Women Of Wayne Alumni Club Will Have Theatre Party In Farmington

The Women of Wayne Alumni Club for the Farmington and Livonia area will sponsor a theatre party Saturday, Feb. 27, at the Farmington Players Barn when the Players put on the comedy, "The Great Sebastian."

Proceeds from the ticket sales will be used for the dual purpose of financing the club's local service project — assistance to needy families in the Farmington area — and contributions to the scholarship fund at Wayne State University.

The club is made up of women in this area, Plymouth, Northville, Redford Township, Garden City and Novi, as well as Farmington and Livonia, and all interested persons are urged to support this special performance.

Tickets are $2 and may be obtained in Livonia from Mrs. B. Dewey Hansen, telephone 421-6018, and in Farmington from Mrs. J. T. Miller, telephone GR 6-0855.

As part of its local service project, the club collects good used clothing to keep school aged children properly clothed to attend classes in this chilly winter weather. Just new supply of small boys' clothing is drastically low, and club service chairman Mrs. Robert Larson, is asking residents of the area for any good condition outgrown clothing.

Any person having such dishes or good clothing for any school children, are asked to call Mrs. Larson, GR 4-8332, or Mrs. Miller, GR 6-0855.
