

MRS. RALPH DAVID NELSON

West-Nelson Rites Held in Plymouth

The First Methodist Church of Plymouth was the setting for the June 12 marriage of Martha Jane West to Ralph David Nelson. Rev. Hugh White and Rev. Melbourne I. Johnson performed the candlelight service.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. West of Plymouth are the parents of the bride, while the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph D. Nelson of Milford, Iowa.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a traditional gown of Chantilly lace over net and taffeta. She carried a cascade of white roses, stephanotis and ivy.

Nancy North of Plymouth served as maid of honor. Mrs. William Brown and Mrs. Herbert Wallace, sisters of the bride, were bridesmaids. They wore floor length shell pink rayon taffeta with brocade jackets. The bridesmaids wore circlets of matching brocade. They carried cascades of pink sweetheart roses.

CONSTANCE MARY HORNER

Mr. and Mrs. James McDonnell Horner of Brady, Redford Township, announce the engagement and coming marriage, August 28, of their daughter, Constance Mary Horner, to Charles Wayne Powell. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Powell, Livonia. The bride-to-be graduated from Redford Union High School and her fiancé is presently employed by Sun Control Company, Southfield. Miss Horner is manager of G.E.M. Beauty Salon, Livonia. Their wedding will be in Redford Baptist Church, Redford Township, in a late afternoon ceremony.

How each individual discovers the "kingdom of heaven" is the underlying theme of a Bible Lesson on "Christian Science," which will be read at Christian Science churches on Sunday.

Martin-Luethold Vows Exchanged

Elizabeth Luethold became the bride of Dennis Jay Martin Saturday in St. John's Church, Fenton, Michigan. The bride wore an empire gown of peau de sole with an A-line skirt appliqued with imported French lace. The chapel train was attached by a cabbage rose. Her bouquet imported illusion veil fell from pearl and crystal orange blossoms.

The former Miss Luethold is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin R. Luethold of Fenton, Michigan. Mr. Martin is the son of Mrs. Lillian Martin of Dearborn and Mr. Donald F. Martin of Quail Hollow Drive, Farmington, Michigan.

The bride's cousin, Hedwig Schall of Cincinnati, Ohio, was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Helen Griggs of Arlington, Virginia; Margaret Sassaman of Charlotte, Michigan, and Marion Bolko of Garfield, New Jersey.

To compliment the lines of the bridal gown, they wore forest green linen empire gowns embellished with bright pink roses. Their headpieces were roses and green silk leaves. They carried baskets of pink flowers accented with ivy. Andrew Picard of Dearborn was best man. Ushers included Clarence Natkowski of Dearborn, Norman Averil of East Lansing and James Baldwin of Williamston. David Brewer of Fenton was tenor soloist.

A wedding dinner and reception was held at the V.F.W. Hall. Guests included the bride's brother, Mr. Albert Luethold and his family from Montclair, California.

Miss Theresa Schall, the bride's aunt was also present from Hamburg, Germany.

The new Mrs. Martin is a June graduate of Michigan State University, having received her degree in Speech and Hearing Science.

Mr. Martin, also of Michigan State, will complete an apprenticeship this summer with Foote, Cone and Belding Advertising Agency in Chicago, Illinois. There, the couple will reside following a wedding trip through Northern Michigan and Canada.

The only man who really strikes it lucky is the one who strikes out for himself.
