The Michigan Youth Symphony will present a benefit concert at 3 p.m. April 4 at the Wayne Memorial High School Auditorium. Tickets will be sold at the door. Proceeds from the concert will go to provide scholarships for orchestra members to the National Music Camp at Interlochen. Students from Plymouth and Livonia are members of the Symphony.

Judge Arthur E. Moore, Oakland County Circuit Court Judge, will address local Alpha Xi Delta Alumnae at their Founders' Day Luncheon this year. Alumnae from the Western Wayne County, Detroit, Birmingham, and Grosse Pointe chapters will gather at noon at Slouf's Northland Inn on Saturday, April 10. All alumnae in the area are cordially invited to contact Mrs. Donald Riehl, 421-3150, for reservations by April 5.

Stamen Pinners will meet at the home of Mel Davies on Orchard Lake Rd. on April 11 at 9 a.m. Supplies will meet at the home of Mary Reynolds on Rocky Crest on April 5 at 8:30 p.m. While material is still urgently needed. White Elephant sale will be held at this meeting instead of last month so plan to attend and bring a contribution.

The Michigan Heart Association will present a program at 7 p.m. on Thursday, April 1st, in the Western Wayne County Convention Center at 8000 N. Dixie Hwy., Plymouth. A Heart-Lung Resuscitation demonstration will be given covering the "Mouth-to-Mouth" artificial respiration method and artificial circulation technique "External Cardiac Compression." This program is open to the public, and there is no charge.

"Fling into Spring," the annual spring dance of the Redford Township Republican Party, will be held April 23 at Western Golf and Country Club. Tickets, at $2 each, are available by calling KE 2-8170. The Redford Township Junior Chamber of Commerce Auxiliary will meet April 12 at 8 p.m. Members and guests are asked to bring any used books for a book sale which will be held at the end of the month.

"Happiness is a Thing Called You," the delightful dessert program sponsored by the Women for the United Foundation to be held at Our Lady of Sorrows Hall, River Road in Farmington. Mrs. Bruce Duke from Farmington is chairman.

Thursday, April 1 at the P & A Theatre, Northville Town Hall will hear the Washington columnist Maria Rountree. The lecture will be followed by a celebrity luncheon at Meadowbrook Country Club.

"Keeler Kool Kaper"
Given By Mothers Club

A demonstration on flower arranging will be the program for Keeler Mothers Club at 8 p.m., Wednesday, April 7, in the school gym.

Also featured will be a film, "Smoking—The Inside Story." This movie is being shown by the Michigan Cancer Foundation during April, which is National Cancer Month. Mrs. Edith Reid of the Wayne County Chapter will show the film and answer questions.

The floral demonstration will be presented by McClure Green-Gosses. After showing how to create floral designs, Mr. McClure will give the arrangements for door prizes.

Officers will be elected for the next school year by members of the Mothers' Club. Members who cannot attend the meeting can go absentee ballots from Jean Henegar, president.

Tickets for the "Keeler Kool Kaper," annual fun night will go on sale at the meeting. The tickets can be used for games or treats at the fair, which will be Friday evening, April 30. Admission sale price of the tickets is $2 for $1. The price at the door will be 10 cents each.

The fun night was named KKK, "Keeler Kool Kaper" by Michael Masek in a name-the-fair contest open to all Keeler students. Liz Ledford is chairman for the event.

Plymouth BP Women Meet In Ann Arbor
