

*French-Oja Wedding
Dec. 29 in California*

Dean Waterman Guest Of AAU Women-Ply.

Jolene Rene French and Richard Wayne Oja were united in a double ring ceremony Dec. 29 at St. John's Lutheran Church in El Segundo, California.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Philip Gehlhar and step-daughter of the Rev. Philip Gehlhar, who performed the ceremony. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Lempi Oja of Livonia.

The new Mrs. Oja wore a gown of white lucia velvet, fashioned with an empire bodice, accented with muted crystals and pearl embroidery with the embroidery repeated on the pierrette sleeves. A removable six-inch-wide train highlighted the floor-length princess A-line skirt. Her eight-tier elbow-length veil was of imported lace. She carried a bouquet of red poinsettias with pine.

Alarice Simpson, a cousin of the bride from Kansas City, Missouri, served as Maid of Honor while Esther Schroeder of Inglewood, Calif. was the attendant. The flower girl was the bride's sister Amy Rene Gebihar.

Both the bride-groom and his best man are 1952 graduates of Bentley High School. Mr. Oja is a graduate of Michigan State University and is currently employed by Parker Aircraft Co. in Los Angeles as a contract administrator.

Following a honeymoon in Hawaii the newlyweds will reside in El Segundo, California.

The Jan. 21 meeting of the Plymouth Branch of the American Association of University Women will be held in the Country Room of the Hillside of study in guidance and counseling. Before coming to Schoolcraft College, Dean Waterman was associated with Bay City Junior College and Delta College.

Other business on the agenda will be the Listening Post lecture series which will present Charles Blessing. Also included will be a discussion of the children's play "Cinderella" to be presented in late February.

Student Affairs at Schoolcraft College will be the guest speaker, Dean Waterman will speak of the topic, "Continuing Education for Women." Miss Waterman received her Bachelor of Arts degree and her Master of Arts degree at the University of Michigan. She has also completed several courses
