

Township Residents Ordination Slated

The Rev. Leo T. Lukko, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo S. Lukko of 14910 Knoch, Redford Township, will be ordained as a member of the Roman Catholic Diocese on June 5 at Blessed Sacrament Cathedral, Detroit.

The Most Rev. John F. Dearden, D.D., Archbishop of Detroit, will confer the Sacrament of Holy Orders.

Fr. Lukko will offer his First Solemn High Mass at St. Valentine's Church in the Township on June 6.

His parents will present to him the Chalice which will be used for the time in offering the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

The Mass is the central act of worship of Catholicism and a Solemn High Mass is said by three priests—the celebrant, the deacon and the subdeacon.

Fr. Lukko will be the celebrant at the Mass. Fr. Francis Wabowski, a friend of the family, will serve as deacon and Fr. Frederick A. Bodde, formerly of St. Valentine's, will be the sub-deacon. Fr. Kenneth MacLennan, a professor at Sacred Heart Seminary, will preach the sermon.

Four-year-old Debbie Lukko, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lukko of Wayne and niece of Fr. Lukko, will carry the pall on a satin pillow which she will present to her uncle at the Mass.

The pall, which is a decorative linen cloth used for covering the chalice, is the property of Fr. Lukko's sister, Sister Mary Clare, a member of the Felician Sisters Congregation. Sr. Clare is currently attending Madonna College.

The two other excited family members are three-year-old David and one-year-old

Strawberry Festival Set For June 10

An old fashioned Strawberry Festival complete with ice cream and strawberries will be held June 10 at the Northwest Branch of the YWCA.

The festival will begin at 7 a.m.

Music will be provided by the Lola Valley and Pearson Junior High School Bands under the direction of Datus Moore. The International Fiddlers' Convention, directed by Kathryn Stave, will also perform.

To add a bit of nostalgia the BYWCA Serenaders led by Mable Bruffa will sing those tunes "so mellow."

For further information call KE 7-8500.

Galilean Baptist Burns Mortgage

During a special ceremony last Sunday the Galilean Baptist Church burned a five year $25,000 mortgage and a portion of its present building.

Herbert Noe, pastor of the congregation of about 400, explained that the present property and building are valued at about $100,000.

Plans now call for the addition to the present structure which will include an auditorium, additional Sunday School classrooms, and office space.

The church, which was established 12 years ago, has occupied its present location on West Seven Mile Rd. for eight years.

The proposed auditorium will seat between 2,700 and 2,800. The present chapel seats 350.

Sacred Music Concert Set

A concert of sacred music will be presented at Grace Lutheran Church at 4 p.m. June 6.

The 40 voice mixed Senior Choir will present a program of outstanding anthems performed during regular church services in the past year.

The Junior Choir, a 40 voice group of children, will perform as a two and three part choir and do two special anthems with the Senior choir.

Alan Meeker, choristmaster of Grace Lutheran Church, will direct the concert with Mrs. Evelyn Bruggman accompanying on the organ.

St. Dunstan's Begins

St. Dunstan's Roman Catholic Parish in Garden City broke ground for a $155,000 convent last Sunday.

The new building, which will house 12 teaching nuns and a guest, is the third milestone in the development of St. Dunstan's which was established June 21, 1958.

Rev. Leonard A. Maholski, pastor of the parish, dug the first shovel of dirt. He was followed by Sister Mary Ephrem, CSSF, superior of the St. Dunstan nuns, Sam Russo, chairman of the development program, also turned a shovel.

Construction of the convent, designed by Joseph St. Cyr and Associates of Livonia, was begun June 1. A chapel will be constructed adjacent to the convent. Deegenhart and Daly are the general contractors.

St. Dunstan's currently operates a 12 classroom school which was opened in September, 1963.

Trinity Church Sets Dedication

The congregation, as well as the new sanctuary and newly remodelled education unit of the Trinity Church of the Brethren in Redford Township will be dedicated June 6.

A service of congregational dedication will be held at the 11 a.m. worship hour. Rev. Dr. Harpers S. Will, pastor of the Trinity Church, will speak on "This Disciplined Life."

Assisting in the service will be the Rev. Paul Hoffman, a former pastor of Trinity, and Miss Lillian Good, the first parish worker at Trinity.

At the 3 p.m. service of Building Dedication Dr. Will will speak on the topic "Why We Build Churches."

The Sanctuary Choir, under the direction of Robert P. Stoner, will provide special music for both services. David Butler, a 1964 Thurston graduate who now attends Manchester College, will be the soloist.

Fr. Lukko will receive his first assignment from the Archdiocese of Detroit in about two weeks.

Christ The King Schedules Old Testament Night

The three choirs of Christ The King Lutheran Church in Livonia will present an Old Testament Night Friday, June 4 at 7:30 p.m.

Featured on the program will be hymns, organ music and anthems, all based on Old Testament subjects.

The senior choir will sing anthems based on Biblical passages from Exodus and Ruth. Also featured will be a musical play based on the story of Noah's Ark, presented by the junior and youth choirs.

Mrs. Anna Weidner will direct the play. Beverly Bettaso is in charge of the choreography and Deanna Nash will serve as narrator. Diane Heger, director of music at the church, will serve as organist and director of the senior choir.

The building, which is expected to be completed this year, was designed by William Lindquist. The additional facilities are being constructed to accommodate the rapid growth in Ward's membership.

Alan Meeker, choristmaster of Grace Lutheran Church, will direct the concert with Mrs. Evelyn Bruggman accompanying on the organ.

NEWSLETTERS STATE VIEWS: Pastors Comment on Churchgoers

Two newsletters from areas churches contain pastors' comments about the role or lack of the layman in the church. They are noteworthy because they are indicative of a trend.

The first item comes from Glenn Wegmeyer, pastor of the Timothy Lutheran Church in Livonia. He tells the story: "Ruth came home from her first visit to church with a sack of candy."

"Why, Ruth, where did you get the candy?" asked her mother.

"I bought it with the nickel you gave me," she said. The minister met me at the door and got me in for nothing."

"Today I will make the point that Ruth got in church for nothing," comments

Another observation comes from Max Copeland, minister of the Memorial Church of Christ in Redford Township. In a selection in his corner that he signed "copied," he puts forth the following views:

"Many church members have reached the conclusion that for them one Sunday service is enough. Their conviction is also steadfast that the minister should preach on Sunday evening."

"We must keep the church open," cry the stay-at-homes. When is a church open? When the doors are unbarred and the lights turned on? No! When a church keeps open house it must be present to welcome the guests. An open church means a church with Christians in it ready to welcome all comers.

"The world cares nothing for empty church buildings. Without people in them they are as cold as refrigerators and as depressing as sepulchers. A dwindling and deserted church service is one of the deadliest of all crimes of faith."

"To suppose that the unconverted are going to rush into church buildings left vacant by the very men who profess to believe that 'Jesus Saves' is to
