

Local League of Women Voters Presents Their Aims and Goals

Mrs. Warren Messer, State Chairman for the Provisional League of Women Voters of Farmington, this week reported on the aims and purposes of the League. Mrs. Messer, along with the Farmington Chapter President, Mrs. William Smith, was a delegate to the League of Women Voters State Convention held last spring.

The League is a non-partisan, non-profit organization that seeks to promote good government by supplying citizens with factual information on issues affecting our community, state and nation.

AT ELECTION TIME, we present unbiased information on candidates and work to increase voter participation," Mrs. Messer reported.

In March of 1961, the Provisional League of Women Voters of Farmington was organized. "The first project of the new League is to compile and publish a factual study of local government, both city and township," said Mrs. Messer. "This will include information on the functions, services and financing of our government and describe the history of the Farmington area, school system, library and recreational facilities. At this time there is no such coordinated information available in Farmington," she said.

THE DRIVE, scheduled to open September 23, will provide funds for the distribution of Voters Guides, publications of our forthcoming study of local government, and other League projects. It will also give League members a chance to acquaint prospective contributors with the League's work.

The League has an Education Program that was established lished in 1957 to undertake educational programs in the field of government in the United States.

Activities have included citizenship training conferences and preparation and publication of educational materials (this is on a national level).

All senior citizens are invited to attend, according to officers of the club; and those who attend are requested to bring a snack to go along with the coffee that will be furnished.

Annual AAUW Book Sale Sept. 24, 25, 26

The American Association of University Women of Farmington have now completed plans for their used book sale Sept. 24, 25, and 26 to raise money for their fellowship fund.

The A.A.U.W. sponsors a fellowship program which is designed to enable gifted women to use their intellectual powers for the good of humanity. The fund raised, the program was begun over seventy-five years ago, he first fellowship, an award of $500, was granted in 1888.

Since then over 1,700 women have received A.A.U.W. Fellowship Awards.

EACH YEAR the Farmington branch of A.A.U.W. helps foster sale to raise money to contribute to the A.A.U.W. fellowship fund. For each of the past four years over $500 has been contributed. It is hoped that this year's sale will raise an even greater amount.

The sale is to be held in the National Club of Detroit building at Grand River and Farmington Rd. On Sept. 24 and 25 the hours are from 9 to 9, and on Sept. 26 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m.

American women who are promising scholars are given the awards to help them develop their abilities and not be distracted from their course of study because of lack of funds. Through fellowship awards to women of many other countries, A.A.U.W. helps foster world-wide understanding.

Last year A.A.U.W. gave 113 fellowships at a total cost of $238,360. About half of these were given to American women. The rest enabled women of many other countries to study in the United States or to continue their education elsewhere.

Among the women who have benefited from the opportunities offered through A.A.U.W. fellowships are a physician who organized the first mental health unit in Thailand, an internationally known astrophysicist, and a Danish lawyer who became a Minister of Justice in the Danish cabinet.

THREE GOOD REASONS TO BUY AN ELECTRIC DRYER NOW • low initial cost • special installed price • Edison no-charge service When it comes to buying a clothes dryer, there are more important things to consider than an incomplete claim about a pennies-per-load operating cost. Take dryer service, for example. No matter where you buy your electric dryer, Edison will repair or replace electrical parts with no charge for parts or labor. How do you put a price tag on this extra-special service? One way is to look at what you'd pay for a dryer service policy. Typical charges, in this area, range from $70 to $150 over the first five years. This is the kind of money you save when you dry clothes the safe, gentle electric way. Also, model for model, an electric dryer costs less to buy than a flame-type does—some electric dryers are $20 to $40 less. And now, for a limited time, the price paid for an electric dryer includes its wiring, if any is needed. So you save even more. What about cost of operation claims? Just this, an electric dryer costs about 5¢-7¢ per load to operate—and there are no other hidden costs. Look at all the facts. They add up to electricity.
