MR. AND MRS. JERRY LEE HELMER

Lidgard-Helmer United In Marriage

Wedding vows were exchanged between Ruthann Lidgard and Jerry Lee Helmer on Saturday, April 10. Rev. Sherman T. Richards of St. Luke's Methodist Church officiated at the 7:30 service in Newburg Methodist Church in Livonia. Accompanied by Mrs. W. Nelson, Notaries Quater Bernard Smith, John Zimnikas, Robert Marshall and Gordon Limburg, brother-in-law of the bride, sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because."

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lidgard, Morgan Avenue in Plymouth and the groom is the son of Mrs. Ethel Willmore and Mr. Glen Helmer both of Plymouth.

A white Chantilly lace over taffeta set off the dark beauty of the bride. The gown was fashioned with a scoop neckline, full chapel train. An illusion veil applied with lace was held in place by a pearl tiara. Her veil was the same as the one worn by her two sisters. Her flowers were orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Carroll Sue Urban was maid of honor in a floor length sheath of petal pink. Her head-dress was a pink bow and illusion veil. Her flowers were pink and white sweetheart roses.

Miss Karen Dickerson was identically gowned as bridesmaid. Julie Marie Guy, niece of bride, as flower girl was a miniature of the other attendants. She carried a basket of pink rose petals and was escorted by John Robert Guy, nephew of the bride, who served ring bearer.

Allan Eddy Thompson was best man with Paul Guy, brother-in-law of the bride, Willard Thompson, Robert Rowe seating the guests.
