Local Jaycees Get First Role As Dist. Hosts

The Farmington Junior Chamber of Commerce will play host for the first time in their nearly twenty years as an active club to all of the Jaycees of District Nine, which comprises most of south Oakland County (13 chapters), at the Farmer-Forster Home Wednesday evening, September 23, but the would-be bandit left empty handed and surrendered himself to police Monday night.
Robert Prince, 31, of White Lake Township, admitted to stealing a Ford Country Sheriff's officer he had attempted the robbery because he was 'badly in debt.' He had no gun.

PRINCE PASSED a note to the MDD Telco, Mrs. Ruth Maulder of Livonia, demanding "$10,000 in large bills." She told him there weren't any large bills and he fled out the door and drove away in his car. Farmington Township Police put out an alert with a description of the car and the man. Within minutes of the foiled bidden.

Prince was pulled over by State Police as a possible suspect but released after being thoroughly questioned and showing identification. He told them he was on his way to a dentist appointment from his place of employment at Pontiac Motors. His story failed to check out and he was being sought when he gave himself up at the Oakland County Sheriff Office.

For centuries wise men have extolled the essentialness of work to well-being. "All work is seed sown," wrote Thomas Carlyle. "It grows and spreads, and sows itself anew."

Farmington Jaycees have attended many such meetings in other areas and are looking forward to staging a successful meeting next Wednesday when they, for the first time, will assume the role of host chapter.

STATE JAYCEE President Dick St. John of Kalamazoo will be present along with other state Jaycee officers. District Nine Vice President Jack Treat will conduct the business sessions and will award a "Traveling Trophy" to the chapter with the largest number of men in attendance.
