage Lodge in Kenora, Ontario. While in Canada the Kalers caught a painted turtle and brought it all the way home only to discover that the turtle was too large for Jamie's aquarium. Betty called the Detroit Zoo in search of a home for their over-sized friend, and upon taking it to zoo officials discovered the turtle to be the largest specimen on record in the United States! Thus Jamie's painted turtle is destined for fame.

To Expand Horse Show Events At 1964 Michigan State Fair

The horse shows—among the most popular events at the Michigan State Fair—will be expanded this year.

Fifteen shows are scheduled in the Coliseum, with the first on the opening evening of the Fair, Friday, Aug. 28, and the last, the final afternoon, Monday, Sept. 7. Last year 12 shows were held.

THE HORSE SHOWS will be free to all State Fair goers—a rare opportunity to see superbly trained horses going through their paces.

There'll be parade horses, pleasure horses, working horses, harness horses, quarter horses, saddle horses and ponies.

Included will be Arabians and Morgans, colorful Appaloosas and the giant Clydesdales, Belgians and Percherons, Scottlands and Tennessee Walkers will be on hand, as will Palominos and Ponies of the Americas.

The horse shows will include the regular showing of the saddle and harness horses, plus such events as barrel racing, goat tying, cattle cutting, prairie stump racing, barrel bounding, and stake racing.

A total of more than $25,000 in premiums is being offered. THE SHOWS WILL be held each evening of the fair except the final evening, with matinees on Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 28-29, Sept. 5-6, and Monday, Sept. 7.

Country-music stars of the Grand Ole Opry will perform before each weekend horse show.

Adam Ostrowski of Hamtramck is liaison. Authority member for the horse shows, C. A. "Bud" Leitch of Ponton is chairman of the horse show advisory committee and superintendent is Charles Roby of New Hudson.

Judges will be: Quarter Horse and cutting contests, Don Carr, of Fort Worth, Texas; Palominos and Parade Horses, Palmer Terrell, of Alton, Ind.; Arabian and Morgan, David H. Neil, of Cleveland, Tenn.; Belgian, Percheron, Clydesdale and hitch classes, Justin McCarthy, of Ada, Mich.; Appaloosa and Pony of Americas, Gene Pittenger, of Eaton, Ind.

There'll be parade horses, pleasure horses, working horses, harness horses, quarter horses, saddle horses and ponies.
