Jim and Marilyn Brown had house full for ten days. Marilyn's mother, Mrs. Edna Altonburg, with two boys, Van, 10, and Kurt, 3, drove up from Corpus Christi, Texas. All were here from Detroit, Michigan. They left for the drive home last week Wednesday.

Bill and Arla Pahl, with Pam, left here June 25 driving to Syracuse, N.Y. where they picked up Arla's Aunt Fannie Kersten, and all drove on to Arla's sister, Mrs. Sybil Helman, in Fair Haven, N.J. Here the temperature was 99 degrees for three days, but they did spend one of them at the Fair. They returned home via Niagara Falls reaching here July 5.

ADVERTISEMENT FOR BIDS
FARMINGTON PUBLIC SCHOOL DISTRICT OAKLAND COUNTY, MICHIGAN

The Board of Education of the Farmington Public School District will receive bids for approximately 210 ft. of 8" x 8" x 12" concrete pipe in nine (9) classrooms; Repair blacktop on service drive and other buildings; Repair sidewalks at Eagle Elementary School.

Bids will be received at the Administration Building, 32500 Shawwassee, Farmington, Michigan, until Wednesday, August 12, 1964, at 4:00 P.M. At that time bids will be opened and read aloud.

VERNON GRACE FISHER, daughter, Marj Candler, and grandson, Willie, spent a 4-day week-end at Jackson, Michigan, at the Waterloo Hunt Club horse show. Vern is president of the club, Marj is secretary, and Grace had a job which they had to go down two days before the show started on Saturday. There was a dinner dance at Holiday Inn Saturday night, and Sunday, after the show. There was a buffet supper at the show grounds for exhibitors and their guests.

Lou and Clare Lewis took a week's vacation trip driving to the upper peninsula, stopping in Clare's boyhood city of Houghton. They also went to Mackinac Island where they ran into the Kneaders.

SUE A.N.D. ROBERT GARDON had an interesting trip west. They left here June 15 and drove via Chicago to Springfield, Mo., to New Mexico, Arizona, Utah, and Colorado. In particular, they enjoyed a boat ride they took down the San Juan River.

The Women's Association summer picnic at Mary Tye's home came on the last cool rainy day before this burst of very hot dry weather. Some 40 gathered to enjoy a delightful luncheon with lots of good food and joyous visiting. Our daughter Vera Norwalk did go in for a swim after lunch. It was very nice to welcome several newcomers to Wood Creek.

U-M Research Shows Growth

This may be the age of science. At the University of Michigan graduate studies in many humanistic fields are growing even faster than those in the sciences.

Jehovah's Witnesses Convention Worker

Tom LeManski of the Farmington congregation of Jehovah's witnesses has received assignment to work in the trucking department at the forthcoming district convention of Jehovah's witnesses to be held July 23-28 at the Michigan State Fairgrounds, in Detroit.

Marfile Contos was also with us. Her husband, Joseph, is an engineer for the Baleron Corp. They built the lovely home at the corner of Northwest and Altonburg, with two boys, Van, 10, and Kurt, 3, drove up from Corpus Christi, Texas. All were here from Detroit, Michigan. They left for the drive home last week Wednesday.

for several years. Welcome to Wood Creek.

WILMA GARDEN'S father, Mr. A. M. Thompson, died on the 13th of this month. He was in a nursing home in Tuscaloosa, Ala., walked to the dining room for his evening meal, then slipped away at the table quietly and easily. Ed and Wilma slow down for the funeral. We all wish to extend our sympathy to Wilma.

Bill and Sheila Holden, with Bill's sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Thiele of Green Bay, Wis., drove up to Sturtevant Friday afternoon for a weekend of theatre and family reunion. They returned from the previous week to Barr of Dunkirk, N.Y., arrived

George's brother, Dave, who lives on Union Lake. His parents have returned to Virginia where they will remain until they go on to their winter home in Largo, Florida.

Monday, Janine had been visit-tained again. Sunday a group of about 40 enjoyed their pool, games, and delicious food. It was her 17th wedding anniversary. It was also Bob's birthday. Perhaps there were more excuses but two are quite enough for them to extend their marvelous hospitality.

George TROUT's parents came up from their summer home near Roanoke, Va., for their 43rd wedding anniversary on July 10. That date is 15 of the birthday of George's mother. It gave them an opportunity to get acquainted with their 14th grandchild, Conrad Trout, Georgia, and a sister, Beulah Barr of Dunkirk, N.Y., arrived
