

Couple To Live In Plymouth

Miss Carol Lynn Casselman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Casselman, Redford Plaza Apartments, Redford Township and Coco Point Lodge, Barbuda, B.W.I. and Don S. Painter, son of Mrs. David Painter and the late Mr. Painter of Livonia were united in marriage. The candlelight ceremony on Feb. 13 was at St. Paul's Presbyterian Church in Livonia, performed by Rev. Dr. William Whitledge.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and chose a floor length gown of bridal satin with trimming of Alison lace embroidered with seed pearls on the bodice and sheath skirt with attached chapel train. A crown of seed pearls and crystal secured the silk illusion veiling. Her bouquet was a crest of white roses accented with red velvet hearts outlined in seed pearls.

Maid of honor, Karen Stahl, was gowned in floor length red velvet. The bridesmaids in identical attire were Cathy Schmidt and Sylvia Tartoni. The bridesmaids carried like bouquets of red and white carnations accented with hearts.

The bridegroom chose as his best man, Stanley Edwards, Ushers were David Palmer, Frank McLegg and John Evers. Mrs. Casselman, mother of the bride, chose for her daughter's wedding a coco brown georgette lace dress accented by beige accessories and coral corsage of corresponding color.

Mrs. Painter, mother of the groom, wore a taupe silk crepe with matching corsage and accessories. A reception immediately following the ceremony was held at Rosedale Gardens Civic Hall. After a short wedding trip the couple will reside in Plymouth.

New Hospital Dedication Slated Sunday

Providence Hospital's volunteer ladies are gathering frequently these days at their new hospital in Southfield. They are members of our Lady of Providence League, a new group formed by merger of the Auxiliary and Junior Guild, volunteer organizations long active at Grand Boulevard's Providence Hospital.

Mrs. Forrest A. Hahnline, Jr., of Redford Township, is dedication chairman of the volunteer hostesses for the dedication ceremonies, Feb. 28.

The dedication will be the first project since the league's formation. Directors and officers from the Detroit area for the League are Mrs. John F. Cotnam, president; Mrs. Kenneth N. Trader, president-elect; Mrs. Robert E. McKnight, vice-president; Mrs. Wallace H. Runcho, treasurer; Mrs. Henry W. Meier, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Mel-bourne J. King, recording secretary. Other directors from the Detroit area are Mrs. Fred D. Lorimer and Mrs. Frank G. Nolla.

KAPPA DELTA TALK DECORATING
"Jewels for Your Home" was the subject of discussion at the Kappa Delta Northwest Suburban Alumnae meeting held Monday, Feb. 15, at the home of Mrs. Glenn Hunter at 1731 Columbia in Redford Township. Members and their guests had a most interesting evening listening to Mrs. Grayson of the Mimoso Galleries, who talked about home decorating and illustrated her remarks with slides. Assisting the hostess was Mrs. Paul Walk.
