

Chrysler President Receives New Honor

Lynn A. Townsend, president of Chrysler Corporation, Detroit, has been selected as the 1964 Industrialist of the Year. (Rudolph A. Peterson, president of Bank of America, San Francisco, who served as chairman of the award board which selected Townsend for the annual award of the Society of Industrial Realtors, made the announcement last week.

"In the three years since he became Chrysler's president, Lynn Townsend has made a once-great company great again. His energetic leadership has transformed Chrysler Corporation into a vibrant organization that is competitive in industry vital to the nation's economic growth," Peterson said. "In revitalizing Chrysler, he has set an example for every manufacturer to follow."

The key word at the 115th annual Michigan State Fair is "FREE." Nearly all the entertainment can be seen at no extra admission charge. The fair opens Friday, Aug. 28, and runs through Monday, Sept. 7.

The charity that hastens to proclaim its good deeds, ceases to be charity, and is only pride and ostentation.

—William Hutton
