

Give Madonna Students Top Prize for College Newspaper

Journalism students of Madonna College received an All-Illinois Collegiate Press. The award was based on the first semester work on the Madonna Herald; the campus newspaper.

Madonna last received an All-American award in 1958. The paper is in its 18th year of publication.

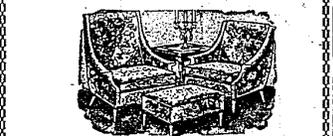

Betty Satawa and Diane Johnson, seniors, are co-editors. Staff members are Virginia Chapman and Anita Roggenbuck, seniors; Sister M. Kaleri, CSSF, junior; Laura Champagne, Noreen Haggerty, and Sandra Shackelford, sophomores and Maureen Fox and Susan Schachner, freshmen.

Laura is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Champagne, 33063 Perih; Maureen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fox, 15425 Levay. Both live in Livonia.

Sister M. Harold, CSSF, is the advisor. In awarding the honor, ACP Judge, R. E. Kober wrote, "... exceptional coverage and makeup. Excellent speech stories. Yours is a newspaper to be proud of. Your makeup is very well done and promises to make the Herald even better in the future."

The Herald recently underwent a modernization process. Modern types were omitted and new typographical devices introduced. Contents is now geared to student involvement in community and school activities.

ACP was established in 1933 by professional journalists. Members give advice, criticism and suggestions to college newspaper staffs. Of all the papers judged by ACP, 5 per cent are rated All-American.
