

IN CLARENCEVILLE:
Gerald Litwin to Study in Holland Under AFS Grant

Word from the national headquarters of the American Field Service has reached Clarenceville to announce that Gerald Litwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Litwin of 20224 Woyner, Livonia had been selected to study in The Netherlands this summer.

Gerald will leave Livonia at the end of the school year, and spend the summer living and learning with students of The Netherlands. This trip is a part of the Amer-

U.D. Honors Given Two in Livonia, Redford

Area residents Nikki Ann Gedson and Kelly D. Burke were honored at the recently held University of Detroit College of Arts and Science Honors Convocation.

Miss Gedson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bartol Gedson of 13876 Woodbine, Redford Township, is the 1965 recipient of the Sigma Sigma Sigma Award, and the Gamma Pi Epsilon Certificate, both awarded for outstanding achievement in studies. A 1962 graduate of Lee M. Thurston High School, she is a junior mathematics major.

Kelly D. Burke, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Burke of 22116 Floral, Farmington, received an Interpretive Reading Award for outstanding achievement at the state-wide Individual Events Tournament. Burke, a 1964 graduate of Our Lady of Sorrows High School, is a freshman radio-TV major and has participated in productions of the U. of D. Repertory Theatre.

Square Dancers Mark Birthday of Livonia Barn

The dates of June 15-18 are of special importance to all square dancers. At this time Sam Clark and Modern Squares Barn on West Seven Mile in Livonia celebrate 25 years of square dancing. To highlight Anniversary Week, special dances will be held every night.

Sunday, June 13, Ed Fradenburgh will be host with Bill Gracey, Vern Smith and Chuck Dillenbeck assisting at the mike to kick-off Anniversary Week.

Monday will be Special Guest Night with Dub Ferry at the mike for the squares and Mel and Agnes Taylor with the rounds.

Appointed to College Post

Frank Paone, Dean of the Detroit College of Business, and Clarenceville, has announced the appointment of James Boswell of 9610 Deering Street, Livonia, as Chairman of the University of Management. Mr. Boswell will join the staff as an Assistant Professor in September, 1965.

The new appointee holds a Bachelor of Philosophy degree from the University of Chicago, 1949; and an MBA, major in management, from Wayne State University, 1946. He has taught at the Detroit Institute of Technology, and is currently seeking election to the Board of Trustees of Schoolcraft Community College. He is a member of Sigma Iota Epsilon, the national honorary management fraternity.

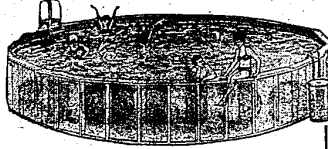

'Baccalaureate' Set at Franklin

Seniors of the class of 1965 at Franklin High School will begin a busy final week of high school activity on Sunday, June 13, at 8:00 p.m. in the gymnasium as they participate in "Baccalaureate," a traditional evening in the graduation ceremonies.

Highlighting the evening will be an address by Reverend Richard C. Dunsberger of the United Presbyterian Church, Rosedale Gardens. Reverend Paul I. Greer, of the Newburg Methodist Church, will offer the invocation and benediction. Organ music for the program will be offered by Klair Kiesel, Franklin librarian. In addition to many classical selections during the prelude and postlude, Mr. Kiesel will play for the professional of robed soloists, "Trumpets Tune and Voluntary" by Purcell. For the recessional, he will play "Soldiers' Chorus from Faust."

The Bel Canto choir, under the direction of William Hall, member of the Franklin music department, will sing "May the Lord Bless You and Keep You."
