

February 24th is the date!

The Observer will be 25 years young and it's with our THANKS to all of YOU!

Because of your acceptance of our up-to-date, modern concept of what you want in a newspaper The Observer has grown from a very modest beginning with 8 tabloid pages published hopefully on February 28, 1940, to today's average of 40 full-size pages and more in 1964 . . . and in 1965 the signs point to even more!

You made this possible . . . all of you . . . both readers and advertisers alike. So we have much to be thankful for . . . and most of all we are thankful for friends like YOU!

We Are Celebrating with a 25th BIRTHDAY
