LARRY WAUGH (left), assistant branch manager of First Federal Savings of Detroit's Farmington branch, opening savings accounts for the six children of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. (Bud) Gasser of 32223 Farm-

Whole Bud Gasser Family Savers At First Federal Savings Here

Everybody in the family of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. (Bud) Gasser of 32223 Farmerville Road, Farmington, is a saver. Their thrifty way of life came to light recently when Mrs. Gasser and her six children - the oldest 9 years old and the youngest 2 - dropped in at the First Federal Savings of Detroit branch at 32223 Farmerville Road.

The children, Mrs. Gasser told Assistant Manager Larry Waugh, each wanted a savings account his (or her) very own. Waugh got out six passbooks and when he had finished, the branch had that many new savings accounts - one each for Michael, 9; Tom, 8; Susan, 6; Patty, 4; Danny, 3, and Jimmy, 2.

The Gasser children get weekly allowances from their dad, and the older ones have been doing odd jobs around the house for mom and the neighbors. Encouraged by their parents, they have started to lay aside a part of their income and put it to work for future needs - at the going First Federal rate of 4 per cent.

Mrs. Gasser told Waugh that it was her opinion that the youngsters should be taught to save as early as they can understand the meaning of it. Already, the Gasser children are thinking of the day when they'll be going away to college, and they hope to have a sizable nestegg when the time comes to start.

Mr. Gasser is a member of the firm of Gasser, Martens Associates, 28347 Grand River, Detroit. The firm sells Day-Brite lighting fixtures.

Kendallwood Comments

By STEFANIE KUESTER

Area representatives of K-2, K-3 and K-4 will again be calling upon homeowners for donations to the Kendallwood Farms Association. Membership for the year 1964-65. Last year we reached an all-time participation of seventy-seven per cent and our goal for this year is one-hundred per cent participation.

Mr. Ralph Lennis, the new president of the Association needs your cooperation to make this a successful campaign.

Those who missed the previous notice regarding the Kendallwood P.T.A. Bowling League will be glad to know that Mary Ann Gasser is still looking for members to fill the league. Five or six women are still needed to close the membership. If you are interested in helping with this important project, please contact the person at the above telephone number.

Bud and Mary Ann Gasser and family of Farmerville have just returned home from their vacation at her parents' cottage in Long Beach, Indiana, in the Lake Michigan Area. Mary Ann's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Courtney of Dearborn, and the Hogans, formerly of Red Clover, were guests at the cottage. During their stay, the temperature dropped to an all-time low of 58 degrees. Incidentally, the Hogans had recently recovered from their bout of chicken-pox and d mumps. They would like to extend their hellos to all their friends here in Kendallwood and say they miss them all very much.

Bob and Jean D'Agostino and family of Red Clover spent three delightful days at the O'Hare Inn in Chicago. They visited her brother, Grand Disbrow who resides in Mt. Prospect. They toured Chicago from north to south and on to Evanston and took in a porpoise show and saw the fabulous Aquarian. On the way home, they stopped at the senior D'Agostinos at Kelly Lake in the Irish Hills area.

Barbara D'Agostino and her friend Laine Covans of Old Forge also stayed at Kelly Lake for a few days visiting the senior D'Agostinos. The scribe had a long distance telephone conversation (Atlanta, Ga.) with the Don Robinsons formerly of Baintree Road. Marion reports that the house is very well in order, that the bicycles are again in sight on their driveway, and it won't be long before the old homestead will be buzzing with contentment.
