

HARVEY GOLDBERG of Hart's in Farmington was chairman of a fashion show which featured the fashions of yesteryear as contrasted with the streamlined fashions of today. Members of the Farmington Players modeled the outfits. (far left) What the well dressed woman used to wear for traveling, Mrs. George Miller models the dainty dove-grey trimmed with French jet-

Observer Newspapers Plan Publicity Writing Workshop

Have you elected or selected the Publicity Chairman for your organization in 1965? If so, are you familiar with the proficient way to write a news release to best represent your group? Do you know the five W's in writing a release, the do's and don'ts newspaper editors look for?

In an effort to take an interest in your group, to best publicize coming events as well as make your job easier (we confess), The Observer Newspapers is having a workshop for all of those interested in learning how to write a concise, interesting news release.

There will be a dollar registration fee to cover the cost of the printed material we will give you. There will be professional people present to assist you in the various phases of news release, pictures, promotions for your organization.

The workshop will be Thursday, Sept. 9, place to be announced. There will be two sessions. One at noon until 3:30 p.m. and the other at 8 p.m. to 10:30. Coffee and doughnuts will be served at each session. If you are interested in registering please fill out coupon below and you will be notified by mail, as a reminder, with the address of where the workshop will be. DO NOT SEND DOLLAR with registration. The dollar will be collected at the workshop when you receive your printed material. This workshop is for men and women.

Two year old Bethnie Ann Rice died July 25 at her home in Clio.

Bethnie was afflicted with a rare disease, melanochromia

It has been a privilege for each of us to share with him one of Michigan's towering efforts in behalf of our mentally ill.

Subsequently Dr. J. J. Miller, the hospital's Clinical Director, presented to the honored three a 20 gauge shotgun. This

Northville's Dr. Brown Retires

Northville State Hospital's Wannu Thomas, 9690 Hemming, "A" Building Cafeteria was the setting, Thursday, July 8 for the gathering of over 300 employees, professional friends, and volunteers, who honored the retirement of Dr. Philip N. Brown, as the hospital's Medical Superintendent.

During the buffet dinner, Charles Wagg of Lansing, former Executive Secretary of the State Mental Health Commission and presently a consultant to the State Mental Health Department, served as toastmaster, while Dr. Robert A. Kimmich, the hospital's Medical Director, represented Governor George A. Romney.

Dr. O. R. Yoder, former Superintendent of Ypsilanti State Hospital, was the main speaker. He could speak with authority about Dr. Brown's many years of service to the State Mental Health program for Dr. Brown had served on the staff of the Ypsilanti facility, for 18 years before he was named superintendent of Northville State Hospital in December of 1950.

King-Cresmen Wed' In Wedding at Home

Dressed in a gown of white tulle, Judy Elinor King, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harley Brown, of Livonia, exchanged marriage vows on Saturday, July 10 at 3:30 p.m. with Billy Wayne Cresmen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl B. Cresmen, also of Livonia at the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses on Sheldon Road in Plymouth.

The bride's mother chose a white and aqua flowered dress for her daughter's wedding. Her corsage was composed of red rose buds. Billy's mother wore blue lace. Her corsage was also of red-rose buds.

About 150 guests attended the reception at the Grange Hall in Plymouth. They were from Plymouth, Northville, Livonia, Lincoln Park, Ypsilanti, Ann Arbor, and Newberry.

The new Mrs. Cresmen wore a navy dotted swiss, two-piece suit for her going away costume for their honeymoon trip in the Upper Peninsula. They will return to Plymouth to make their home.

Both attended schools in Livonia, Judy at Franklin High School and Billy graduated with the class of 1962 from Bentley

Rare Disease Claims Life of Bethnie Rice

BETHNIE ANN Rice, two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gorte, of 33935 Hathaway, Livonia, wanted to thank all the area residents who responded to that plea.

"The response to the call was terrific," said Mrs. Gorte. "The cards helped to make Bethnie Ann's last months more pleasant, easier and easier for her family."

Two brothers of Bethnie Ann had preceded her in death, caused by the same disease.

"The Rice's have two other sons, Daniel, 6, and Burth, 17 months.

Camp Fire Girls News

Attention girls who will be entering the fourth grade next fall in the Lincoln School area.

Mrs. Nancy Tuttle is forming a new Camp Fire group and can take a few more girls. Anyone interested in the group may call her at GA 7-0203.

Grant School will need leaders for one Blue Bird group and one Camp Fire group. Anyone who would be interested in helping these girls please contact Mrs. LaVonne Johnson at GA 1-4022.

Mrs. Tuttle is a former Camp Fire Girl, who has two pre-schoolers but not girls of Camp Fire age, so you can see it is not necessary to have a daughter in a group in order to be a leader.

If you have a Camp Fire Girl, if all your children are boys, or if you have time on your hands and would like to do something that is satisfying and fun, volunteer as a Camp Fire leader.

KATHLEEN ANN KUDRICK

Kathleen Kudrick, wife of the late Andrew Kudrick of Farmington, announces the engagement of her daughter, Kathy Anne, to Alfred Karl-Wilhelm Klesz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Klesz of Detroit.

The bride-elect, a 1964 graduate of North Farmington High, attended the Detroit College of Business, and is now helping her mother manage the Greenwich Village Cleaners in Southfield. Her fiance, a 1960 graduate of Cooley High, is a senior at the Detroit College of Business.

The wedding will take place at 11 a.m. on Sept. 4 at St. Colman Catholic Church.

God's Influence Topic The subject is "Spirit" and the responsive reading will include this statement from Paul's first letter to the Corinthians: "The manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit church services this Sunday."
