

Forest Park News

Thanks to those of you who telephoned to say you enjoyed your first visit last week. This is a definite indication that the residents of Forest Park are interested in knowing what goes on in the subdivision. The continuation and success of a column of this nature depends entirely upon the cooperation of its readers in supplying the necessary news. Let me hear from you regularly.

The Green Club announces that on Monday, August 22, there will be an hour's hay ride with a top-hat-party following, at Friendly Acres. Members are invited to bring guests.

Lois Allen, Helen Moorhouse and Fran Spriggs of Tredwell, and Faith Ripkey of Dayle, completed two weeks of jury duty in Pontiac, and found it to be a most rewarding experience.

Bill and Peg Isbell, of Dorset, helped to entertain Buster and Myra Loveday, and their two children, from Little Rock, Arkansas, during their three-week vacation in this area. Mrs. Loveday is Bill's sister.

THE NORV KENNEDYS of Ontario, returned from their week's vacation, which included a short visit with Ann Marie, the cousin in Short Hills, New Jersey, three days at a resort in Wildwood, New Jersey, and a visit to the New York World's Fair.

Barry Swiss, our swimming pool director, announced plans for a triangular swimming meet to include Forest Park, River Oaks of Dobson, and the Boys Clubs of Detroit. The meet is scheduled to take place Friday evening, August 21, and will, in all probability be judged by officials of the A.A.U. The pool is located on Livernois, south of Michigan Avenue. Tickets may be obtained from Swiss.

Bob and Elaine Cohen of Ontario vacationed with sons Mark and Jimmy, for a week in Charlevoix, Michigan. Before returning home, the Cohens enjoyed a side trip to Mackinac Island.

The Zuchowski of Leyte - Joe, Cora, Greg, Susan, Linda and Carol - returned from a weekend visit "back home" with their families in Youngstown, Ohio. Their 14-year-old nephew, Frank Tybor, came back with them to spend a couple of weeks.

THE DON SOVELS of Tredwell were host and hostess for the Livonia Jewish Congregation Social in the form of an Hawaiian Luau on Saturday, August 8. About 20 people enjoyed a menu of sweet and sour chicken, prepared by Ray Siegel, pepper steak, prepared by Don Sovel, himself, rice by Sarah Smith, and watermelon basket by Ruth Raimi. Eugene Forrest donated 48 hurricane lamps. The Sovels wish to thank the Forest Parkers who helped with the preparations, namely Marlene Nolan, who did the floral arrangement, Bob Allen who built the fire, and Ray Bradley who donated the logs.

Perra and Karen Unger, teenage daughters of Mrs. Helen Unger of Ontario, spent an exciting weekend at the Shakespeare Festival in Stratford, Ontario, Canada. The girls saw superb productions of Shakespeare's King Lear, the Bourgeois Gentleman, and Yeoman of the Guard and visited the Shakespearean Museum in Stratford.

Happy August 20 Birthday to Jim Atkinson, 14, and Ricky Calligaris, 8.

Congratulations to Eleanor and John Brown of Longwood, who are now the proud parents of a fifth child, baby Deanne, born August 8, who joins brother Michael, 13, and sisters Regina, 10, Sharon, 7, and Maria, 1.

THE WELCOME MAT is out to our new neighbors: Sy and Jerry Warshawsky, from Detroit, who have purchased the Biddell home on Dorcas. The Warshawskys have one daughter, Cheryl Ann, 18 months. Sy is an insurance consultant with Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. John and Carolyn Walther, who are now the owners of the Smure home on Ontario, have a three-year-old son, Corey. Mr. Walther is principal of St. P. Lutheran School on 8 Mile and Middlebelt.

Welcome also to the Barth family of Midland. Mr. Barth and Mrs. Barth, with their two children, both of whom attend Eastern University in Ypsilanti, are moving into the home on East Junior High. Susan, 11, Joe, almost 7, and Alan, who will attend Our Lady of Sorrows, Mary Pat, 7, starting kindergarten at William Grace, and little Mike, 4. Hub is a real estate salesman for Omar Sanderson and Mary is a waitress at the Farmington Country Club. The Barths formerly lived in Farmington Acres.

Max and Mary Stewart and daughters, Laura, 4, and Cheryl, 20 months, are newcomers to the subdivision. They have acquired the Shelmans residence on Ontario. Max is old-time resident Bill Stewart's brother, and he is emulating his father.

played as a carpenter with Barton-Malow Co. STEVE WHITE of Tredwell drove daughters Beth and Jan to up to Leamington, Canada, where the girls spent a week visiting with their aunt.

Juanita and Paul Jordan of Nine Mile Road, and their daughters, Pauline and Debbie, returned from a three-week vacation which took in a week at Grand Lake near Alpena, a week at Osage Lake,
