Cope, Mrs. Arthur Gracup, Mrs. Frank DePodesta, Mrs. Glenn Leland, and Mrs. Richard Gaul from the Republican Women's Organization of Farmington.

Program highlights for the two-day meet are: Keynote speaker, The Honorable George Romney, Governor of Mich., to be introduced by Hon. Robert Griffin, Traverse City, at the Tuesday night banquet, September 22, open to the public.

"KICK-OFF" luncheon speaker, Tuesday noon, September 22, will be Mr. Charles J. Sligh, Jr., Past President of National Assn. of Manufacturers, Holland, Michigan, who will speak on "Is Freedom Worth The Effort?"

In addition to the Annual Business Meeting, there will be a panel on Issues for Legislators; and a Roundtable on Campaign Activities, Legislation, Membership, Programs, Ways & Means, and Public Relations, conducted by State Republican Women Leaders. Convention theme: "Republicanism Protects Freedom."

General Chairman of the convention is Mrs. Margaret Greenwood, President of the Muskegon Republican Women's Club. Program Chairman is Mrs. G. Sam Kelly, of Grand Rapids, and Public Relations Chairman is Mrs. Lee S. Worthington, East Lansing.

Mrs. A. E. Benton, of Battle Creek, President of the Michigan Federation, states she anticipates at least 300 women will attend the Muskegon Convention.

Integration Talk Set for Sept. 23 At St. Fabian Ch.

How integration could affect Farmington is the subject of an open meeting scheduled by the Farmington Citizens for Better Human Relations at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 23, at St. Fabian's Church.

The group plans to have speakers from predominantly white neighborhoods, where some integration has taken place.

The meeting is open to the public, vice-chairman Robert Leiden announced, and all interested persons are urged to attend. The church is located on 12 Mile Road between Farmington and Orchard Lake roads.

Continuing its fall membership drive, the group plans to have representatives at major shopping areas to distribute information again Saturday, Sept. 19, and pulp announcements of the drive are planned in all Farmington churches this Sunday.

Those interested in joining the group may contact Mrs. Joanne Smith, 31538 Staman Circle, GR. 4-8292. Regular memberships are $1, sustaining memberships $5, and contributing memberships $10.

TRY A CLASSIFIED AD

AUXILIARY MEMBERS of the Michigan State University Alumni Club of Oakland County gathered at the home of Mrs. Bud Gasser (left), 32223 Farmerville Drive in Farmington, last week, to make plans for the Membership Drive Fashion Show, September 29, 8:30 p.m. at Greenfield's Restaurant in Birmingham. Pictured above with Mrs. Gasser are (L to R) Mrs. Robert Benjamin and Mrs. Richard R. Ensworth, both of Farmington. Tickets and information on the dessert-coffee fashion show are available from Mrs. Benjamin (474-5517). Ski fashions from the Don Thomas Sportswear Shop, Telegraph and Maple roads, will be featured at the MSU Alumnae function.

18th District Congressional Dinner Oct. 12

The 10th Annual 18th Congressional District Dinner will be held Monday, October 12, at Northwood Inn, Woodward and Catalpa, Mrs. Robert Phillips, chairman of the 18th Congressional District, announced to-day.

Proceeds from the dinner will be contributed to the campaign fund of Frank J. Sierawski, Democratic Congressional candidate from the 18th District. DAVE SHEPHERD is chairman for the 7 p.m. dinner. "We expect approximately 700 persons to attend the dinner," said Shepherd. Filet mignon will be served as the main course.

A nationally-known Democratic figure will be the dinner speaker. (Last year's speaker was Senator Ted Kennedy from Massachusetts.)

Dr. Leon Hill of Huntington Woods and John DeWan of Madison Heights (LI. 4-9176) are handling the sale of tickets.

As for the dinner book are being solicited by the Democratic Business and Professional Association, under the direction of Richard Wolk, chairman.

Additional information is available at the Democratic Headquarters, 3269 Collidge, Berkeley, 514-2337.

1st Methodist WSCS to Meet

The Woman's Society of Christian Service at First Methodist Church will hold their first General Meeting of the fall on Tuesday, Sept. 22.

Following the usual pattern, luncheon will be served at 12 noon. The Executive Committee will be the hostesses and advance reservations should be made with Mrs. Thomas McCutcheon, the President (GR. 4-8322).

Devotions will be conducted by Mrs. Myron J. Myers and the day's program will feature David Denton, a Senior at Farmington High and a member of First Methodist, who will report on his experiences this past summer as an exchange student under the Michigan Council of Churches.

MRS. DAVID MCGINNIS, Youth Secretary, will introduce the speaker. A cordial invitation is extended to the women of the community to join with this group at their monthly meetings and in their many and varied activities.

Mothers of school-age children are reminded that the General Meeting is adjourned by school dismissal time for their benefit. Nursery care for pre-schoolers is provided at all General Meetings.

Plans for the near future include the Mission Study Class to be held on Wednesday mornings in October and the Fall Rummage Sale which is scheduled for Saturday, October 10.

GOP Women To Meet Sept. 21

Members and friends of the Republican Women's Organization of Farmington are looking forward to an interesting afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank DePodesta, 22855 Walsingham Drive, on September 21 at 12:30 p.m.

It is important that every woman become fully acquainted with the campaign issues and be able to counter unintelligent and prejudiced criticism.

Mrs. Alfred Benson will present the Republican position on "Fiscal Policy"; Mrs. Robert C. Fininger, on "Foreign Affairs"; and Mrs. Edna Cope, on "The Power of the Federal Government."

All women in the community are welcome.
