

Mr. Retailer--Don't Be Misled On Distribution

Don't be misled on the facts about distribution. The Farmington Enterprise is delivered by mail and put out on the newsstands early Thursday morning throughout Farmington City and Township.

Your advertising message in The Enterprise is delivered in a guaranteed readership, PAID CIRCULATION newspaper in ample time to be seen by anyone interested in shopping in your store on Thursday afternoon or evening. Our special full coverage section of the paper, over 12,000 copies, gives you even earlier delivery to many. It is delivered to all non-subscribers in the mail on WEDNESDAY MORNING and goes as a regular part of the paper to all paid subscribers EARLY THURSDAY MORNING.

We don't rely on chance distribution by having boys toss free papers at doorsteps in a "hit and miss" fashion to be thrown away by many before even being looked at. With this kind of distribution, some get your advertising message Wednesday but many others don't receive it until Thursday and even as late as Friday in some areas. Many never even receive free distribution throw away papers at all.

This Is Kimberley

By JUDY BURNS

That handsome young man boussequesting the Front Oak's house on Dundalk is Jean Lefebvre of Paris, France, Jean, 23, is spending his summer with the Kimberley family. He is part of the Experiment in International Living program and at the end of the month will enter the University of Chicago to take his master's degree in business administration. In the meantime, Jean is a welcome addition to the Kimberley family. He and Lenore, Emily, 12, Susan, 9, and Michael, 18 months, Jean, who speaks fluent English, help to any of our French students during his stay here.

Other visitors hereabouts include Mr. and Mrs. John Kanagas and two of their children, who spent the Labor Day weekend with the Platters of Westmeath, The Kansas family in Cincinnati, Ohio, where Jean is a professor at Xavier College.

LEE AND MAUREN Allaire of Wicklow hosted their oldest son and his family, Ron, Jill, and their two children, of Detroit, recently. Lee and Maureen, young grandfathers, and their children are Jan, 15, Cindy, 8, Mike, 5, and Connie, 3, were delighted to have the family together over the Labor Day weekend.

The injured list is Ronnie Ruffing, 9, son of Mike and Gene of Kiltartan, who sports a cast on his broken left arm. Ronnie fell off of a bike while visiting friends in Cleveland, Ohio, on the very first day of his family's vacation. The Ruffings visited the Vicker family in Cleveland for several days, and then proceeded, cast and all, to Washington, D.C. for the remainder of their two-week vacation. Ronnie is currently in class at Beachview, where his cast will be available for autographing for the next month.

Cotton and Carolyn Deats of Greythorne returned from a Labor Day weekend from a two-week camping trip. The Deats family, including Phil, 11, Pat, 11, and Rick, 8 months, pulled their tent trailer through the Smoky and Appalachian Mountains, and back to Washington, D.C. on the way home.

WHITE CAMPING at Cap Hatteras, North Carolina, the Atlantic Ocean, the beautiful beach, and the excitement of the tail-end of the hurricane Cleo. Thinking that the storm had already passed the area, the Deats pitched their tent and made camp. Their next night from early evening until 4:30 a.m. they fought a 30 mile an hour wind that brought 8 inches of rain with it!

Cake and candies to Johnny Bowlick 5 on September 11; Pamela Blanchard, 16 on September 12; to Jan Witmer, 16 and Frank O'Donnell, not telling, on September 14; to Nick Hawthorne, 7, Jody Evans, 10, Julie Brakora, 16, Marilyn All, 11, and Bill Flattery, 16, on September 16; to Hector Castaneda, 14 on September 17; to Richard Spoutz, 2, and Don O'Malley, on September 18; and to Cindi Lombardi, 6, and John Willson, 8, on September 20.

Anniversary roses to Cotto and Carolyn Deats, 17 years on September 15; to Bob and Betty Brees, 20 years on September 16; to Dick and June Radner, 27 years on September 18; and to Ken and Jeanne Alter, 10 years on the same date.

KIMBERLEY BRIDGE fans will be interested to learn that there will be a tournament for couples this winter, with the proceeds to be donated to Beechview Pool. The tournament will begin in October, and each couple will meet on other couple every month on any night convenient to both, and play 16 hands of regular rubber bridge. The scores will be recorded, and in the last month, June, all couples will convene to play and the final winners decided at that time.

The prizes will be $20 for first place, $20 for second, $10 for third, $5 for tenth, $5 for twentieth, and $5 for thirtieth place.

The entry fee is $16 per couple, and the deadline for entering is October 10. Hopefully, enough money can be raised to supply the pool with high diving board! Call Jill Emerson, 474-6079, for your reservation in the tournament.

The hand of welcome is extended Jack and Blaise Shea, new neighbors in the Pipers Lane home formerly owned by the Etchberger family. The Sheas, 2 and 11, Toledo, Ohio, "home," although they have lived in many places throughout the country and moved to Kimberley after renting in nearby All Loma. Their two boys are John, 7, and David, 2, and Jack is sales manager for Marks and Goergens, food brokers in Detroit.

WELCOME TO for John and Margaret Dutton, new owners of the Delaney's home on Greythorne. The Duttons, natives of Canada, moved here from Bramford, Ontario, with Janet, 13, Barbara, 12, and Michael, 6. John is general manager for Massy Ferguson.

Just two doors from the Duttons on Greythorne are more new neighbors, Haroldine and Art Stearns. The Stearns, natives of Detroit, moved here from Livonia. Art is welcomed as one of Kimberley's largest families. Their youngsters are Debbie, 13, Kyle, 12, Patty, 11, Claudia, 9, Kevin, 6, and Kurt, 4.

Art is a tool engineer with the Cadillac Division of GM.

THE STEARNS and their six children join the ranks of our other settlers - the Berringers, Buchanans, Churchills, Heerles, Celes, Macielaks, Mingsos, and Spoutzes. In addition, the Stearns of Kiltartan expect to join the club momentarily. Kimberley also has four families with 6 children: the Armstrongs, Gullys, Heintzens and Jourmans, with the Martins a newcomer come January; and three families with 7 children: the Dale Johnsons, the Kennys, and the Toomeys. Of 319 homes in Kimberley, these are the most densely populated!
