Echoes of Pleasant Valley Farms

Summer vacation time has found Pleasant Valley Farms residents journeying to all points of the compass.

Northbound were the Eugene LeTourneau who camped in northern Michigan the last week in July. On their way back to Farmington they stopped for a brief visit with Nancy and Harry McFall who had taken a cottage on Duck Lake near Interlochen. While in the area, Eugene vacationed with David, Dickie and Mary Beth, the youngest LeTourneau stayed with their neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Fredrick of Hidden Valley Drive.

Ann and Bob Platzbat and their sons, Billy and Tommy, also vacationed in the Traverse City area last week.

Florida's Jackson and Mrs. David L. Bachman, Dave and Pamela, who found St. Petersburg during their Farmington tour, returned last week.

THE WIDE-OPEN spaces of the Rocky Mountains lured the Warren Bopp family to Colorado and the Grand Canyon in July while Shirley and Norman Meyers, the Bopp's next door neighbors, trekked all the way to California for their vacation.

Along about the same time Pat and Bob Switzer with Karen and John were camping in the Black Hills of South Dakota.

Eastbound, in June were Helen and Fred McGlinchen with Darryl, Paul and Kathleen as they traveled to the World's Fair and Washington, D.C.

Camper's coming and going from Pleasant Valley Farms recently included Jim Harris and Paul McGlinchen. They spent a week at the Baptist Church Camp near Leapee. Paul's sisters, Darryl and Kathleen, returned from the same camp on August 3.

THE WARREN BOPPS' cottage on Strawberry Lake has been a mecca for vacationers in recent weeks. John Harris and David Lee bicycled thirty miles each way to spend the weekend with Jerry Bopp July 21 and 23. Saturday, August 1, found the Donald Gains family paying the Bopp's a visit.

Jeane Harris is spending the week at the Michigan State Fair.

two weeks with the Russell Nankers family of Old Homestead Subdivision, on Lake Michigan near Glen Lake. Friday, July 24, several friends got together for lunch on at the Hunter's Whip in Franklin Village to say "goodbye" to Virginia Betty Kovach who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund W. Beatty of Pleasant Valley Drive. Marjorie Mitchell of Detroit joined Helen McGlinchen, Christine Harris and Margaret Schaeffer in honoring Virginia. MAJOR AND MRS. Kovach and two of their three children, Joey and Kitty, left Farmington July 25 for Fort Dix, New Jersey. Joey Kovach is spending two weeks with Chris Schaeffer on Drake Road. She will fly to Trenton, New Jersey to join her family on August 9.

Helen McGlinchen, Margaret Schaeffer, Christine Harris and Betty McDowell of Westbrook Manor enjoyed the performance of "A Tourist Carnival" at the Lydia Mendelssohn Theater in Ann Arbor on Wednesday evening, July 22.

Farmington Oaks

MARIE RUYKE 474-6272

The column of last week needs a couple of corrections. Bud and Mary Gail Daley's little girl, Carolyn Jean, and Elvin and Barb Field's girl, were born on July 31, not August 31, as stated. And I have no idea who "Mr. McCrae" is, not having written that part of the article.

Lee Kincade spends all of time running to the doctor's office. Susan had an ear infection and then got bronchitis, and then William came down with an ear infection. Guess the swimming pool is tough on ears this summer. Quite a few other "swimmers" from the Oaks have had ear trouble too. Let's do lake time on the Oaks this Sunday, August 9, though.

JOHN AND KAY Gainer moved into their new home on Birchwood last week. Kay's mother, Mrs. Ann Hicks, also lives with them. John works for the Ford Motor Co. and Kay works at Melburn. Fawcett Advertising in Birmingham. They moved here from Redford.

Any of you women interested in bowling this fall? Marilyn Gray is also signing up for the Flanders P.T.A. League which will start the week of Sept. 14. They bowl at 12:15. Call Marilyn at GR. 4-5509 if you're interested.

Did you see the N.W. walking through the subdivision last Saturday? That was Sister Maura Christ, O.P., Pat Goggin's niece from Detroit. Joe and Pat entertained her and her companion, Sister Leon Denise, O.P., also from Detroit, and about 40 relatives.

