

State Fair Lists Full Program for Annual 10-Day Run

"Come early and stay all day," Michigan State Fair officials are urging the public this year.

There's so much to see and do at this year's State Fair that the visitor could return every day and never run out of fun and excitement. The fair opens Friday evening, August 27, and runs through Labor Day, September 6.

As always, agriculture and industry will be well represented at the fair.

The state's farmers will be competing with their best livestock and crops. Automotive and other industries will have extensive exhibits.

In the Community Arts Field (it was called Home Arts until this year), there'll be prize-winning exhibits of canning, baking, needlework, hobbys, fine arts plus a Food Show and Fashion Show.

And while the men are looking over the animals and watching the judging, the women will have an opportunity to see cooking and other demonstrations in the new Community Arts Building.

Entertainment, as always, will be big at this year's fair. Music Shell shows will star the Serendipity Singers and the NBC television "Hullabaloo" dancers with special guest stars The Four Tops, Lesley Gore, Johnny Rivers and Tony Clarke from Friday, August 27, through Wednesday, September 1.

From Thursday, September 2, through Labor Day, September 6, the Music Shell shows will have The Supremes, the singing group which has made "The Detroit Sound" internationally famous, and ballad singer Jack Jones with the Jimmy Wilkins Orchestra.

An Honorary Band, made up of the top high school musicians in the state, will play concerts in the Music Shell Friday through Sunday, September 3-5. Guest soloist will be trumpeter Carl (Doc) Severinsen, assistant director of the TV Sketch Henderson Orchestra.

In front of the grandstand, meanwhile, the Barnes and Caruthers Circus will perform three shows daily from Saturday, August 28, through Friday, September 3.

All of these entertainment features are free to State Fair visitors.

The Jole Chitwood Thrill Show, with daredevil drivers, will perform in front of the grandstand Saturday through Monday, September 4-6. Auto races are scheduled on Sunday and Monday. These are extra-charge events.

Other entertainment highlights of the fair will be strolling musicians throughout the grounds; shows in the Coliseum featuring acts from theatrical and dance schools; round and square dancing in the Old Timers' Grove; Avenue A-Go-Go with music and features for the teen-age set; children's contests and features such as the TV Fun Circus; and, of course, all the fun and excitement of the shows and rides on the Gay Midway.

In the Coliseum, 15 free horse shows are scheduled, with beautiful Appaloosas, giant Shetlands and Percherons, Arabians and Morgans, and a host of ponies stepping through their paces. The Detroit Mounted Police will perform at each horse show except on Labor Day.

It all adds up as the biggest entertainment bargain of the year, with gate admission of $1.25 and children under 12 free when accompanied by adults.

Here's the schedule of special days at the fair:

FRIDAY, AUG. 27—Grand Opening Day, with downtown Detroit parade at 8 p.m., ribbon-cutting at the Fairgrounds at 6 p.m.
