

GROUND WAS BROKEN recently for the first unit of the new church building on West Ten Mile Rd. in Farmington. Participating in the ceremonies were from left:

Plymouth Date Set for Film 'Late Liz'

"The Late Liz", a motion picture produced by "The Parish of the Air" will be shown at St. John's Church in Plymouth at 7:30 p.m. May 19.

The public is invited to this showing at the church on South Sheldon Rd.

Methodist Village Sets Open House

Visitors to the Methodist Children's Village during its "Open House" May 16, 2 to 5 p.m., will have the unusual opportunity to see the inside of a "home for children."

Located at the corner of West Six Mile and Delaware in Redford Township, the picturesque English style buildings and cottages have attracted the attention of passers-by since 1929.

Open to the public will be the nine cottages in which children live, the Administration Building, the Children's Chapel, and Kresge Hall which contains two classrooms and recreational facilities.

Children's Village serves children and adolescents who, for various reasons, need special help with problems that have developed out of their home situations. The agency serves persons from any racial or religious group who can benefit from its program. The program includes social services, special education classes, religious education, arts and crafts, recreational activities, and camping.

Plymouth Church Completes First Year of Growth

This Sunday the congregation of the Lutheran Church of the Risen Christ in Plymouth will celebrate its first anniversary of its founding. It was on Pentecost Sunday, May 17, 1957, that a group of "church members" organized the congregation.

Two regular Sunday morning worship services will be held on May 18. The new hours for services are 8:30 and 11 a.m.

The congregation will gather May 10 at 9:30 p.m. for a First Anniversary Banquet at the Thunderbird Inn. Rev. David P. Rosenberg, pastor of the church, explained that the purpose of the dinner "is to celebrate the past and to plan for the future."

Don Lawrence of the Mission Board of the Missouri Synod of the Lutheran Church will speak on "Procedure for Construction" Master of Ceremonies will be Wallace Loucks.

The congregation plans to build a Chapel-Education building on a five and a half acre site at McClumba and Ann Arbor Rds.

St. John's Church is currently held in the Allen School at 9:45 a.m. under the direction of Dr. Roy C. Reising.

Seminar Slated

The Southfield Community Church is conducting a four week College Prep Seminar during the month of May. The sessions will be held at 8:45 a.m. Sundays and will include high school juniors and seniors and college students. Speakers are: Dr. Gordon VanVliet; Jack Cutting; Norman Geisler; and Dr. William BeVlew.

CONSECRATES NEW BUILDING

Five Days of Services at St. Matthew's Church

St. Matthew's Church of Livonia will consecrate its new church building May 16 at 4 p.m.

Bishop Marshall Reed of the Methodist Church will lead the consecration service. Bishop Reuben Mueller, president of the National Council of Churches, and Bishop of the Evangelical United Brethren Church, will speak.

The new building, constructed at a total cost of $450,000, provides facilities for worship, fellowship, Sunday School and administrative offices. The sanctuary seats 550 in the nave and up to 70 choir members in the chancel. The Fellowship Room seats 360 for banquets and 440 for programs. Twenty areas are provided for Sunday School classes and the offices and

Clothes Drive

The Universal Unitarian Church of Farmington has long worked to raise needed items for the teen-age patients of Northville State Hospital. Now that the season is changing there is a need for lighter weight clothing.

Present needs are: toilet articles - soap, lipstick, perfume and hair spray; grooming articles - shoe polish, and combs; underclothing - slips, ball-slips, bras, hose, shorts, t-shirts, and socks; and outer garments - dresses, blouses, skirts, sweaters, and lightweight coats. Also there is a need for some costume jewelry. If you wish to help, contact the Church.

Ten Confirmed

Sunday, May 2, was Confirmation Day for 10 young people of St. John's Lutheran Church in Farmington. In the tradition of the Lutheran faith, this marks the completion of an extended period of formal catechetical instruction, and makes the confirmands communicant members of the church.

Class Day was celebrated April 25 when the class was formally introduced to the congregation. The 10 youngsters will be guests of honor at a special reception given by the Church Council, May 16. The Luther League honored the class on May 9.

oldest Church in December, 1952. Laymen's night is the special feature of Friday's program beginning at 7:30 p.m. Members of the congregation will participate in the program and church workers and leaders are invited to sit in groups during the service.

Bishop Mueller, Bishop Reed pastor and currently Director of Christian Education and Program, for the Michigan Conference of the EUB Church, will speak Friday, John Newberg, a member of the congregation currently studying at Union Theological Seminary in Dayton, Ohio, will be present to greet the group.

Following the community open house Saturday afternoon, members and friends of the church will attend a potluck dinner at 6:30 p.m. After the dinner slides will be shown of the building during the various construction stages.

A cornerstone laying ceremony will take place at 7:30 p.m. Terre Schott, a member of the congregation now studying for the ministry at North Central College in Naperville, Illinois, will lead the responsive reading and read the passages from Scripture. Rev. Newell Liesemer and Benjamin Holme and Pastors John Grenfell and John Lange will participate. The stone will be placed by Leo J. Vandervennet, Jr.

Bishop Reed will preach at the 8:30 and 11 a.m. services May 16.

Other dignitaries who will participate in the consecration service are: Rev. Herbert Hauser, Detroit District superintendent of the Methodist EUB conference; Rev. Benjamin Holme, executive secretary of the Methodist Union of Greater Detroit; Rev. Arthur Beumler, president of the Livonia Ministerial Association; William Lindholm, architect of the building; Maurice Rogers, co-chairman of the building committee; and Allen Newman, chairman of the Board of Trustees of St. Matthew's.

The Commission on Worship has arranged the consecration services and activities. Arthur Mide is chairman of the commission. Rev. Pike, director of music, has planned the music for the services.
