Leads the Nation

Many of the nation's leading philanthropic, educational and cultural organizations were founded by eminent Michigan people. These include the Children's Fund of Michigan, founded in 1929 by United States Senator James Couzens; the Cranbrook Foundation, Bloomfield Hills, organized in 1927 by George C. and Ellen S. Booth; Ford Foundation in Detroit, established in 1936 by Edsel B. Ford, Jr.; Kresge Foundation in Detroit, organized in 1934 by John S. Kresge; the McGregor Fund in Detroit, established in 1925 by Tracy W. McGregor; the Mott Foundation in Flint, founded by Charles S. Mott; and the Horace H. and Mary A. Rackham Fund in Detroit, founded in 1933.

STATE REP. RAY BAKER and his charming wife, June, were among the many Farmington residents who turned out Saturday, August 15, in the Farmington City Park for the Junior Chamber of Commerce Chicken Bar-B-Q. Shown above greeting Mr. and Mrs. Baker is Farmington Jaycee President Ralph Parnin (right).

The Thomas Mahoneys and their three youngsters, Tim, Tommy and Debby, of 22751 Lilak returned recently from a three-week vacation at Killarney, Ontario. They drove up via Windsor and Toronto, towing their eighteen foot boat. They spent the full time. One morning they found that during the night a Coon had gnawed the corner of their ice box, in an attempt to get at the food inside. Their runabout boat performed perfectly in both smooth and rough water. They cruised fifty-four miles one day in it. They caught pike, perch and bass right in their own Killarney Bay. They visited Killarney Lodge where a complete view of Killarney Bay is obtained from any lounge chair.

A quadruple birthday party was held Saturday, August 15, at the home of the Gerald Gorman, at 2318 Hawthorne. There were sixteen adults and twelve children present. The party was held for the four Gorman children, Mike, 9, Pat, 7, Keith, 5, and Barbara, 3. Mr. Gorman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Gorman of Lilac, and Mr. and Mrs. E. Hallman, Mrs. Gorman's parents, were present. Mrs. Gorman's sister, and her family of Hawthorne were also among those present. They are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Parker.

Mr. and Mrs. Sergey Poborka's 21-month-old son, Sergey, Jr., has just returned home from a five-week stay in Children's Hospital in Detroit. He is still under doctor's treatment and it is to be hoped his stay at home will be permanent. The Poborkas reside at 22311 Violet.

Another new family recently moved into the Floral Park area, August 1. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Formella and their seven-month-old son, John, made their home at 22801 Floral. They formerly resided in Detroit. Mr. Formella works for the Lincoln Motor Company at Wyand, Michigan.

Margret Cramer To Judge Art at Local Exhibit

Margret Cramer, well-known artist on the Detroit scene, will judge the Farmington Annual Art Exhibit, opening Sunday, Aug. 23, at the Universalist Unitarian Church of Farmington.

Mrs. Cramer, whose paintings and other works have been displayed in numerous shows in this area, has had extensive artistic training both in her native Germany and in this country. She makes her home in Wayne, Mich.

She is skilled in many media in the art field and thus well qualified to make awards in the local exhibit. It is attracting artists from the area, including Farmington, Livonia, Southfield, Northville, Plymouth, Redford, Dearborn, Lincoln Park, Garden City and Birmingham.

THE SHOW WILL open Sunday, Aug. 23, from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. and from Aug. 24 to 25, will welcome visitors from 7 to 9 p.m. The church is located on Warner at Thomas, half a block north of Grand River.

Artists wishing to submit up to three entries may get more information from Stanley Hensch, 425-1130, or Mrs. Wanda Pusey, GR. 4-6299. There is a fee of 50 cents per entry, and each must be suitably framed or mounted.

Prizes will be awarded to winners. Mrs. Cramer selects the amount, depending on the number of entries.

Torch Drive Dollars Provide Top Rehabilitation Institute

Torch Drive dollars, positive 500-mile auto race, and whose thinking, and the finest equipment available make the Rehabilitation Institute one of the nation's most modern and effective facilities for repairing damage to body or spirit caused by disease or accident.

Dr. Joseph N. Schaeffer, director of the Institute at 261 Brady, first unit in Detroit's Medical Center, expressed the thinking behind the wealth of equipment and highly-trained specialists when he said:

"We never say: 'This Man has just a leg'."

"Instead, we say: 'This Man has a good leg'."

MEDICATION AND retraining complete the job. During the past year, 637 men and women occupied beds in the Institute. Another 2,014 came to the Institute for outpatient services. Of the bed patients, five were from Farmington as were five who went there for outpatient services.

The Institute was built in 1956 adjoining Harper Hospital, from funds provided by the Metropolitan Detroit Building Fund and the Federal Government.

The Metropolitan Detroit Police Foundation was created as a Torch Drive agency after the National Foundation for the Paralysis released to accept Torch Drive dollars, $10, sought to provide rehabilitation treatment for police patients. Space was obtained in Herman Kiefer Hospital.

The United Foundation realized, however, that there were many other handicapped sufferers who needed help. The new building was completed, and patients from the rehabilitation section in Herman Kiefer and from the State Police Workshop, a Torch Drive agency, were transferred there. Help was provided for every type of disability.

WALTER C. LAIDLAW, executive vice president of the United Foundation, earlier this year was helped to recover from the effects of a slight stroke by therapy at the Institute. Mario Wallenda of the "Flying Wallendas," critically injured in the collapse of a human pyramid atop a high wire in which Dieter Scheppe and Richard Faughnan were killed at the Shrine Circus at the Michigan State Fairgrounds in January, 1952, fought his way back to partial recovery through use of Institute facilities.

Currently, Johnny White of Warren, Mich., "Rookie of the Year" at the 1954 Indianapolis
