Auditions Scheduled

Auditions for the Livonia Youth Symphony Orchestra, grades 7 through 12, and the Junior Orchestra of Livonia, grades 7 to 9, are being held May 29 and June 5, 9 a.m. to 12 noon at Bentley High School, 15100 Hubbard Rd., Livonia. Students accepted will begin rehearsals in September. To qualify for an orchestra audition, the student should be a member of his or her school orchestra or band, and have the recommendation of the school music director. Auditions will determine musical ability and placement in either orchestra. The Livonia Youth Symphony Orchestra is an orchestra composed of young musicians of high school or college age capable of performing complete symphonies. The Junior Orchestra of Livonia is an orchestra of musically talented young people of junior high school age capable of playing advanced orchestral arrangements. The orchestra repertoire includes major compositions of the world's greatest music performed with great solo artists and outstanding choral groups. Each year the Livonia Youth Symphony Society awards scholarships to orchestra members of outstanding ability to attend summer camps and schools or to study with recognized artists and teachers in the metropolitan area. Appointments for auditions may be made by calling Mrs. A. 1-8236, PA 1-8817, or 425-1165.

JAMES BREAD, the "un-private detective," the double bill of "Doctor No" and "From Russia With Love." James Bread will play one of the roles in the first 250 "case" the layout. To assist his cohort, James Bread, Secret Agent 007, Bread will be at the Terrace for the matinee next Saturday (May 29) and Sunday (May 30) for the showing of

Dog Show Scheduled

The Detroit Cocker Spaniel Club will hold a puppy show at the Rose Lynn Kennel, 34073 Schoolcraft, Livonia, on June 6 at 1 p.m. George Bummerlister will be judge and entries will be accepted to the time of the show. There is a $1 entry fee for the first puppy and 50 cents for each additional. R. Lorenz, GA 7-2427, has further information.

St. Dunstan's Slates Fair This Weekend

Final plans for the Annual Spring Fair at St. Dunstan's in Garden City have been announced. It will be held May 28, 29, 30 and 31 on Inkster Rd., just south of Ford Rd. The fair opens May 29 at 6 p.m. with a fish fry. Perch and shrimp dinners will be available on an eat in or carry out basis. The fair closes Friday at 10 p.m. Saturday opens with a roast beef dinner at 12 noon and Sunday the dinner will be served at 1:30 p.m. The dinner includes roast beef, mashed potatoes, gravy, corn, cole slaw, rolls and coffee. A family style spaghetti dinner will be served Monday at 12 noon. At 9 p.m., Monday the fair will conclude with a drawing. There will be rides, games and refreshments featured throughout the weekend. An art show will be sponsored in conjunction with the Fair. Art works of both amateur and professional standing will be displayed in St. Dunstan's School on Inkster, south of Ford Rd. About 150 paintings from Mrs. Hickory's art collection as well as those of several Detroit area professional artists will be offered for sale. Hours for the exhibit are: May 28, 7 to 10 p.m.; and 10 to 10 p.m., May 29 through 31. Acceptance of the crippled is more than just words—it is action, according to the Easter Seal Society. 5th Sensational Week The Three Lads rock 'n' roll music TWIST • WATUSI Every Friday & Sat.