Lots of Birthday wishes this week: Linda and Ken Smith celebrated their birthdays on August 7. Linda was "Sweet Sixteen" and Ken was eleven years old. Stephanie Klein celebrated her 5th birthday on August 8, by having Susan Mosley and Pam Mayer over for ice cream and cake. Her sister, Candy Klein was four years old on August 11. Bill Stormont's birthday was August 9 and Evelyn Whitwood and Peggy Cline added another candle on August 11. Four-year-old Lori Ring and her father, Harold, celebrated their birthdays together on August 12, as did Pat Guyette. And a big happy birthday to "Mama" Tresemer who is observing her 78th birthday today, August 13.

Children's Art At State Fair

A child's barnyard of animals, unspooled by adult realism, will delight youngsters who visit the Kiddie Farm area at the Michigan State Fair, August 28 through Labor Day, September 1.

The animals will be 30 life-size plywood cut-out figures faithfully reproduced from drawings made by pupils of Detroit elementary schools. Over a hundred other children's animal drawings will be exhibited in the New Home Arts Building at the State Fair.

MRS. LARRY M. WAUGH

Couple Speak Wedding Vows In St. Martin's Episcopal Church

Miss Sharon Jean Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Smith of 1824 1/2 Points in Detroit, became the bride of Mr. Larry M. Waugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh J. Waugh, 32265 Farmerville Road, Farmington, on Saturday evening, July 25, at 7:30 p.m. in St. Martin's Episcopal Church.

Officiating at the ceremony was the Reverend Robert Miller. The bride was given in marriage by her father. For her wedding the bride wore a gown of Sate Peau. The scoop neckline was trimmed with appliques of alonza lace and matching appliques adorned the skirt. A pearl-embroidered headpiece secured her bouffant. The bride bouquet was a cascade of white roses with ivy.

The maid of honor was Kathy Smith, sister of the bride. Her town was of pale pink shantung with deeper pink velvet ribbon accenting the empire waist. Her floor length gown featured a small train and she carried a cascade bouquet of deep pink roses with ivy.

Bridesmaids, Arlene Perry, Westfall and Phyllis Morckel, wore gowns identical to that of the maid of honor and carried matching bouquets. Serving as best man was Bruce Wade; and ushers were Paul Frey, David McKernan and Dennis Smith.

Diane Green was flower girl and Danny Gasser served as ring bearer.

After the reception which was held following the ceremony, the couple left for a two-week wedding trip to the Pocono Mountains.

The couple now at home in Detroit, Michigan.

MRS. GARY JAMES ATCHISON

Jordan, Atchison Exchange Marriage Vows in Saginaw

Miss Gayle Ann Jordan, held by two hand-made roses, came the bride of Gary James Atchison, son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Atchison of Farmington, on Saturday afternoon, August 8.

The Rev. Ralph Churchill performed the ceremony at 4:30 p.m. at The First Methodist Church, Saginaw.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Jordan of Saginaw, entered the church with her father. Her floor length gown of silk linen was styled with scooped neckline, fitted bodice, elbow length sleeves and controlled belt skirt which fell to a chapel train. Its only adornment was a banding down the skirt and about the waist, held by a pert bow. A small hat of flowers held her veil; she carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

MISS GLENNA JORDAN served her sister as maid of honor. Miss Janet Atchison, sister of the bridegroom, was a bridesmaid. They were floor length gowns of Samson Rose silk-linen featuring short sleeves, fitted bodice and controlled belt skirt fashioned with a panel at the back which was System.

Jack D. Atchison was his brother's best man; Clifford Girard was a groomsman. Seating guests were William Atchison and David Hook, uncles of the bridegroom.

For the wedding of her daughter, Mrs. Jordan chose a pink dress and light pink accessories and wore a corsage of rose buds. Mrs. Atchison was attired in a blue dress with white embroidery and a light blue accessories; she wore a corsage of rose buds.

After the ceremony the couple greeted guests at a buffet reception in the church parlors. FOLLOWING THE reception the newlyweds left for an extended wedding trip to Northern Michigan. For traveling the bride changed to a white pique suit with navy accessories.

The couple will make their home in East Lansing where the bridegroom will continue his studies at Michigan State University and the bride will teach with the Lansing School System.

Install K of C Officers Here

On Wednesday, August 6, at the regular meeting of St. Francis Council No. 400, Knights of Columbus, the newly elected officers of the council were duly installed.
