The August Women's Association meeting was held on the 15th at Theresa McKay's with 21 attending. Wilma Garden and Ethel Nelson were the co-hostesses who provided the delicious desert. A business meeting followed at which the date and place for the Christmas luncheon were decided upon. December 10 at Plum Hollow.

GILBERT PREUSS enters Kalamazoo College next month. He goes early, leaving here Labor Day, to start football practice. Dale Preuss is still in Scotland. A navy man, he is on a submarine tender stationed at Holy Loch, Scotland. He has been there nearly six months and expects to remain another six months.

Richard Lase came home for the weekend. He is enjoying his new work in New York very much.

A week's ago Saturday night Vern and Grace Fisher entertained 30 members of the Waterloo Hunt Club at their home. Vernon held a board meeting at 4 o'clock which was followed at 5:30 by a potluck dinner. The members came from Jackson, Ann Arbor, Birmingham and Detroit.

MILDRED AND Robert Day moved out of Wood Creek last Saturday. They bought the Alma Motel at the northern limits of the city of Alma, Mich. We shall miss them here but perhaps many of us will see them in their new habitat.

A family by the name of Wendling... I think the spelling is correct... will be moving into that home shortly. Mr. Wendling is associated with Chrysler and there are two sons. I am sorry it is all the information I can give you at this time, but we do wish to welcome them to Wood Creek.

Paul and I left here two weeks ago yesterday for New England. We drove to Northampton, Mass. to Paul's sister's and then on around the horn to other relatives. It was marvelous to see them all, but to see our young people in particular. We reached home Sunday evening.

THE MAID OF HONOR was Betty Watson, sister-in-law of the bridegroom. Bridesmaids were Judy Allen, of Lapeer; Jean Ann Weigold, St. Charles; Sharon Weigold, Saginaw; and Leatta Taylor, of Flint. All were identically dressed in street-length powder blue or orange over taffets, with white accessories and carried bouquets of dusty pink carnations and rose buds.

Ronald Watson was his brother's best man, with Fred Inus and Lekoy Inus, also brothers of the bridegroom. John Beard and Clifford Murphy, all of Farmington, serving as ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Ward chose a gold-metallic, blue-gray dress with white accessories. Mrs. Inus, mother of the bridegroom, wore a light blue eyelet sheath with white accessories.

THE CEREMONY was performed by Rev. David Stone of Farmington.

Mayfair Bridge Club Master P. Nite Held

The Mayfair Duplicate Bridge Club held its Mastep Point Night last Friday, August 14, at 2800 Middlebelt Road in Farmington.

Winners at the Friday night bridge session were Norman Gugel and Alan Collins (North-South) and Bob and Betty Newman (East-West).

Second place berths went to Ira and Louise Benjamin (N-S) and Thomas and Gay Hines (E-W).

The Mayfair Bridge Club meets every Friday night at 8 p.m. and the public is invited. The director is Marion Collins.

MISS JUDITH MARIE WARD, who taught at the William Grace School on Shawwassee last September, had promised her pupils that if possible she would arrange to meet them at the school playground on her wedding day so that they could see her in her wedding gown. Last week each of her pupils received a letter from Miss Ward that she would be at the William Grace playground on Saturday, August 15, between 6 and 6:30 p.m. for those who would like to see her and her wedding party. The young students picked up the letter in the early arrivals at the playground reception.

Local Elementary Teacher Visits School on Wedding Day

Miss Judith Marie Ward, the First Methodist Church of Farmington, visited the school on her wedding day. To pour at the reception which followed at Lovett Hall in Greenfield Village, the bride chose Nancy Inus of Farmington, Alice Guy of Midland and Patricia Kolberg of Pleasant Ridge.

The newlyweds left for a motor trip through the eastern states, after which the bridegroom will return to his job as foreman with the Trumit Co., and the bride will join the faculty of Ten Mile Elementary School in Farmington.

Art Exhibit Planned Here Sunday, Aug. 23

On Sunday afternoon, August 23, artists from the area will be exhibiting their oil paintings at the Farmington Senior High School on Shawwassee. The show will have a casual atmosphere with the paintings hung on the cyclone fence surrounding the athletic field allowing the spectators to view the works at their leisure from 1:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.

The artists themselves will be available at various times during the show period to answer questions and inquiries concerning the art pieces.

THE MAJORITY of the painters are from the Farmington area although there are several from Redford. Most of these painters are non-professional and do their painting for leisure activity although several are teachers of art.

The subject matter used for the paintings includes a wide variety and each artist presents his own individual style, and there will be pleasant viewing for all persons of varying likes and interests.

Interest in creating by adults has been on the upswing in the last few years as is emphasized by our present adult education program.

MRS. ALICE NICHOLS, oil painting instructor and chairman of this current show, has had ever increasing numbers of adults in her oil classes.

Mr. Richard T. Tyler, adult education director, has added a jewelry course to the present trifold classes in sketching and painting this fall. Information will be available at the exhibit for interested adults.

Thus far, some forty paintings have been registered with Mrs. Nichols for the show and registrations will still be arriving all week. Anyone still interested in exhibiting is urged to call her by Friday at Greenleaf 6-3839.

The show will be postponed one week to Sunday, August 30, during the same hours if the weather is inclement.

Area Nuns Will Don New Habit

The Daughters of Charity of St. Vincent de Paul, the largest community in the Catholic Church, has announced a change of habit.

Farmington's Sarah Fisher Home and Marillac Apartments as well as Detroit Providence Hospital are all operated by the Daughters of Charity.

The change in habit is being made in compliance with the recommendations of the Sacred Congregation of Religion which has for some years been urging Religious Orders of women to simplify their habits in keeping with the needs of their present works and with the general trend of adaptation to modern times.

The only semblance of the former habit that has been retained are the colors, blue and white, indicating their special dedication to Mary Immaculate. Other than the colors, the new habit will be completely different from the former one. The new habit is a one-piece, box pleated, tailored dress, six inches from the floor. The head-dress is white, covered by a short, blue coiffe, reaching below the shoulders. The change is scheduled for September 20.

Most newspaper used in the United States comes from Canada.

Korkigan Gets New Position

The U.S. Lake Survey announces the appointment of Ira M. Korkigan of 2875 Summerwood Farmington, as Chief of its Special Studies Section, Hydraulics and Hydrology Branch. Mr. Korkigan is a graduate of Michigan State University. He has been with the Lake Survey since 1951, when he began his career as a Cartographic Survey Aide.

His highly commendable service on a variety of assignments in the Hydraulics and Hydrology Branch resulted in this recognition of his capabilities and background. In connection with his work, Mr. Korkigan has also had several scientific papers published.

The Lake Survey Special Studies Section conducts research-type investigations, the findings of which are applied to the solution of hydraulic and hydrologic problems encountered in performing the mission of the Lake Survey.

Special emphasis is currently being directed to the solution of engineering problems related to the development and utilization of the water resources of the Great Lakes system.

Guests Entertained At Authentic Luau

Upon their return from Hilo, the outer islands, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Puchert of Greening Street in Farmington, entertained approximately sixty guests at an authentic Hawaiian Luau on Saturday, August 15.

Guests were greeted with traditional Hawaiian food and ceremonies. This included the singing and dancing.

Lighting of the torches, crowning of the King and Queen and the dancing of authentic Hawaiian girls and boys from the Paul Mendoza troupe.

Mary Mitchell and her group also entertained in their Hawaiian style along with Bob Bogues who completed the evening with his aulau drumming and witty remarks. This included the singing and dancing.
