GIRL SCOUT DAY CAMP for 1964 was concluded successfully last Friday after the girls had suffered a day-long interruption due to Tuesday's downpour. Activities for the week included making ice cream in an improvised "refrigerator" and weaving "people mats" such as the one the group above is sitting on, made by having the girls serve as the "hobbins" on a "people-size" loom.

Purple hearts this week to the unusually long list of donors and users. Bud Olson of Pipers Lane suffered an acute coronary on August 11, and is currently recuperating in Elliott General. Debbie Barash is home learning to pamper her newly discovered young ulcer after being rushed to the hospital with stomach pain early on the morning of August 4. Darrell Cooley suffered an attack of kidney stones on August 9, and spent several days in Beaumont Hospital before returning home on August 12. Wally and Marion Barringer spent a recent week in Philadelphia with Markie consulting specialists at Children's Hospital there. Markie has undergone two eye operations at University Hospital in Ann Arbor within the past few months.

Julie Mingo of Pipers Lane was bitten by a cat on August 6 and had to begin taking the rabies series on the 17th, as the cat has disappeared. Julie, 7, said she was scared many of the ten shots, given one each day, if the cat can be found. Please call the Mingos, 476-0795, if you have seen an adult male pale yellow and white tiger cat within the past two weeks.

The teen party at Beechview Pool on Thursday night, August 6, was an enormous success—due in small part to the fact that for once at a pool affair it did not rain! The young people swam and danced from 7:30 p.m. to 11:30 p.m. The party centered around the "Calientes," a popular local combo comprised of Chico Lorenzen and Fred Coffin of Kimberley, Mike Fleming, and Bob Gilmore. The fifth member of the combo, Tom Walker, was unable to attend the pool party.

KIMBERLEY GO NO party chairman Marie Evans and her co-chairman, Marion Tournaud, who had assistance with refreshments and chaperoning from Fay and Dick Laakey, Charlene and Gus Heuer, Betty and Dave Witmer, Maribel and Linn Chalmers and Marlene and Dick Angelo.

Congratulations to Loretta and Nelson Henry of Greythorne, bursting buttons over 8 pounds, 5 ounce Joseph, born on August 5 at St. Mary Hospital. The baby was welcomed home by big sisters Linda, 11, Lori, 10, and Ann, 2, and by his big brother Nelson, 9.

Birthday cake and ice cream to Holly Stockell, 12, on August 7; to Lee Young on August 12; to Scott Norton, 6 on August 13; to Lynn Rennell, 5, and Jim Brakora, 18, on August 15; to Keith Faunce, 3, Mark Boff, 5, Megan Day, 9, and Mary O'Donnell, all on August 16; to Kristine Keeli, 14 on August 17; to Sandra Jones, 1 on August 18; to Donna Marie Lombardi, 2 on August 20; to our son Jeffrey, 4, and Gloria Mingo, 18, on August 21.

Anniversary roses to Mary and Don Kenney, 16 years on August 7; to Evelyn and George Fletcher, 15 years on August 15; to Bob and Marianne Clark on August 14; to Bob and Jean Butters, 24 years on August 17; to Tom and Sara Derdarian, 17 years on August 20; and to a triumvirate of "Johns" on August 23: the John Tournauds, the John Allens, and the John Newmans.

KIMBERLEY CAMPERS home from the wilds include Jeanette Naguin, Sue Piercecechi, and Chris Rennell. The three 12-year-old girl scouts spent two weeks recently at Camp Narrin. Karen White, Zella McAdams and Sue and Eric Walter spent a week at Camp Knight of the Pines, a Methodist Church camp near Cheboygan.

Mike Martin and Danny Erickson of Troop 116 also attended the Boy Scout Jamboree at Valley Forge this year, spending 10 days there with scouts from all over the world.

Speaking of boy scouts, a reminder that Beechview School's Troop 175 is currently taking orders for fertilizer, going to the school on August 25. The fertilizer, ordered during this time may be picked up at the home of Paul Joseph on Eleven Mile on August 29.

Kimberley's newest "for sale" sign adorns the lawn on Pipers Lane Court owned by John and Norma Morris. The Morris family will relocate somewhere in the area, perhaps closer to John's work in Dearborn.

THE WELCOME MAT is laid this week for Bob and Sherry Anderson, new neighbors in the Eleven Mile home formerly owned by the Wellmers. The Anderson family moved here from Lincoln Park on July 13, enriching Kimberley's young population with Robin, 4, Doug, 2, and Dana, 9 months. Bob is on the finance staff of Ford Motor Company.

The Andersons have just returned from a two-week vacation "home" to Boston, visiting Bob's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Anderson, and Sherry's dad, Dr. Carl Floe.

Connie Martin and Vivian Erickson hosted a baby shower on August 6 for mother-to-be Helen Brown, expecting her sixth in September. Helen makers who showered Helen with lovely gifts included Sara Derdarian, Mike Ruffing, Freida Crompton, and Mike Martin. This is the third consecutive year that Troop 116 has been invited as the Governor's Honor Guard.

Another downpour occurred on August 12 at the home of Marion Jamison, when Marion and JoAnne Tune hosted a shower for Judy Magee. Judy, expecting number two in September, received many beautiful presents from the 25 Kimberley girls who attended the shower. Included in the guest list was Judy's sister, Jane Mack of New York, who spent the week as the Magee's house guest.

Other visitors in the subdivision of late include Mrs. Oia Collins and Kim and Mike of Ypsilanti, who spent a recent week with the Stockells at their home on Middlebelt.
