Expect 150,000 to View New Cars

Detroit Auto Show Opens 9-Day Run Saturday

The expected 150,000 visitors to the 48th annual Detroit Auto Show Saturday, January 9, through Sunday, January 17, will have an opportunity to compare in comfort the 250 various 1965 models with 150 domestic manufacturers plus 10 imports represented.

The show will be staged all under one roof and will cover some 200 acres. Site is the convenient Detroit Artillery Armory, West Eight Mile near Northland, less than a mile from the John Lodge Freeway and only two miles from Woodward.

The show will be open from 11 a.m. to 11 p.m. each day. The convenient parking lot can accommodate 7,000 autos. Parking fee is 25 cents. Show admission is $1 for adults, 50 cents for children under 12, and a special 25-cent fee for children through high school age between the hours of 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. Monday through Friday, 10 a.m. to 11 p.m.

Public interest in the 1965 cars is extremely high, auto industry sources report, because of the sweeping changes in both styling and engineering.

On hand with new car representatives of their complete 1965 lines will be these domestic makers: Chevrolet, Ford, Plymouth, Lincoln, Mercury, Dodge, Pontiac, Buick, Oldsmobile, Cadillac, Chrysler, Imperial, Rambler, Checker and Jeep.

Import makes which will be seen include Triumph, English Ford, Suburban, Hillman, Opel, Saab, Rolls Royce, Jaguar, Austin Healey and MG.

Three truck makers, Chevrolet, Dodge and Ford also will have displays.

Besides the glittering array of new models, there will be a host of special cars. These include the $310,000 Presidential Lincoln used by Presidents Truman, Eisenhower and Kennedy; an Imperial with 24-carat gold appointments; the Plymouth Convertible which will be the 1965 Indianapolis Speedway race car; a brand new 1965½ Buick model, the Skylark Gran Sport; and a Pontiac GTO convertible trimmed inside with Tiger fur.

Special cutaway engineering exhibits will appeal to the men while the women will be intrigued by the exhibits of trims and special accessories.

Entertainers will be on hand and so will pretty girls, including the current Miss America, Vonnie Kay Van Dyke, who will appear January 12 and 13.

Auto show chairman for the seventh time is Harold C. Johns. The show is sponsored by the Detroit Auto Dealers Association which has 235 dealers in Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties.

Your Child's Homework

By DUMONT F. HIXSON, JR.

Theme writing is the constant nemesis of students at all levels. Moreover parents frequently lack confidence in their ability to help their child with essay assignments. If no structuring of the assignment is provided by the teacher, the following check list can be utilized with some success by both the parent and the child. At the same time the teacher will find no formula or check list is completely adequate.

1. Is each word in the title properly capitalized?
2. Has the writer allowed sufficient margin space?
3. Does the essay have an effective opening sentence? Is the opening sentence one that will catch the reader's attention?
4. Is the thesis clearly formulated? Does each paragraph substantiate this thesis?
5. Does the essay avoid run-on sentences, the most common error of the young writer?
6. Is the essay logical? Does it avoid fallacies of reasoning? Does it avoid overgeneralizations?
7. Does the writer avoid using ambiguous words like "thing"?
8. Does the essay have an effective middle and end?
9. Will the ending startle the reader so that he will want to think more about the subject?
10. Has the writer read the theme aloud, listening for sentence rhythm?
11. Does the essay contain groups of words for which one word can be substituted?
12. Does the essay contain effective similes and metaphors?
13. Has each doubtful spelling been checked with the dictionary?
14. Is each topic sentence substantiated by facts, examples, arguments, or incidents?
15. Does the essay avoid shifts in tense, and shifts in person?
16. Does each pronoun have an unmistakable antecedent?
17. Has the writer written at least two drafts? One draft won't do the job.

Redford Plant Offers New Aid to Firms

A new service, introduced state-wide, will benefit manufacturing plants in the Redford area, according to A. A. Doherty, manager of Detroit Ball Bearing Co., Redford Twp. branch at 26345 Plymouth Rd.

An answer to a problem that has long plagued both bearing manufacturers and users, Detroit Ball Bearing Company developed this program to aid customers in obtaining replacement bearings of the proper class precision for servicing machine tool spindles. The measurements on these bearings are often held to close as 1/5 one millionths of an inch.

A plant survey is conducted by the local D.B.B. representative under the plan. He affixes identification to machines with the precision information clearly indicated, then arranges for the specific bearings to be stocked and immediately available for customers, either in the nearest D.B.B. warehouse or in the customer's own stock.
