Charm Courses Starting At Wards May 12

"Wendy Ward Professional Workshop" begins on May 12 and consists of six, 1½-hour lessons for six consecutive Wednesday evenings from 7:00 to 8:30 p.m. This course is also open to Wendy Ward graduates on the same day from 5:30 to 7:00 p.m.

Because of its tremendous popularity, Montgomery Ward's "Charm Time for Teens," which originated in Livonia in 1962, laid the foundation for the nationwide "Wendy Ward" charm courses that are available in all parts of the country and through the Montgomery Ward mail-order catalog. S. D. Ward, District General Manager said that this new professional charm workshop is made possible because of the great response to previous specialized workshops for women in this area.

A unique part of this entire charm workshop is a complete individual charm analysis of each student at the very beginning of the course by Barbara Loren and Loretta Welley, the originators of "Wendy Ward."

This charm clinic will consist of the six following courses which will be taught by these outstanding Detroit area personalities: Poise and Personality Development, Lee Shepherd of WJBK-TV; Voice and Diction, Mr. Jim Wood of Jim Wood Productions, formerly of WJR; Television Techniques and Fashion Narration, Jackie Crampton, local television personality; Cosmetic Consultation and Application, Kitty Wagner, "Make-Up Artist of the Stars"; Advanced Modeling, Betty Weekly, professional model; and Hair Styling, Mr. Bart Edmund, well-known hair stylist of many Detroit area television personalities.

The "Wendy Ward Professional Workshop" is especially designed for the professional woman and for the woman in contact with people each day of her working life. Mr. Ward also said that classes are limited and information about enrollment can be obtained at any of the neighborhood Montgomery Ward department stores.

MR. AND MRS. GREGORY SOBCZAK prepared to leave St. Michael's Church following their wedding April 24. Mrs. Sobczak teaches fifth grade at St. Michael's School. Forty-three students attended the ceremony and they saw the newlyweds off. Waiting to enter the car also are matron of honor Frances Williams and best man Steve Sobczak.

MRS. HUGH ALEX EAKIN

Jean Sutton, Hugh Eakin Wed at Riverside Church

Wedding bells rang for Melba Jean Sutton and Hugh Alex Eakin on Saturday, April 17, when they were united in marriage by Rev. J. Clifford Thoe in the Riverside Park Church of God, Livonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther M. Sutton, Plymouth are the parents of the bride and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Eakin of Texas are the parents of the groom.

Standing before an altar banked with Easter lilies the bride wore a white floor length empire style gown of tulle and tulle covered with nylon organza. Her chapel length train was trimmed with lace applique and tiny pearls. Her veil, extending beyond the train, was held in place by a cluster of velvet flowers.

Nancy Smith of Plymouth was maid of honor, groomed in a pink empire style tulle. Miss Shary O'Brien of Plymouth was identicaly groomed as bridesmaid. Others attending were two candlelighters, Miss Connie Thor of Livonia and Miss Sherry Elton of Plymouth. David Armstrong, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Armstrong of Livonia was ring bearer and Susan McDowell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James McDowell of Garden City the flower girl.

Dean Richey of Texas was the best man with Martin Sutton seating the guests.

The wedding party greeted 100 guests in the church parlors following the ceremony.

After a motor trip to Ontario the newlyweds will be at home in Boulder, Colorado. The bride is a junior at North Texas State University and the groom will be a May graduate from North Texas State College.

JOAN MARIE LE BLANC

Mr. and Mrs. Hector L. LeBlanc of Farmington announce the engagement of their daughter, Joanne Marie, to Louis J. Urban. He is the son of Mrs. Cecelia W. Urban and the late Louis J. Urban of Detroit. The bride elect is a graduate of Our Lady of Sorrows High School, while her fiancé is currently attending the University of Detroit. An August 14 wedding is planned at Our Lady of Sorrows.

Garden C. Women Meet in Log Cabin

Talents Join for Women's Club Fashion Show

Joining the roster of famous personalities who will have a part in the charity benefit fashion show for the Educational Fund of the Federation of Women's Clubs of Detroit at Scottish Rite Auditorium, Masonic Temple, on May 20, is the foremost name in fashion show staging—Walter Hazeltine of New York.

His creative ideas are used in the most important fashion shows throughout the United States. Mrs. Alexander E. LaPointe, benefit chairman, said today.

Hazeltine stages five or more shows a year for DuPont. In addition, he has produced fashion shows for Vogue, Harper's Bazaar and Parents' magazine, and produces 12 shows a year for the New York fashion group.

Mrs. Frederick Bokelman, Redford Township, is ticket chairman. For further information call KE 3-5588.

The unusual show is being sponsored by Montgomery Ward, which is bringing 12 of the outstanding fashion authorities from Europe and America here to reveal the exclusive looks they have created for fall 1965.

First K Roundup

Johnson School will be holding its annual Kindergarten roundup on Wednesday, May 12. In order to facilitate registration and make the first exposure to Kindergarten a meaningful one, we have divided the Johnson attendance area into four sections, with sufficient time for each parent and youngster to receive full attention. Letters are being sent home giving times for parents to attend.

Registration, under the leadership of Mrs. Bernice Lindsay will take place in the gym. A filmstrip entitled, "Let's Go to Kindergarten" will be shown in Room 7.

Miss Battaglia and Miss Dixon, Kindergarten teachers, will be glad to talk with parents. In addition, Mrs. Laffler, Speech Consultant, and Mrs. Mark, Visiting Teacher, will be on hand to answer any questions parents may have.

Rogers PTA Hear School Candidates

Will Rogers P.T.A. of South Redford are showing an exceptional movie "Children With Our" at their meeting Tuesday, May 11. Also, at this time, they will be presenting candidates running for school board in the June election.

The meeting starts at 8:00 p.m. Refreshments will be served. The public is invited.

Students Attend Teacher's Wedding

A wedding is a big thing to any 10-year-old fifth grader. If the bride is the teacher it's a real red letter event.

Imagine the excitement of 42 fifth graders at St. Michael's School in Livonia when they were all invited to the church for the marriage of the teacher Karen Repath to Gregory Sobczak.

In fact the kids were so thrilled that they held their own party and reception for the bride the day before the ceremony. On April 23 the class surprised Miss Repath with a wedding cake and a gift.

They all turned out at St. Michael's Church on April 24 for the wedding and a gift.

The wedding and Nuptial Mass. The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Redpath of Livonia, was given in marriage by her father. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sobczak of Detroit.

For her marriage the bride wore gown of Italian lace and tulle. Matron of Honor, Frances Williams, wore a gown of pink satin. The bridesmaids, Sherry Resnick and Adrian Skowron, also wore pink satin gowns. Steve Sobczak served as his brother's best man. Ken Choike and Bob Hopper seated the party complete with a small wedding cake and a gift.
