Farmington Scout Leader Announces Expansion Plans A concerted program to expand scouting in Farmington and the surrounding area has been announced by J. M. Tenney, 23331 Wellington Road, Farmington, chairman of the Farmington Scout Council and Extension Committee.
The aim of the O.E.C. Committee is to establish 15 new scouting units in the North Trails District of the Detroit Area Council of Boy Scouts of America, Tenney said. The North Trails District is bounded by Inkster Road on the West, Eight Mile Road on the South, Coolidge Road on the East and South Bldg. on the North. It includes Bloomfield, Farmington, Southfield, Lathrup Village, Berkley, Oak Park and Huntington Woods, as well as nearby communities.
HIGHLIGHT OF the expansion program will be a "Together We Organize" Dinner on September 30 at the Detroit Country Day School to which representatives of interested sponsoring institutions will be invited, according to Mr. Tenney, who is several salesmen for American Motors Company appliance division.
The "Together Dinner" will be chairmaned by Charles R.
Adams, executive vice president of McManis, John and Adams, advertising agency.
"We are very fortunate to have such a prominent citizen of the community and interested Scouter as our Together Dinner chairman," Tenney said.
It is through such dedicated citizens as Mr. Adams that we will be able to bring scouting to more boys in the North Trails District.
"WE HAVE TARGETED a total 150 scouting units - Cub Pack, Boy Scout Troop or Explorer Post - in the North Trails District for this year. Currently there are 132 units established, three new units in progress, leaving a balance of 15 units for our O.E.C. Committee," Tenney said.
"We are hopeful that man'y institutions in the Oakland County area will not only be responsive to calls from our committee members, but will also assume the civic responsibility
