- A visitation program by the Deacons which will "not only be designed to present a definite plan for new space, better use of existing space, landscaping of property, and a master plan for property use; and

Stating that the goals are "minimal," William E. Nelson, pastor of Emmanuel asserts that they are necessary in order to be a church with a ministry here in Livonia.

AT ST. GENEVIEVE'S

Pastor Honored on Anniversary

More than 800 friends and members of St. Genevieve's Roman Catholic parish in Livonia gathered at Roma Hall last Sunday to honor Fr. Ferdinand T. Wolber.

Fr. Wolber, 51, pastor of St. Genevieve's, was celebrating the 25th anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood.

An ex-Army and national guard chaplain, Fr. Wolber founded the parish of St. Genevieve on June 26, 1939.

"The land was filled with trees then," he recalled last week. Today St. Genevieve's complex of buildings on Jamison includes a church, a 12 classroom school, a convent and a rectory.

The parish, which includes the area from Inkster west to Merriman Rd. and from the C&O Railroad tracks north to Six Mile Rd., is composed of 1200 families.

Fr. Robert Kerr is the assistant pastor, while Fr. John Tresse, from the Catholic Charities Service in Detroit, assists on the weekends.

Three hundred and five children attend the parish school in grades one through four. They are taught by five teaching Felician Sisters and two lay teachers. Next September, when the fifth grade opens up, the enrollment will top 400.

In addition to providing schooling for these youngsters, the relatively new parish has 610 students in its elementary Confraternity of Christian Doctrine program;

200 in the high school division and 215 four and five year olds attending the preschool division.

This preschool CCD program is something new to Catholic Churches in the area. During the Sunday morning classes the pre-schoolers are introduced to the beginnings of the catechism.

The temporary church was blessed by the Most Rev. John F. Dearden, Archbishop of Detroit, on August 6, 1960. The rectory was also opened at that time.

Prior to the opening of the church, parishioners of St. Genevieve's attended Mass at Reilly Junior High School.

The congregation was forced to move to Reilly for additional space from the Harrison School on August 5, 1960, just four weeks after the first Sunday Mass.

St. Genevieve's School opened its doors in 1963.

Fr. Wolber entered the Army as a First Lieutenant during World War II. He served in the Philippines and Japan. Following his discharge he served as a chaplain in the National Guard for 14 years. When he left the service he held the rank of major.

Prior to founding St. Genevieve's Fr. Wolber, a native of Detroit, served as an assistant at Naivert, St. Monica's and St. Edward's in Detroit and at St. Clement's in Centerville.
