

CIVILIAN CITATION for exceptional courage beyond that expected of a citizen is presented to Thomas Skinner (right), 19, of 17330 Winthrop, Detroit, by Mayor Harvey Moelke as Joel Labo, Director of Public Safety, gets ready to offer his congratulations. Recommendation for the citation came from the Detective Bureau of the Livonia Police Department. Skinner is a student at Schoolcraft College.

Brotherhood Reception at UAW Local 182 Thursday

Residents of Livonia, Plymouth, Redford Twp., and Farmington have been invited to observe Brotherhood Week Thursday, Feb. 25, at a reception and party sponsored by the UAW.

The community event will begin tomorrow at 6:30 p.m. in the UAW's Local 182 Hall, 35503 Plymouth Rd., Livonia.

A buffet dinner, followed by a movie, speaker and program, will highlight the occasion. Members of human relations groups in the suburbs have been invited to attend, and the public is welcome. Tickets, at $3.50 per person, are available at the union hall.

"The program," Lee Rudolph, chairman of the local's FEPC Committee, "is being put on as part of the observance of Brotherhood Week, but, more importantly, to acquaint and find measures and means of approaching through education and social gatherings for the benefit of all the surrounding communities — which will benefit the

Gov. Romney To Speak For Senate Aspirant Roberts

A Romney-Roberts Republican Dinner meeting will be held Tuesday, March 23, at Roma Hall, Plymouth Road in Livonia. The dinner will be in honor of Farrell E. Roberts, Republican candidate for State Senator for the 14th Senatorial District. Governor George Romney will be the main speaker at the dinner which is open to the public. Tickets are five dollars per person.

Farrell Roberts is seeking election to the senatorial seat vacated by the late Paul M. Chandler.

The dinner which will be held two weeks before the April 5 election is intended to highlight the final push in the Roberts campaign.

James O'Neil, Finance Chairman of the Livonia Republican party, is chairman of the dinner. Tickets may be purchased through any of the Republican organizations in Livonia, Plymouth, Northville, Farmington, West Bloomfield, Novi, Milford, South Lyon and Holly or by the delegates in the district.

Wanted: Horsemen

The Livonia Office of Civil Defense has announced that a basic training class for Auxiliary Policemen will start soon. These classes offer training under the direction of the Auxiliary Police organization and the Livonia Police Department.

It was also announced that a Mounted Division is being formed and any male who is an experienced Equestrian is urged to apply.

Men, over 21 years of age, interested in this training and serving the City of Livonia in this capacity, should call the Office of Civil Defense, 421-2000, Ext. 251, for further information.

Since the size of the class will be limited, early application is advisable.
