SPORTS PUTTING ONE WORD AFTER ANOTHER:

OBSERVING

No comments on the Cassius Clay-Sonny Liston pre-entation a week ago. We didn't see what went on in

However, our good friend Jerry Green of The De-troit News, who was in Lewiston, told us that Clay threw a great punch and there was nothing messy about what

Had the pleasure of lunching with Johnny Keane, the manager of the fading New York Yankees. Nicer guys you won't find.

Not once did Keane alibi that injuries to Mickey Mantle, Roger Maris and Elston Howard might have something to do with the lowly standing of the Yankees.

If the sports writers were to pick "The Top Man-ager" in the majors for April and May, they'd have to vote for Bob Swift, who this week was slated to turn back the bossing duties of the Tigers to Charley Dressen. One thing you can bet: Swift will be named a full time manager next season. If not by the Tigers, they'll have to give him a chance to go elsewhere. This we doubt.

Halfback Les Vasquez of Garden City East High's 1964 football champs is heading for the University of Indiana. Quarterback Dan Ewoles of East is going to Vanderbilt while Joe Pomkacz, another East back, will enroll at North Dakota State.

Coach Dick Wilson also reports that End Pete Wysocki has picked William and Mary; End Ken Hasson will enter the Air Academy, Tackie Walt Graham to Tampa and Tackie Dan Bradley to Miami of Florida.

Collins was St. Agatha's standout quarterback in football, a star scorer in basketball and the hero of St. Agatha's first divisional baseball championship

On the diamond he pitched six of St. Agatha's seven victories and wound up with a neat .500 average at the plate.

If you're looking for a place to go this weekend, may we suggest (1) the finals of the Livonia Invitational baseball tournament, at Ford Field Saturday evening or (2) the trotting races at the Wolverine Raceway.

Speaking of the trotters, we showed our better half how to pick 'em the other night. We looked down the field in the fourth race, spotted a name we liked and wagered a couple bucks.

The horse took the lead early, stayed in front all the way... and gave us a chance to pocket something like $13.50. By the time the evening was over, we had failed our other selections and went home all square—financially.

The city of Plymouth will play host to the annual state Junior Chamber of Commerce tennis tournament on the high school courts, June 24-27.

Coach Jim Stevens of the regional championship Plymouth High tennis team will direct the tournament which is expected to attract more than 150 entrants.

Boys and girls will contest in the meet. There'll be two divisions for the males and females—one group for 18 years olds and under, the other for those under 16.

The Plymouth Jaycees will send the champion and runnerup in each class—eight performers in all—to the national championship meet in Houston later in the summer.

A special clinic, to be conducted by Bill Murphy, varsity net coach at the University of Michigan, will precede the start of the tourney proper.

Youngsters interested in participating should contact Stevens at the Plymouth high school.
