See You There!

Stamen Pinner will meet at the home of Gladys Hart on Thursday, March 4 at 8 a.m. Please bring any white material you may have, supply is very short. Sitchers will meet at the home of Margaret Wheeler on Monday, March 8 at 8 p.m. Members are asked to bring something for the White Elephant sale which will be held at this meeting.

Recovery's concept of "acting yourself into correct thinking" may be observed by attending the regular meeting Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the Plymouth High School. Training in Self Help Technique for good mental health will be demonstrated, the public is invited.

The 60 Plus Club will hold their regular monthly meeting on Monday March 8th at the First Methodist Church: A Pot Luck dinner will be served at 12 o'clock. Bring a dish to pass and your own table service. All members working on the Club's projects will report at 10 a.m.

The Plymouth Grange is sorry to have postponed the Rummage Sale scheduled for Feb. 27th, until the following Saturday, Dr. Ralph Piro will be the guest-speaker on March 4th at 8 p.m. at the regular meeting as planned but the pot luck dinner on the same date will be cancelled.

The Country Fair at the Longacre School in Farmington has been postponed last Saturday (Feb. 27) to this Saturday (March 6) because of the snow. As was announced in last week's Observer the Fair will be held in the afternoon and will feature 10 cent games and prizes for children.

"GIB" will be presented by the Theatre Guild of Livonia Redford on March 5 and 6 at the Redford Union High School Auditorium. Originally scheduled for last weekend the production is also a victim of "old man weather."

The Farmington Business and Professional Women are planning a Membership Tea on March 8. Each business and professional firm in the community are invited to be represented at the tea.

The Redford Township Jaycettes will hold a White Elephant Sale at the Manufacturers National Bank on Five Mile on March 8 at 7:30 p.m. Auctioneers will be Lee Nowak and Art Rockwell. Jewelry, household items, kitchen goods, toys and games, knick knacks and garden tools are some of the items that will be sold.

A musical "Salute to the Rommies" in the form of the world premiere of the Frank Loesser musical comedy "Pleasure and Palaces" is slated for March 10 at Detroit's Fisher Theater, under the sponsorship of the Oakland County Republican Party.

Commander of U.S.S. Skate to Speak in Northville Thursday

Captain James Calvert of the United States Navy will speak at the Northville Town Hall series on March 4. His talk is entitled "Surface at the Pole."

Captain Calvert, who commanded the U.S.S. Skate on its voyage under the Arctic keel, now holds down the Bureau and NATO desk of the Navy Department at the Pentagon. He is the author of "Surface at the Pole," the story of his modern exploration of one of the earth's last frontiers.

The captain is an Annapolis graduate and a submarine veteran of World War II, when he was twice awarded the Silver Star and the Bronze Star. For his achievements on the Skate, he was twice awarded the Legion of Merit, and the submarine was honored with the only two Navy Unit Commendations ever given in peacetime.

He commanded Submarine Division 102, which includes all of the Atlantic Fleet nuclear submarines, before assuming his present position.

Tickets may be purchased at the door of the P. A. Theatre in Northville preceding Captain Calvert's talk. A celebrity luncheon at the Meadowbrook Country Club will follow.

Put A Chez-Soi In Your Life!

From the time she opened her door for business in November, Mollie Ann Originals has done a brisk business. And, although it is off the beaten path, those who have "discovered" Mollie Ann have worn that path to her door.

Here is really a "find" for the small size, large size, the lady that is built like a pear or tent (as many of us are).

Mollie Ann employs a full time artist who sketches fashions for your approval. From these sketches the seamstresses at Mollie Ann make the garment after m'lady has selected her material.

Sketches by Harriet Hopson for Mollie Ann are made up from an actual or mental picture a customer has of a dress, gown, or outfit.

The courtier does not only deal in clothes. She has a complete line of high-styled costume jewelry. Or now about a hat made just for you to match

Madam President

Jean Lee

"One of the first things I did when we moved to Farmington 14 years ago," recalls Jean Lee, "was to join the Town Club."

Peri, vivacious, Mrs. N. Donald Lee once lived and worked on Pontiac. When she married and moved to Farmington she continued to work. She and her husband were later transferred from Pontiac to Livonia.

They now both work at the Fisher Body Division on Plymouth Rd. Her husband's family are long-time Farmington people; Don's father was postmaster for many years and his mother a teacher and later the school principal in Farmington.

Besides her husband, Jean has two boys in her family — Larry and Ron.

"When the boys were small," she says, "I was active in more clubs than I am now. I find that as they grow older I needed more at home."

Jean was interested in politics, too. She has been a delegate to the Democratic State Convention, was vice-chairman of the Oakland County Democratic Committee, and in the 1957 election she ran on the Democratic slate for the office of treasurer of Farmington Township—losing by only 143 votes.

A "political dinner" in the Lee household means a casserole Jean has prepared beforehand that her family can slip into the oven.

"All my outside activities — working, volunteering, politicking, would be impossible without the help of Don's mother," Jean says. "She's always taken care of the boys when I can't be here."

Jean says she likes working — thinks it's good for her. She says she notices that when she's home on vacation she doesn't get nearly as much accomplished. She feels her family is happier on a schedule, too. "I think the boys take pride in my doing things outside our home," she adds.

Although Jean has cut down on her outside interests, she has continued her membership in the Town Club and this year became its president. "Even though I work, I feel you should do something for charity," she says.

TEA FOR NEW STUDENTS

The Faculty Women's Club of the U. of M. Dearborn campus assisted at the vice-president's reception and tea on Sunday, Feb. 21, at Fair Lane.

The guests were new students on the Dearborn campus and their families and friends. The program included a welcoming address by Dr. William E. Stirling, university vice-president and director of the Dearborn campus, introduction of the faculty, tours of Fair Lane, and refreshments.
