

League of Women Voters Saluted This Week!

If You Should Ever Remark to a Friend That...

- there is a League of Women Voters in Livonia
 - one in Farmington
 - a branch in 35 other Michigan communities
 - as well as Leagues in every State of the Union
 - and if you friend should happen to say, "So what?"
 - Please be patient.
- Perhaps he thinks that League members are just leftover Suffragettes packing formidable names like Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Carrie Chapman Catt. Tell him, no, no, you're 45 years behind. Tell him the League started after women got the vote and that League members work to shed light on issues and candidates so that the vote (both women's and men's) will be well informed. You could do worse than to casually mention that the League is a non-profit, volunteer organization whose purpose is to PROMOTE POLITICAL RESPONSIBILITY THROUGH INFORMED AND ACTIVE PARTICIPATION OF CITIZENS IN GOVERNMENT, and that the League has many Republicans, many Democrats, and that as a group the League is strictly nonpartisan. The League never supports candidates or parties and takes positions on issues only after careful study and consensus of membership.

They Run a Fact Factory

THEY RUN A FACT FACTORY — Before elections the Livonia League prepares, and in cooperation with the Observer Newspapers, publishes a Voters Guide giving information concerning candidates, and pros and cons of ballot issues. The Farmington League, organized in 1964, is still provisional, and until it is a fully recognized League it is prohibited from local Voter Service activity.

Gubernatorial candidate Neil Staebler, Congressman Billie Farnum and the late State Senator-Elect Paul M. Chandler are typical of candidates for office who have appeared on League platforms.

They Stimulate Thinking

"Why I Chose My Political Party" is a program organized by the Livonia LWV and offered to interested groups. Its purpose is to stimulate people to be politically active. The format includes short speeches by a prominent Republican and a prominent Democrat. Carol Prevoux learns "There is a Difference."

They Welcome New Voters

Glenn Allen, Sue Orrin, Ellen LaRue and Neil Staebler enjoy birthday cake at a Livonia LWV Coming-of-Age party designed to encourage 21-year-olds to use their voting privilege. The party was financed by the Livonia National Bank (then the Bank of Livonia).

LWV gives parties for new voters; for instance, the Coming-of-Age party given by the Livonia LWV in June, 1964. The LWV also conducts registration drives. The Livonia League during 1964-65 participated in two voter registration drives which registered approximately 3,000 Livonia citizens. The Livonia LWV's program, "Why I Chose My Political Party" and speakers in other areas of LWV interest are available. Call Mrs. Roger Winship, GA 2-1917. These "Watchdogs in High Heels" send observers to Livonia City Council and School Board meetings. They keep track of public affairs and alert the public to matters that need public attention.

If You Are...

a 21-year-old, or older (if you'll admit it) female citizen, won't you join the LWV? In Farmington contact Membership Chairman Mrs. Werner Jean, 476-0252; in Livonia call Mrs. William Taylor, GA 2-0933. Residents of nearby Leagueless communities are welcome. If you are any age, either male or female, citizen or not, and would like to support this democracy-in-action group with a financial contribution, send your check to either of the following Finance Chairmen: Livonia — Mrs. Edward Lyden, 31280 Olson; Farmington — Mrs. William Cardwell, 25441 Springbrook Dr. The annual finance drives are currently in progress. Serving as Farmington's LWV president is Mrs. William H. Smith. Mrs. Myron Singer is her Livonia counterpart.

Informing voters on pros and cons of ballot issues "Test Your ABC's of Michigan Government" was an exhibit displayed by the LWV during Michigan candidate information week. Farmington residents had the opportunity to test their knowledge when the board was on display at the Farmington Founders Festival. Mrs. Walter Overhardt.

Mrs. John Federspill, Voters Service Chairman for the Livonia LWV displays two booklets, THIS IS LIVONIA and VOTING IN LIVONIA prepared by the Livonia LWV. VOTING IN LIVONIA is distributed through the City Clerk's office to newly registered voters.
